The Stilwell Group Sends SECOND Letter to Shareholders of Wheeler Real Estate Investment Trust

NEW YORK, July 9, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- The Stilwell Group, one of the largest shareholders of Wheeler Real Estate Investment Trust, Inc. (the "Company"), today announced that it delivered an open letter to shareholders of the Company.

The full text of the letter follows:

July 9, 2018

Dear Fellow WHLR Owner,

We are the largest owner of the Company's common equity. We are appalled at the destruction of value that has occurred at WHLR.

Six legacy directors remain on the Board of Directors, and we've duly submitted our notice to run for three of their positions at the upcoming Annual Meeting.

In January, WHLR issued 1.4 million shares of Series D, $25 Convertible Preferred Stock at an $8.50 discount to face value, something I've never seen occur at even a reasonably healthy company in my 35 years of working on Wall Street. This resulted in an immediate destruction of more than $12 million dollars for the common shareholders, and it has exposed WHLR common holders to potentially even worse consequences in the future. The transaction this financed was completely voluntary; hence, it appears to have been completely foolhardy.

According to press reports, the Board voted unanimously to sell the Series D shares at the $8.50 discount to face value, and our common shares declined by half. To me, this begs the question: Were none of the Board members capable of doing the very basic math, or were they each lacking in judgment, or were they all so lacking in gumption that they couldn't oppose the 'group-think' of their fellow directors?

While Jon Wheeler has since been fired, six legacy directors remain on the Board: Stewart Brown (placed on the Board by Westport Capital Partners LLC), David Kelly, John McAuliffe, Carl McGowan, Jr., John Sweet and Jeffrey Zwerdling. We're going to attempt to retire at least half of them.

Respectfully yours,

Joseph Stilwell

Why are these directors still on the Board?! *Our calculation, according to Nasdaq price history, is based on the $6/share closing price of WHLR on its first day of public trading, 11/19/2012 (adjusted to $48/share due to the 1-for-8 reverse stock split on 3/31/17), and the $4.25/share closing price on 7/6/2018.
