The Company shall not give any financial assistance for the acquisition of shares in the Company except and in so far as permitted by the Statutes.

8. COMMISSION AND BROKERAGE

The Company may in connection with the issue of any shares exercise all powers of paying commission and brokerage conferred or permitted by the Statutes. Subject to the Statutes, any such commission or brokerage may be satisfied by the payment of cash, the allotment of fully or partly paid shares, the grant of an option to call for an Allotment of shares or any combination of such matters.

9. VARIATION OF RIGHTS

9.1 Sanction to Variation

If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, any of the rights for the time being attached to any share or class of shares may, subject to the provisions of the Statutes and notwithstanding that the Company may be or about to be in liquidation, be modified, abrogated or varied in such manner (if any) as may be provided by such rights or, in the absence of any such provision, either with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of shares of that class duly convened and held as hereinafter provided (but not otherwise).

9.2 Class Meetings

To every such separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares, the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings of the Company or to the proceedings thereat shall, mutatis mutandis, so far as applicable apply, subject to the following provisions, namely:

- (a) the necessary quorum at any such meeting, other than an adjourned meeting, shall be two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class in question. If at any adjourned meeting of such holders such quorum as aforesaid is not present, not less than one person holding shares of the class who is present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum;
- (b) any holder of shares of the class in question present in person or by proxy may demand a poll; and
- (c) every holder of shares of the class in question present in person or by proxy shall be entitled on a poll to one vote for every share of that class held by him.

9.3 Deemed Variation

Subject to the terms of issue of all rights attached to any shares, the rights or privileges attached to any class of shares shall be deemed not to be modified, abrogated or varied by the creation or issue of any new shares ranking pari passu in all respects (save as to the date from which such new shares shall rank for dividend) with or subsequent to those already issued or by the reduction of the capital paid up on such shares or by the purchase or redemption by the Company of its own shares in accordance with the Statutes and these Articles.

10. INCREASE AND CONSOLIDATION OF CAPITAL

The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution:

- (a) increase its share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as the resolution prescribes;

Table of Contents

- (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amounts than its existing shares;
- (c) sub-divide its existing shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amounts, provided that:
 - (i) in the sub-division, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived; and
 - (ii) the resolution whereby any share is subdivided may determine that as between the resulting shares one or more of such shares may be given any preference or advantageous or deferred rights or be subject to any restriction as regards dividend, capital, voting or otherwise over the others or any other of such shares; and
- (d) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken, or agreed to be taken, by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

11. ADJUSTMENTS ON CONSOLIDATION

Whenever, as a result of a consolidation of shares, any members would become entitled to fractions of a share, the Board may settle any difficulty relating thereto. In particular, the Board may determine which shares are consolidated into each consolidated share and may, on behalf of those members, sell the shares representing the fractions for the best price reasonably obtainable (or at any other price approved by the Company by special resolution) to any person (including, subject to the provisions of the Statutes, the Company). The Board may distribute the net proceeds of sale (subject to retention by the Company of small amounts the cost of distribution of which would be disproportionate to the amounts involved) in due proportion among those members, and may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with, the directions of the purchaser. The transferee is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor is his title to the shares affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings in reference to the sale.

12. REDUCTION OF CAPITAL

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes and to any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the Company may by Special Resolution reduce its own share capital, any capital redemption reserve, any share premium account and any other undistributable reserve in any way.

EVIDENCE AS TO TITLE

13. SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 13.1 Every share certificate shall specify the number and class and the distinguishing number (if any) of the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. No certificate shall be issued relating to shares of more than one class.

- 13.2 Subject to the provisions of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, the rules of any relevant system and these Articles, every person (other than a recognised clearing house (within the meaning of the Financial Services Act 1986) or a nominee of a recognised clearing house or of a recognized investment exchange (within the meaning of the Financial Services Act 1986) or any other person in respect of whom the Company is not by law required to complete and have ready for delivery a certificate) whose name is entered as a member on the Register shall be entitled without payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgment of transfer of those shares or within two months after the relevant Operator-instruction is received by the Company (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all the shares registered in his name or, in the case of shares of more than one class being registered in his name, a separate certificate for each class of shares so registered, and where a member (except such a clearing house or nominee) transfers part of the shares of any class registered in his name he shall be entitled without payment to one Certificate for the balance of shares of that class retained by him. If a member shall require additional certificates he shall pay for each additional certificate such reasonable sum (if any) as the Board may determine.
- 13.3 In respect of certificated shares of one class held jointly by more than one person, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for such shares to one of the joint holders of such shares shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.
- 13.4 If any certificate be defaced or worn out then upon delivery thereof to the Company, the Board may order the same to be cancelled and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof; and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Board and on such indemnity with or without security as the Board deems adequate being given, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the party entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate.
- 13.5 Every certificate issued under the last preceding sub-article shall be issued without payment, but there shall be paid to the Company such exceptional out-of-pocket expenses of the Company in connection with the request (including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the investigation of such request and the preparation and execution of any such indemnity or security) as the Board thinks fit.
- 13.6 Nothing in this Article shall require the Company to issue a certificate in respect of uncertificated shares.

Table of Contents

14. UNCERTIFICATED SECURITIES (CREST)

- 14.1 Pursuant and subject to the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, the Board may permit title to shares of any class to be evidenced otherwise than by a certificate and title to shares of such a class to be transferred by means of a relevant system and may make arrangements for a class of shares (if it is in all respects identical) to become a participating class. Title to shares of a particular class may only be evidenced otherwise than by a certificate where that class of shares is for the time being a participating class. The Board may also, subject to compliance with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations and the rules of any relevant system, determine at any time that title to any class of shares may from a date specified by the Board no longer be evidenced otherwise than by a certificate or that title to such a class shall cease to be transferred by means of any particular relevant system. For the avoidance of doubt, shares which are uncertificated shares shall not be treated as forming a class which is separate from certificated shares with the same rights.
- 14.2 In relation to a class of shares which is, for the time being, a participating class and for so long as it remains a participating class, no provision of these Articles shall apply or have effect to the extent that it is inconsistent in any respect with:
- (a) the holding of shares of that class in uncertificated form;
 - (b) the transfer of title to shares of that class by means of a relevant system; and
 - (c) any provision of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations.
- 14.3 Shares of a class which is for the time being a participating class may be changed from uncertificated to certificated form, and from certificated to uncertificated form, in accordance with and subject as provided in the Uncertificated Securities Regulations and the rules of any relevant system, and the Board shall record on the register of members that the shares are held in certificated or uncertificated form as appropriate.

LIEN ON SHARES

15. LIEN ON SHARES NOT FULLY PAID

The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share. The Board may at any time waive any lien which has arisen and may declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to any amount payable in respect of it.

16. SALE OF SHARES SUBJECT TO LIEN

- 16.1 The Company may sell in a manner decided by the Board any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until the expiration of fourteen (14) clear days after notice in writing has been served on the holder of the shares (or the person entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy of the holder and who has supplied the Company with an address within the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland for the service of notices):

- (a) stating, and demanding payment of, the sum presently payable; and
- (b) stating that if the notice is not complied with the shares may be sold.

16.2 To give effect to any such sale the Board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, a purchaser of those shares. The title of the transferee to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money.

17. PROCEEDS OF SALE OF SHARES SUBJECT TO LIEN

The net proceeds of such sale, after payment of the costs thereof, shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable. The residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale and upon surrender, if required by the Company, for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

18. CALLS

18.1 Subject to the terms of allotment of shares, the Board may from time to time make calls upon the members as it thinks fit, (including for the purposes of this Article persons entitled to a share by transmission), in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether in respect of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and each member shall pay the Company at the time or times and place specified by the Company; provided that (subject as aforesaid) at least fourteen clear days notice shall be given of every call specifying the time or times and place of payment. A call may be revoked in whole or in part or the time fixed for its payment postponed in whole or in part as the Board may determine.

18.2 If any uncalled capital of the Company is included in or charged by any mortgage or other security, the Board may delegate on such terms as it thinks fit to the person in whose favour such mortgage or security is executed, or to any other person in trust for him, the power to make calls on the members in respect of such uncalled capital, to sue in the name of the Company or otherwise for the recovery of monies becoming due in respect of calls so made and to give valid receipts for such monies. The power so delegated shall subsist during the continuance of the mortgage or security, notwithstanding any change of Directors, and shall be assignable if expressed so to be.

Table of Contents

19. CALLS PAYABLE BY INSTALMENTS

A call is deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and a call may be made payable by installments.

20. LIABILITY OF JOINT HOLDERS FOR CALLS

The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.

21. MEMBERS TO PAY CALLS

Each member shall pay to the Company, at the time and place of payment specified in the notice of the call, the amount called on his shares. A person on whom a call is made will remain liable for calls made upon him notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

22. INTEREST ON UNPAID CALL

If the whole of the sum payable in respect of any call is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay all costs, charges and expenses that the Company may have incurred by reason of such non-payment, together with interest on the unpaid amount from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at the rate fixed by the terms of the allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is so fixed, at such rate, not exceeding twenty per cent. (20%) per annum (compounded on a six monthly basis) as the Board may determine. The Board may in its discretion waive payment of any such costs, charges, expenses or interest in whole or in part.

23. SUMS PAYABLE ON ALLOTMENT DEEMED A CALL

Any sum which, by the terms of allotment of a share, becomes payable on allotment or on any other fixed date, whether in respect of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made, notified and payable on the date on which, by the terms of allotment, it becomes payable. In the case of non-payment all the provisions of these Articles relating to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture and otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become due and payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

24. PAYMENT IN ADVANCE OF CALLS

The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance it, all or any part of the money uncalled and unpaid on any shares, whether in respect of the nominal value of the shares or the premium, held by him, and may pay on all or any of the money advanced (until it would but for the advance become presently payable) interest at a rate not exceeding 20 per cent. per annum, as the Board thinks fit, unless the Company in general meeting directs otherwise. The Board may at any time repay the amount so advanced on giving such member not less than three (3) months notice in writing of its intention in that behalf, unless before the expiration of such notice the amount so advanced shall have been called up on the shares in respect of which it was advanced.

25. DIFFERENCE IN CALLS

The Board may, on the allotment or issue of shares, differentiate between the allottees or holders of such shares as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

26. NOTICE REQUIRING PAYMENT OF CALLS

If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day fixed for payment, the Board may, at any time thereafter while part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of the unpaid amount of the call or instalment, together with any accrued interest and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Company by reason of the non-payment.

27. NOTICE TO STATE TIME AND PLACE FOR PAYMENT

The notice shall fix a further day (not less than fourteen clear days from the date of the notice) on or before which, and the place where, the payment required by the notice is to be made, and the notice shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place specified, the shares on which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

28. SURRENDER

The Board may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed and, subject to any such terms and conditions, a surrendered share shall be treated as if it had been forfeited.

FORFEITURE

29. FORFEITURE ON NON-COMPLIANCE

If the requirements of the notice served under Article 26 are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time before the payments required by the notice have been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Unless the Board otherwise decides, no holder of such a share is entitled to receive any dividend or be present or vote (whether in person or by representative or proxy) at any meeting, on a show of hands or on a poll, or to demand a poll or exercise any other privilege as a member. Every forfeiture shall include all dividends declared and other money payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before forfeiture. Forfeiture shall be deemed to occur at the time of the passing of the said resolution of the Board.

Table of Contents

30. NOTICE AFTER FORFEITURE AND SALE OF FORFEITED SHARES

30.1 When any share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be served upon the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share, or any person entitled to the share by transmission; and an entry of the forfeiture or surrender, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register, but no forfeiture or surrender shall be invalidated by any failure to give such notice or make such entry as aforesaid.

30.2 Subject to the Act, a forfeited share may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the Board decides, and at any time before sale, re-allotment or other disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled as the Board decides. Where a forfeited share is to be transferred to any person for its disposal the Board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the Share.

31. EFFECT OF FORFEITURE

31.1 A holder whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares and shall surrender to the Company for cancellation the certificate (if any) for the shares forfeited. The holder shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all money which at the date of forfeiture was then payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, with interest on it at such rate not exceeding 20 per cent. per annum as the Board decides from the date of forfeiture until payment. The Company may enforce payment without being under any obligation to make any allowance for the value of the shares forfeited or for any consideration received on their disposal.

31.2 The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the holder whose share is forfeited and the Company, except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by these Articles expressly saved, or as are by the Statutes given or imposed in the case of past members.

32. EVIDENCE OF FORFEITURE

A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered or sold to satisfy a lien of the Company on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. Such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the sale on the share, re-allotment or disposal thereof, together with the share certificate (if any) delivered to a purchaser or allottee thereof, shall (subject to the execution of a transfer if the same be required) constitute a good title to the share and the person to whom the share is sold, re-allotted or disposed shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

33. FORM OF TRANSFERS

Subject to such of the restrictions contained in these Articles as may be applicable:

- (a) each member may transfer all or any of his certificated shares by instrument of transfer in writing in any usual form or in any form which is from time to time approved by the Board; and
- (b) any member may transfer all or any of his uncertificated shares by means of a relevant system in such manner provided for and subject as provided in the Uncertificated Securities Regulations and the rules of any relevant system, and accordingly no provision of these Articles shall apply in respect of an uncertificated share to the extent that it requires or contemplates the effecting of a transfer by an instrument in writing or the production of a certificate for the share to be transferred.

34. EXECUTION OF TRANSFERS

The instrument of transfer of a certificated share (if any) shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and (in the case of a partly paid share) by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of it.

35. POWER TO REFUSE TO REGISTER

- 35.1 The Board may only decline to register a transfer of an uncertificated share in the circumstances set out in the Uncertificated Securities Regulations and where, in the case of a transfer to joint holders, the number of joint holders to whom the uncertificated share is to be transferred exceeds four.
- 35.2 The Board may, in its absolute discretion and without giving any reason, refuse to register any transfer of a certificated share (or renunciation of a renunciable letter of allotment) unless:
 - (a) it is in respect of a share which is fully paid up;
 - (b) it is in respect of only one class of share;
 - (c) it is in favour of a single transferee or not more than four transferees;
 - (d) it is duly stamped (if so required); and
 - (e) it is delivered for registration to the Office or such other place as the Board may from time to time determine, accompanied (except in the case of a transfer by a stock exchange nominee, or other person to whom the Company is not required by law to issue a certificate, or in the case of a renunciation) by the certificate for the shares to which it relates (if any such certificate has been issued) and/or such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or person renouncing and the due execution of the transfer or renunciation by him or, if the transfer or renunciation is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person to do so, provided that the Board shall not refuse to register any transfer or renunciation of partly paid shares which are listed on the Stock Exchange on the grounds that they are partly paid shares in circumstances where such refusal would prevent dealings in such shares from taking place on an open and proper basis.

35.3 Transfers of shares will not be registered in the circumstances described in Article 72.

36. RETENTION OF INSTRUMENT OF TRANSFER

The Company is entitled to retain any instrument of transfer which is registered, but any instrument of transfer which the Board refuses to register shall (except in the case of fraud) be returned to the person lodging it when notice of refusal is given.

37. NOTICE OF REFUSAL

If the Board refuses to register a transfer of a share, it shall, within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company or, in the case of uncertificated shares, within two months after the date on which the relevant Operator-instruction was received, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

38. TRUSTS

Except as required by law or pursuant to the provisions of these Articles, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and (except only by these Articles or by law otherwise provided or under a court of competent jurisdiction) the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

39. FEES ON REGISTRATION

No fee will be charged by the Company for the registration of any transfer or any other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

40. RENUNCIATION OF ALLOTMENT

The Board may, at any time after the allotment of any share but before any person has been entered in the Register as the holder, recognise a renunciation thereof by the allottee in favour of some other person and may accord to any allottee of a share a right to effect such renunciation upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may think fit to impose.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

41. ON DEATH

If a member dies the survivor or survivors, where he was a joint holder, and his personal representatives, where he was a sole holder or only surviving holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares, but nothing contained in these Articles shall release the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of any share held by him solely or jointly with other persons.

42. EXECUTOR S RIGHT TO REGISTRATION

Any person who is entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence as to his title being produced as the Board requires, elect either to be registered as the holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the holder. If the person elects to become the holder he shall give notice in writing to that effect to the Company. If the person elects to have another person registered, he shall execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person. All the provisions of these Articles relating to the transfer and registration of transfers of shares shall apply to the notice or instrument of transfer as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or instrument of transfer were a notice or an instrument of transfer executed by the member.

43. RIGHTS OF PERSONS ENTITLED BY TRANSMISSION

43.1 A person who is entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall have the rights to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as the holder of the share, be entitled to receive any notice of, or to attend or vote at, meetings of the Company or to any of the rights or privileges of a member until he has become a member in respect of the share. The Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied with within sixty days the Board may withhold payment of all dividends and other money payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

43.2 Where the entitlement of a person to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or of any other event giving rise to its transmission by operation of law is proved to the satisfaction of the Board, the Board shall within two months after proof cause the entitlement of that person to be noted in the register.

DOCUMENTS AND UNTRACED MEMBERS

44. DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

44.1 The Company may destroy:

Table of Contents

- (a) any instrument of transfer, after six (6) years from the date on which it is registered;
- (b) any dividend mandate or any variation or cancellation thereof, or other instruction concerning the payment of monies, or any notification of change of name or address, after three (3) years from the date on which it is recorded;
- (c) any share certificate, after one (1) year from the date on which it is cancelled; and
- (d) any other document on the basis of which any entry in the Register is made (including renounceable share certificates, forms of acceptance and transfer and applications for allotment), after six (6) years from the date on which an entry was first made in the Register in respect of it.

44.2 It shall be conclusively presumed in favour of the Company that every entry in the register purporting to have been made on the basis of a document so destroyed was duly and properly made, that every instrument of transfer so destroyed was duly registered, that every share certificate so destroyed was a valid certificate and was properly cancelled, and that every other document so destroyed was valid and effective in accordance with the particulars in the records of the Company, provided that:

- (a) this Article shall apply only to the destruction of a document in good faith and without notice of any claim (regardless of the parties to it) to which the document might be relevant;
- (b) nothing in this Article shall be construed as imposing upon the Company any liability in respect of the destruction of any such document otherwise than as provided for in this Article which would not attach to the Company in the absence of this Article; and
- (c) references in this Article to the destruction of any document include references to its disposal in any manner.

45. UNTRACED MEMBERS

45.1 The Company shall be entitled to sell at the best price reasonably obtainable any certificate share of a member or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission, if and provided that:

- (a) the shares have been in issue either in certificated or uncertificated form for a period of twelve (12) years; and
- (b) for a period of twelve (12) years no cheque, warrant or order sent by the Company in the manner authorised by these Articles in respect of the share in question has been cashed, no cash dividend payable on the shares has been satisfied by the transfer of funds to a bank account designated by the member, or person entitled by transmission to the shares, or by transfer of funds by means of a relevant system,

Table of Contents

and no communication has been received by the Company from the member or the person entitled by transmission, provided that in that such period of twelve (12) years at least three cash dividends (whether interim or final) on or in respect of the share in question have become payable and no such dividend during that period has been claimed; and

- (c) the Company has at the expiry of the said period of twelve (12) years, by advertisement in at least two national daily newspapers published in the United Kingdom (or, in the case of a member on the Republic of Ireland Branch Register, a leading national daily newspaper published in the Republic of Ireland) and in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the last known address of the member or the address at which service of notices may be effected in the manner authorised in accordance with the provisions of these Articles is located, given notice of its intention to sell such share (but so that such advertisements need not refer to the names of the holder(s) of the share or identify the share in question); and
- (d) the Company has not during the further period of three months after the date of publication of the advertisement (or the last of the advertisements to be published if they are published on different dates) and prior to the exercise of the power of sale received any communication from the member or person entitled by transmission; and
- (e) if the shares are listed or dealt in on the Stock Exchange, the Company has first given notice in writing to the Quotations Department of the Stock Exchange in London of its intention to make the sale.

45.2 To give effect to the sale the Board may appoint any person to execute as transferor any instrument of transfer of the share which may be required from time to time and the instrument of transfer (if any) shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the holder of or person entitled by transmission to the share. The Company shall account to the member or other person entitled to the share for the net proceeds of sale by carrying all moneys in respect thereof to a separate account which shall be a permanent debt of the Company. The Company shall be deemed to be a debtor and not a trustee in respect thereof for the member or other person and no interest shall be payable in respect of the proceeds of sale. Moneys carried to such separate account may either be employed in the business of the Company or invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company or its holding company, if any) as the Board thinks fit and so the Company shall not be required to account for any moneys so earned.

45.3 If either

- (a) on at least two consecutive occasions, cheques, warrants or orders in payment of dividends or other monies payable in respect of any share,

Table of Contents

have been sent through the post or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of these Articles but have been returned undelivered or left uncashed during the periods for which the same are valid or any transfer by bank or other funds transfer system has not been satisfied or if any other means of payment by which dividends are normally paid on those shares, including payment by means of a relevant system, has failed; or

- (b) following one such occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish any new address of the registered holder the Company need not thereafter dispatch any further cheques, warrants or orders and need not thereafter transfer any sum (as the case may be) in payment of dividends or other monies payable in respect of the share in question (including by means of a relevant system) until the member or other person entitled thereto shall have communicated with the Company and supplied in writing to the Office an address for the purpose.

PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

46. COMPANY MAY PURCHASE OWN SHARES

- 46.1 Subject to the provisions of the Statutes and of these Articles, and subject to any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the Company may purchase, or may enter into a contract whereby it will or may purchase, any of its own shares of any class (including redeemable shares) at any price (whether at, above or below their nominal amount) and such purchase shall not be deemed to vary or cancel the rights attached to any shares. All shares so purchased shall be cancelled immediately upon completion of the purchase and the amount of the Company's issued share capital (but not authorised share capital) shall be reduced by the nominal amount of the shares purchased.
- 46.2 No purchase by the Company of its own shares shall take place unless authorised by a resolution of the Company as required by the Act and, if the Company has in existence any convertible securities admitted to listing on the London Stock Exchange which entitle the holders to convert them (whether immediately or otherwise) into equity shares of the class proposed to be purchased, no such purchase shall take place unless either:
- (a) the terms of issue of such convertible securities permit the Company to do so; or
- (b) the purchase is authorised by an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a separate class meeting of the holders of such convertible securities.
- 46.3 Purchases by the Company of its own redeemable shares shall, where such shares are listed by the Stock Exchange, be limited to a maximum price which, in the case of purchases through the market or by tender, will not exceed the average of the middle market quotations taken from the Stock Exchange Daily Official List for the five (5) business days before the purchase is made or in the case of a purchase through the market, at the market price, provided that it is not more than five per cent. (5%) above such average. If such purchases are by tender, tenders shall be made available to all holders of such shares alike.

47. SELECTION OF SHARES TO BE PURCHASED

Neither the Company nor the Board shall be required to select the shares to be purchased rateably or in any other manner as between the holders of the shares of the same class or as between them and the holders with the rights as to dividends or capital conferred by any class of shares.

GENERAL MEETINGS

48. GENERAL MEETINGS

The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and not more than fifteen (15) months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Board shall determine.

49. EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

49.1 All general meetings other than annual general meetings are extraordinary general meetings.

49.2 The Board may convene an extraordinary general meeting whenever it thinks fit. An extraordinary general meeting shall also be convened by the Board upon receipt of a requisition of members, or, in default, by such requisitionists, as provided by the Statutes. At any meeting convened on such requisition or by such requisitionists, no business shall be transacted except that stated by the requisition or proposed by the Board. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director in the United Kingdom capable of acting may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Board.

50. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

50.1 An annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution, or (save as provided by the Statutes) a resolution of which special notice has been given to the Company, shall be called by at least twenty-one (21) clear days notice in writing. All other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by at least fourteen (14) clear days notice in writing.

50.2 Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, and notwithstanding that it is convened by shorter notice than that specified in this Article 50, a meeting of the Company shall be deemed to have been duly convened if it is so agreed:

- (a) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting; and
- (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having the right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95% in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

50.3 The notice shall specify:

- (a) whether the meeting is an annual general meeting or an extraordinary general meeting;
- (b) the place, the day and the time of the meeting;
- (c) the general nature of the business to be transacted;
- (d) if the meeting is convened to consider a special or extraordinary resolution, the intention to propose the resolution as such; and
- (e) with reasonable prominence, that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and, on a poll, vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a member.

50.4 The notice shall be given to all members (other than any who, under the provisions of these Articles or of any restrictions imposed on any shares, are not entitled to receive notice from the Company), to the Directors and to the Auditors.

51. POSTPONEMENT OF GENERAL MEETINGS

If the Board, in its absolute discretion, considers that it is impractical or unreasonable for any reason to hold a general meeting on the date or at the time or place specified in the notice calling the general meeting, it may postpone the general meeting to another date, time and place. When a meeting is so postponed, notice of the date, time and place of the postponed meeting shall be placed in at least two national newspapers in the United Kingdom and one national newspaper in the Republic of Ireland. Notice of the business to be transacted at such postponed meeting shall not be required.

52. SEPARATE GENERAL MEETINGS

The provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall apply, with any necessary modifications, to any separate general meeting of the holders of shares of a class convened otherwise than in connection with the variation or abrogation of the rights attached to the shares of that class. For this purpose, a general meeting at which no holder of a share other than an Ordinary Share may, in his capacity as a member, attend or vote shall also constitute a separate general meeting of the holders of the Ordinary Shares.

Table of Contents

53. OMISSION OF NOTICE

The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting, or (where forms of proxy or other documents are sent out with notices) to send a form of proxy or other document relating to a meeting with a notice to any person entitled to receive the same, or the non-receipt of a notice of meeting or form of proxy or other document by such a person, shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

54. QUORUM

No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business, but the absence of a quorum shall not preclude the choice or appointment of a Chairman, what shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting. Subject to Article 55, ten persons entitled to attend and to vote on the business to be transacted (each being a member or a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation which is a member) shall be a quorum for all the purposes of the meeting.

55. PROCEEDINGS IN DEFAULT OF QUORUM

If within five minutes (or such longer interval as the Chairman in his absolute discretion thinks fit) from the time fixed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to such day and to such time and place (being not less than three (3) nor more than twenty eight (28) clear days later) as may have been specified in the notice convening the meeting. Where no such arrangements have been so specified, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such other day (being not less than fourteen nor more than twenty-eight clear days thereafter) fixed by the Chairman of the meeting or in default by the Board. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within five minutes from the time fixed for holding the meeting, two persons entitled to attend and to vote on the business to be transacted (each being a member or a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation which is a member) shall be a quorum. The Company shall give at least seven days notice in writing of any meeting adjourned through lack of a quorum if arrangements were not specified in the original notice of meeting and the notice shall state that two (2) members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

56. CHAIRMAN

56.1 The Chairman of the Board or in his absence a vice-Chairman (if any) or in his absence a deputy Chairman (if any) shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the Company. If there is no such Chairman, vice-Chairman or deputy Chairman, or if at any meeting neither the Chairman nor a vice-chairman nor a deputy Chairman is present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time fixed for holding the meeting or if none is willing to act as Chairman of the meeting, the Directors present shall choose one of themselves to be Chairman or if no Director is present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, the members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting. The Chairman so selected will remain Chairman for the duration of the meeting.

56.2 If the Board shall at any time have appointed Joint Chairman, each Joint Chairman shall preside as Chairman at alternate general meetings of the Company, unless the Joint Chairmen shall otherwise agree between them.

57. ADJOURNMENT

57.1 The Chairman may at any time without the consent of the meeting adjourn any meeting (whether or not it has commenced or a quorum is present) either to such time and place as he thinks fit or for an indefinite period where it appears to him that (a) the members wishing to attend cannot be conveniently accommodated in the place appointed for the meeting; (b) the conduct of persons present prevents or is likely to prevent the orderly continuation of business; or (c) an adjournment is otherwise necessary so that the business of the meeting may be properly conducted.

57.2 In addition, the Chairman of a meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting (and shall, if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting to such time and place as he thinks fit or for an indefinite period. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for three (3) months or more, or for an indefinite period, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as for the original meeting. When a meeting is adjourned for between one (1) month and three (3) months, at least seven (7) clear days notice shall be given, specifying the day, time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted; but except as provided in Article 55 and these Articles, it shall not otherwise be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. When a meeting is adjourned indefinitely, the day, time and place for the adjourned meeting shall be fixed by the Board.

58. ACCOMMODATION OF MEMBERS AND SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS

58.1 The Board may, for the purpose of controlling the level of attendance and ensuring the safety of those attending at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting, from time to time make such arrangements as the Board shall in its absolute discretion consider to be necessary or appropriate and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements in place therefor. The entitlement of any member or proxy to attend a general meeting at such place shall be subject to any such arrangements as may be for the time being approved by the Board. In the case of any meeting to which such arrangements apply the Board may, when specifying the place of the meeting:

Table of Contents

- (a) direct that the meeting shall be held at a place specified in the notice at which the Chairman of the meeting shall preside (the Principal Place); and
- (b) make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at other places by members otherwise entitled to attend the general meeting but excluded therefrom under the provisions of this Article or who wish to attend at any of such other places, provided that persons attending at the Principal Place and at any of such other places shall be able to see, and hear and be seen and heard by, persons attending at the Principal Place and at such other places, by any means.

Such arrangements for simultaneous attendance may include arrangements for controlling the level of attendance in any manner aforesaid at any of such other places, provided that they shall operate so that any such excluded members as aforesaid are able to attend at one of such other places. For the purposes of all other provisions of these Articles any such meeting shall be treated as being held and taking place at the Principal Place.

- 58.2 The Board may direct that any person wishing to attend any meeting should submit to such searches or other security arrangements or restrictions as the Board shall consider appropriate in the circumstances and shall be entitled in its absolute discretion to (or to authorise some one or more persons to) refuse entry to, or eject from, any meeting any person who fails to submit to such searches or otherwise to comply with such security arrangements or restrictions.

59. ORDERLY CONDUCT

The Chairman shall take such action as he reasonably thinks fit to promote the orderly conduct of the business of the meeting as laid down in the notice of the meeting and the Chairman s decision on matters of procedure or arising incidentally from the business of the meeting shall be final as shall be his determination as to whether any matter is of such a nature.

60. NO PROPOSAL OR SECONDING OF RESOLUTIONS

At general meetings, resolutions shall be put to the vote of the meeting by the Chairman and there shall be no requirement for the resolution to be proposed or seconded by any person.

61. VOTING PROCEDURE

A resolution put to the vote of any general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands or on withdrawal of any other demand for a poll) a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the Statutes, a poll may be demanded:

- (a) by the Chairman of the meeting; or

Table of Contents

- (b) by at least three (3) members present in person, by proxy or (in the case of a corporation which is a member) by duly authorised representative, and entitled to vote; or
- (c) by any member or members present in person, by proxy or (in the case of a corporation which is a member) by duly authorised representative, and representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (d) by a member or members present in person, by proxy or (in the case of a corporation which is a member) by duly authorised representative, holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

Unless a poll is duly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

62. POLL

- 62.1 If a poll is duly demanded, it shall, subject to Article 63, be taken in the manner directed by the Chairman of the meeting. The Chairman may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a day, time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 62.2 The demand for a poll (other than on a question of adjournment) shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result on a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 62.3 The demand for a poll may, before the poll was taken, be withdrawn, but only with the consent of the Chairman. A demand so withdrawn shall validate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 62.4 On a poll, votes may be given in person, or by proxy or (in the case of a corporation which is a member) by a duly authorised representative. A member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

Table of Contents

63. NO POLL OR POLL TO BE TAKEN AT ONCE

No poll may be demanded on the election of the Chairman of a meeting. On a question of adjournment of any meeting, a poll may only be demanded by the Chairman of the meeting and it shall be taken immediately. A poll duly demanded on any other question shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) and either forthwith or at such day, time and place as may be directed by the Chairman of the meeting, but in any case not more than twenty-eight (28) days after the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded.

64. NOTICE OF POLL

No notice need be given of a poll unless the Chairman otherwise directs.

65. CHAIRMAN S CASTING VOTE

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll was demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.

66. DIRECTORS AND OTHER PERSONS MAY ATTEND AND SPEAK AT GENERAL MEETINGS

A Director (and any other person invited by the Chairman to do so), notwithstanding that he is not a member, shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company.

67. ATTENDANCE AT GENERAL MEETINGS WHEN SHARES HELD BY A NOMINEE

Without prejudice to Article 38, where the Board is satisfied that the registered holder of any share (the Nominee) holds such share on trust for another person (an Investor), the Board may permit such Investor to attend and (if the Board thinks fit) speak at any general meeting and any separate meeting of the holders of the class of shares held by the Nominee on behalf of the Investor. No Investor shall be entitled to attend or speak at any meeting as aforesaid unless the Board has, not less than seven (7) days prior to the relevant meeting, received a written notice from the Nominee (a Nominee Notice) stating that the Investor is the person for whom the Nominee holds the relevant share or shares on trust. A Nominee Notice shall only be valid for this purpose for twelve (12) months from the date of such Notice.

VOTES OF MEMBERS AND AMENDMENTS TO RESOLUTIONS

68. VOTES

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, and to any suspension or abrogation of voting rights pursuant to these Articles, on a show of hands every member who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative who is not himself a member entitled to vote, shall have one vote, and on a poll every member (who is present in person or, if a corporation, by representative or by proxy) shall have one vote for every Ordinary Share of which he is the holder.

69. VOTES BY JOINT HOLDERS

In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote (whether in person or by representative or proxy) shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the Register.

70. VOTES BY MEMBERS SUFFERING FROM MENTAL DISORDER

Where in England or elsewhere a receiver or other person (by whatever name called) has been appointed by any court or competent official claiming jurisdiction in that behalf to exercise powers with respect to the property or affairs of any member on the ground (however formulated) of mental disorder, the Board may in its absolute discretion, on or subject to production of such evidence of appointment as the Board may require, permit such receiver or other person to vote in person or, on a poll, by proxy on behalf of such member at any general meeting. Evidence to the satisfaction of the Board of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be deposited at the Office, or at such other place specified under these Articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised, and in default the right to vote is not exercisable.

71. DISQUALIFICATION FROM VOTING

No member shall, unless the Board otherwise determines, be entitled to vote at a general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in person or by proxy, or to exercise any other right or privilege as a member in respect of a share held by him unless and until all calls or other sums presently due and payable by him in respect of that share, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any) have been paid to the Company.

72. DISENFRANCHISEMENT

72.1 If a member, or any other person appearing to the Directors to be interested in any shares held by that member, has been duly served with a notice under Section 212 of the Act and is in default for the period of fourteen (14) days from the date of service of the notice under the said Section 212 in supplying to the Company the information thereby required, then the Company may (at the absolute discretion of the Board) at any time thereafter by notice (a Restriction Notice) to such member direct that, in respect of the shares in relation to which the default occurred and any other shares held at the date of the Restriction Notice, by the member, or such of them as the Board may determine from time to time (the Restricted Shares), which expression shall include any further shares which are issued in respect of any restricted shares), the member shall not, nor shall any transferee to which any of such shares are transferred other than pursuant to a permitted transfer pursuant to paragraph 72.2(c) below, be entitled to be present or to vote on any question (either in person or by representative or proxy) at any general meeting of the Company or any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the Company, or on poll or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to any such meeting or poll or to be reckoned in a quorum.

72.2 Where the person on whom the Restriction Notice is served holds, or is shown in any register kept by the Company under the Statutes as having an interest in, shares in the Company which comprise in total at least 0.25 per cent. in number or nominal value of the shares of the Company, or of any class of such shares, in issue at the date of service of the statutory notice or the Restriction Notice (as the case may be), then the Restriction Notice may also direct that:

- (a) any dividend of any part thereof or any other monies which would otherwise be payable on or in respect of the Restricted Shares shall be withheld by the Company; shall not bear interest against the Company; and shall be payable (when the Restriction Notice ceases to have effect) to the person who would, but for the Restriction Notice, have been entitled to them; and/or
- (b) where an offer of the right to elect to receive shares of the Company instead of cash in respect of any dividend or part thereof is or has been made by the Company, any election made thereunder by such member in respect of such Restricted Shares shall not be effective; and/or
- (c) no transfer of any shares held by such member shall be recognised or registered by the Directors unless the transfer is a permitted transfer or:
 - (i) the member is not himself in default as regards supplying the information required; and
 - (ii) the transfer is part only of the member's holding and, when presented for registration, is accompanied by a certificate by the member in a form satisfactory to the Directors to the effect that after due and careful enquiry the member is satisfied that none of the shares the subject of the transfer are Restricted Shares.

Upon the giving of a Restriction Notice its terms shall apply accordingly.

72.3 Where, on the basis of information obtained from a member in respect of any share held by him, the Company issues a notice pursuant to Section 212 of the Act to any other person, it shall at the same time send a copy of the notice to the member, but the accidental omission to do so, or the non-receipt by the member of the copy, shall not invalidate or otherwise affect such notice or the application of Article 72.1.

- 72.4 The Company shall, within seven (7) days after the Directors are satisfied that the default in respect of which the relevant Restriction Notice was issued no longer continues, cancel a Restriction Notice. A Restriction Notice shall cease to have effect in relation to any shares which are transferred by such member by means of a permitted transfer or in accordance with paragraph 72.2(c) above on receipt by the Company of notice that a transfer as aforesaid has been made. The Company may (at the absolute discretion of the Board) at any time give notice to the member cancelling, or suspending for a stated period the operation of, a Restriction Notice in whole or in part.
- 72.5 Where any Restricted Shares in which a person appears to be interested are held by an Approved Depositary, the provisions of this Article 72 shall be treated as applying only to those shares held by the Approved Depositary in which such person appears to be interested and not (insofar as such persons apparent interest is concerned) to any other shares held by the Approved Depositary.
- 72.6 Where the member on which a notice under Section 212 of the Act is served is a Approved Depositary acting in its capacity as such, the obligations of the Approved Depositary as a member of the Company shall be limited to disclosing to the Company such information relating to any person appearing to be interested in the shares held by it as has been recorded by it pursuant to the arrangements entered into by the Company or approved by the Board pursuant to which it was appointed as an Approved Depositary.
- 72.7 For the purposes of this Article 72:
- (a) a person, other than the member holding a share, shall be treated as appearing to be interested in that share if the member has informed the Company that the person is, or may be, so interested, or if that person is named in a response to a statutory notice as being so interested, or if that person is shown in any register kept by the Company under the Statutes as being so interested, or (where the member holding such shares in an Approved Depositary) if that person has informed the Approved Depositary that he is so interested, or if the Company (after taking account of any information obtained from the member or any other relevant information in the possession of the Company) knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person in question is, or may be, interested in the shares; and
 - (b) a transfer of shares is a permitted transfer if, but only if:
 - (i) it is a transfer by way of, or in pursuance of, acceptance of a takeover offer for the Company (as defined in Section 428 of the Act); or

Table of Contents

- (ii) the Board is satisfied that the transfer is made pursuant to a bona fide sale of the whole of the beneficial ownership of the shares to a third party unconnected with the transferring member or with any other person appearing to the Board to be interested in such shares (and for the purposes of this sub-paragraph any associate (as that term is defined in Section 435 of the Insolvency Act 1986) of the member or of any other person appearing to the Board to be so interested in any of the Restricted Shares shall be deemed to be connected with the transferring member); or
- (iii) the transfer results from a sale made on or through a recognised investment exchange (as defined in Section 207 of the Financial Services Act 1986) or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the Company's shares of the same class as the Restricted Shares are normally dealt in;
- (c) the term "interested" shall be construed as it is for the purpose of Section 212 of the Act;
- (d) a reference to a person having failed to give the Company the information required by a notice, or being in default as regards applying such information, includes a reference:
 - (i) to his having failed or refused to give all or any part of it; and
 - (ii) to his having given information which he knows to be false in a material particular or having recklessly given information which is false in any material particular; and
- (e) the provisions of this Article are in addition and without prejudice to the provisions of the Statutes.

73. OBJECTION TO VOTER'S QUALIFICATIONS

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter or to the counting of, or failure to count, any vote, except at the general meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered. Subject to any objection made in due time, every vote counted and not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid and every vote disallowed or not counted shall be invalid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive. The Chairman shall decide whether an objection is made in due time or not.

74. NOTICE OF AMENDMENT TO RESOLUTIONS

No amendment or proposed amendment to any ordinary resolution shall be put to or voted upon by the members at any general meeting or adjourned general meeting unless the Company has received written notice of the amendment or proposed amendment at least forty-eight (48) hours before the date fixed for the general meeting. Notwithstanding that written notice has not been given, the Chairman, in his absolute discretion, may accept amendments of a minor or clerical nature or to correct a patent error at any general meeting or adjourned general meeting.

75. AMENDMENTS TO RESOLUTIONS

Subject to Article 74, if an amendment is proposed to any resolution under consideration but is in good faith ruled out of order by the Chairman of the meeting, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in the ruling. In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a Special or Extraordinary Resolution, no amendment to it (other than amendments of a minor or clerical nature or to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted upon.

PROXIES AND REPRESENTATIVES

76. VOTES BY PROXY

On a poll, votes may be given either personally or, if a corporation, by representative or proxy (who need not be a member). A member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

77. FORM OF PROXY

Forms of instrument of proxy shall be in any usual form or other form as the Board approves. Forms of instrument of proxy shall be sent by the Company to all persons entitled to notice of and to attend and vote at any meeting, and shall provide for voting both for and against all resolutions to be proposed at that meeting, other than resolutions relating to the procedure of the meeting. The instrument of proxy shall be in writing and shall be executed by or on behalf of the appointor or if such appointor is a corporation, either under its common seal or under the hand of a duly authorised officer or attorney. The Board may, but shall not be bound to, require evidence of the authority of the officer or attorney. The instrument of proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any amendment of a resolution put to the meeting for which it is given, as the proxy thinks fit. Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting or poll concerned.

78. DEPOSIT OF PROXIES

The instrument appointing a proxy and any authority under which it is executed or a copy of the authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the Board may:

- (a) be deposited at the Office or at such other place or places specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of any adjournment, or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting, not less than forty-eight (48) hours (or such shorter time specified in such notice or instrument of proxy) before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or

- (b) in the case of a poll taken subsequently to the meeting or adjourned meeting, be deposited as in Article 79(a) after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for taking the poll;

and an instrument of proxy which is not deposited or delivered in accordance with this Article will be invalid, unless the Board waives compliance with this provision.

79. PROXIES DELIVERED BY FACSIMILE

79.1 Any instrument appointing a proxy may be delivered by facsimile transmitted to the office or such other place as is specified in the notice convening a general meeting of the Company or in any notice of adjournment or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting provided that:

- (a) the facsimile is actually received (whether or not it appears to the sender to have been received) at the aforementioned place not less than forty-eight (48) hours (or any shorter time specified in such notice or instrument of proxy) before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or, in the case of a poll taken subsequently to the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll;
- (b) the Chairman of the meeting or the Secretary or any other person authorised by the Board for the purpose determines in his sole discretion (such determination to be conclusive) that such facsimile has been transmitted in an acceptable manner including a determination that such facsimile is complete and is in a clear and legible form; and
- (c) the original instrument appointing the proxy and (if required by the Board) any authority under which it is executed or a copy of the authority, certified notarially or in some other manner approved by the Board, is delivered to the office or such other place as aforesaid not less than one hour before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting.

79.2 No regard shall be had to any instrument of proxy delivered by facsimile in respect of which the provisions of this Article are not complied with. The provisions of Article 80.1 (Authority of Proxy) shall apply equally to proxies delivered by facsimile.

80. AUTHORITY OF PROXY

80.1 When two or more valid but differing instruments of proxy are delivered within the appropriate time period in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting, the one which is last delivered (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the others as regards that share; if the Company is unable to determine which was last delivered, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.

80.2 The instrument appointing a proxy to vote at a meeting shall be deemed also to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll (and for the purposes of these Articles a demand for a poll made by a person as proxy for a member or as the duty authorised representative of a corporate member shall be the same as a demand made by the member). No instrument of proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date stated in it as the date of its execution. The instrument of proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated, be valid for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates, but unless authorised by the Act a proxy may not speak at any meeting.

81. TERMINATION OF PROXY S AUTHORITY

A vote given or poll demanded by a person as proxy for a member or by the duly authorised representative of a corporate member shall be valid notwithstanding the previous termination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll, unless notice of the termination was received by the Company at the Office, or other place at which the instrument of proxy was duly deposited, not later than the last time at which an instrument of proxy should have been delivered in order to be valid for use at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll not taken on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) for use on the holding of such poll.

82. BOARD S POWER TO ISSUE PROXIES

The Board may at the expense of the Company send instruments of proxy to members by post or otherwise (with or without provision for their return prepaid) for use at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in blank or nominating in the alternative any one or more of the Board or any other person. If for the purpose of any meeting, invitations to appoint as proxy a person, or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations, are issued at the Company s expense, they shall be issued to all the members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote at it. The accidental omission to send such an instrument or give such an invitation to, or the non-receipt by, any member entitled to attend and vote at a meeting shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

83. CORPORATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES

A corporation (whether or not a company within the meaning of the Act) which is a member may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person (or if, but only if, such corporation is an Approved Depository voting in its capacity as such, persons) as it thinks fit to act as its representative (or, as the case may be, representatives) at any meeting of the Company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares. Any person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of a corporation (in respect of that part of the corporation s holdings to which the authority relates) as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member. The corporation shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present at it; and all references to attendance and voting in person shall be construed accordingly. A Director, the Secretary or some person authorised for the purpose by the Secretary may require the representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution so authorising him or such other evidence of his authority reasonably satisfactory to them before permitting him to exercise his powers.

NUMBER AND QUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

84. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

Until otherwise determined by ordinary resolution of the Company, the Directors shall not be more than twenty-five (25) in number and not less than three (3).

85. DIRECTOR S QUALIFICATION

A Director shall not be required to hold any shares of the Company by way of qualification.

86. POWER OF COMPANY TO APPOINT DIRECTORS

Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing Board, but the total number of Directors shall not exceed any maximum number fixed by or in accordance with these Articles.

87. VACANCIES

If the number of Directors is reduced below the minimum number fixed in accordance with these Articles, the Directors or Director for the time being may act for the purpose of filling up the vacancies in their number or of calling a general meeting of the Company, but not for any other purpose. If there is no Director or Directors able and willing to act, then any two members may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing Directors.

88. PERSONS ELIGIBLE FOR APPOINTMENT

No person other than a Director retiring (or, if appointed by the Board, vacating office) at the meeting shall, unless recommended by the Board, be eligible for election to the office of Director at any general meeting, unless not less than seven (7) nor more than forty (40) clear days before the date fixed for the meeting a notice in writing by a member (not being the person to be proposed) entitled to be present and vote at the meeting for which the notice is given has been left at the Office addressed to the Secretary giving notice of his intention to propose such person for election, and also notice in writing signed by the person to be proposed, of his willingness to be elected. The notice by a member shall give the particulars of that person which would (if he were elected) be required to be included in the Company s register of Directors.

89. ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 89.1 Each Director shall have the power at any time to appoint as an alternate Director either (a) another Director, or (b) any other person approved for that purpose by a resolution of the Board, and, at any time, to terminate such appointment. Every appointment and removal of an alternate Director shall be in writing signed by the appointor and (subject to any approval required) shall (unless the Board agrees otherwise) only take effect upon receipt of such written appointment or removal at the Office or at a meeting of the Board. An alternate Director shall not be required to hold any shares in the capital of the Company and shall not be counted in reckoning the maximum and minimum numbers of Directors allowed or required by Article 84.
- 89.2 An alternate Director so appointed shall not be entitled as such to receive any remuneration from the Company except only such part (if any) of the remuneration otherwise payable to his appointor as such appointor may by notice in writing to the Company from time to time direct, but shall otherwise be subject to the provisions of these Articles with respect to Directors (other than as regards the power to appoint an alternate). An alternate Director shall during his appointment be an officer of the Company and shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults and shall not be deemed to be an agent of his appointor.
- 89.3 An alternate Director shall be entitled (subject to his giving to the Company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served upon him) to receive notices of all meetings of the Board and of any committee of the Board of which his appointor is a member, and shall be entitled to attend and vote as a Director at any such meeting at which his appointor is not personally present and generally in the absence of his appointor to perform and exercise all functions, rights, powers and duties as Director of his appointor. Execution by an alternate Director of any resolution in writing of the Board or a committee of the Board shall, unless the notice of his appointment provides to the contrary, be as effective as execution by his appointor.
- 89.4 The appointment of an alternate Director shall automatically determine on the happening of any event which, if he were a Director, would cause him to vacate such office or if his appointor shall cease for any reason to be a Director otherwise than by retiring and being reappointed at the same meeting.
- 89.5 A Director or any other person may act as alternate Director to represent more than one Director and an alternate Director shall be entitled at meetings of the Board or any committee of the Directors to one vote for every Director whom he represents in addition to his own vote (if any) as a Director, but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

90. POWERS OF THE BOARD

90.1 Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, the Memorandum of Association of the Company and these Articles, and to any direction given by special resolution of the Company, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Board, which may exercise all the powers of the Company, whether relating to the management of the business or not. No alteration of the Memorandum of Association or of these Articles and no such direction given by the Company shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such alteration had not been made or such direction had not been given. Provisions contained elsewhere in these Articles as to any specific power of the Board shall not be deemed to limit the general powers given by this Article.

90.2 Without prejudice to any other provisions of these Articles, the Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to purchase and maintain insurance for or for the benefit of any persons who are or were at any time Directors, officers, employees or auditors of the Company, or of any other body (whether or not incorporated) which is or was its parent undertaking or Subsidiary undertaking or another Subsidiary undertaking of any such parent undertaking (together Group Companies) or otherwise associated with the Company or any Group Company or in which the Company or any such Group Company has or had any interest, whether direct or indirect, or of any predecessor in business of any of the foregoing, or who are or were at any time trustees of (or directors of trustees) any pension, superannuation or similar fund, trust or scheme or any employees' share scheme or other scheme or arrangement in which any employees of the Company or of any such other body are interested, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) insurance against any costs, charges, expenses, losses or liabilities suffered or incurred by such persons in respect of any act or omission in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of their duties and/or the exercise or purported exercise of their powers and discretions and/or otherwise in relation to or in connection with their duties, powers or offices in relation to the Company or any such other body, fund, trust, scheme or arrangement.

91. LOCAL BOARDS AND AGENCIES

The Board may make any arrangements it thinks fit for the management and transaction of the Company's affairs in the United Kingdom, the Republic of Ireland and elsewhere, and may for that purpose appoint local Boards, managers and agents and delegate to them upon terms and conditions as the Board thinks fit any of the powers of the Board (other than the power to borrow and make calls) with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise them to fill any vacancies in their number or to act notwithstanding any vacancies.

Table of Contents

92. APPOINTMENT OF AGENT AND REGISTRAR

- 92.1 The Board may from time to time and at any time, by power of attorney or otherwise appoint any company, firm or person, or any fluctuating body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Board, to be the agent or agents of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Board under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit. Any such power of attorney or other form of authorisation may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with any such agent as the Board thinks fit and may also authorise any such agent to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him. The Board may remove any person appointed under this Article and may revoke or vary the delegation but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of the revocation or variation shall be affected by it. The power to delegate contained in this Article shall be effective in relation to the powers, authorities and discretions of the Board generally and shall not be limited by the fact that in certain Articles, but not in others, express reference is made to particular powers, authorities or discretions being exercised by the Board or by a committee authorised by the Board.
- 92.2 The Board may appoint any company, person or firm to act as Registrar of the Company's shares or debentures on such terms as the Board thinks fit, provided that if there are in issue any uncertificated shares such terms shall be consistent with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations.

93. DELEGATION TO COMMITTEES

- 93.1 The Board may delegate any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) for such time on such terms and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit to any committee consisting of such person or persons (whether a member or members of its body or not) as it thinks fit. Any committee so formed may exercise its powers to sub-delegate by sub-delegating to any person or persons (whether or not a member of the Board or of the committee).
- 93.2 The Board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the Board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary any of such powers and discharge any such committee (or sub-committee) in whole or in part. Insofar as any power, authority or discretion is so delegated, any reference in these Articles to the exercise by the Board of such power, authority or discretion shall be construed as if it were a reference to the exercise of such power, authority or discretion by such committee. The quorum for proceedings of a committee shall be fixed by the Board.
- 93.3 The power to delegate contained in this Article shall be effective in relation to the powers, authorities and discretions of the Board generally and shall not be limited by the fact that in certain Articles, but not in others, express reference

96. CHIEF EXECUTIVE, MANAGING AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

- (a) appoint one or more of its body to the office of Chief Executive, Managing Director or joint Managing Director, or to any other office (except that of Auditor) or employment in the Company, for such period (subject to the Act) and on such terms as it thinks fit, and may revoke such appointment (but so that the revocation is without prejudice to any rights or claims which the person whose appointment is revoked may have against the Company by reason of the revocation);
- (b) permit any person elected or appointed to be a Director to continue in any other office or employment held by the person before he was so elected or appointed;
- (c) appoint any Director or former Director of the Company who, in its opinion, has rendered outstanding service to the Company to be President of the Company. The President shall not, by virtue of such office, be deemed a Director or be entitled to any remuneration.

97. PROVISIONS TO WHICH EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SUBJECT

An Executive Director while holding office as such, shall (subject to any contract between himself and the Company) be subject to the same provisions as to retirement by rotation, resignation and removal as the other Directors. If he ceases to be a Director he shall cease to be an Executive Director, Chief Executive, Managing Director or joint Managing Director (as the case may be) (but without prejudice to any rights or claims which he may have against the Company by reason of that cessation).

98. POWERS OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

The power to delegate contained in this Article shall be effective in relation to the powers, authorities and discretions of the Board generally and shall not be limited by the fact that in certain Articles, but not in others, express reference is made to particular powers, authorities or discretions being exercised by the Board or by a committee authorised by the Board.

99. ASSOCIATE AND OTHER DIRECTORS

The Board may appoint any other persons to any post with a descriptive title including that of Director (whether as associate, group, divisional, departmental, deputy, assistant, local, advisory director or otherwise) as the Board determines and may define, limit, vary and restrict the powers, authorities and discretions of persons so appointed and may fix and determine their remuneration and duties, and subject to any contract between him and the Company may remove him from such post. A person so appointed is not a Director of the Company for any of the purposes of these Articles or of the Act, and accordingly shall not, by virtue of his appointment to such post, be a member of the Board or any committee, nor shall he be entitled to be present at any meeting of the Board or of any committee, except at the request of the Board or any committee, and if he is present at such request he shall not be entitled to vote thereat.

100. POWER TO PAY PENSIONS

100.1 The Board may grant or make provision for pensions, allowances, gratuities and life assurance, bonuses or other benefits to or for the benefit of:

- (a) any Director or former Director or other officer or former officer who holds or has held any executive office or place of profit with the Company or any other company in which the Company is or was interested, or any company or firm or concern whose business or any part thereof, or control of whose business or any part thereof, has at any time been acquired by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries;

all as shown in the latest audited consolidated balance sheet of the Company and its Subsidiaries (whether or not as the main accounts of the Company and its Subsidiaries) after making any necessary adjustment to take account of any variation since the date of such balance sheet in the amount paid up or credited as paid up on the issued share capital of the Company and in the reserves (other than retained earnings) but including share premium account and capital redemption reserve of the Company and its Subsidiaries; and

- (iv) an amount equal to the goodwill arising on acquisitions of Subsidiaries, related companies and businesses which, as at the date of the relevant calculation, remain within the Company and its Subsidiaries and which have been written off against share capital and reserves in accordance with United Kingdom accounting practices, less an amount equal to amortisation of any such goodwill over forty years on a straight line basis.

For the purposes of paragraph (i) above, if any issue or proposed issue of shares by the Company for cash has been or becomes unconditionally underwritten, then those shares shall be deemed to have been issued and the amount (including any premium) of the subscription moneys payable in respect thereof shall (provided such subscription moneys are payable not later than three months after the date of allotment) be deemed to have been paid up on the date when those shares become unconditionally underwritten but only to the extent of the underwriters' liability to the Company in respect of the subscription moneys.

102. BORROWINGS BY SUBSIDIARIES

The Board shall exercise all voting and other rights or powers of control exercisable by the Company in relation to its Subsidiaries (if any) to secure that the aggregate amount undischarged of moneys borrowed by all Subsidiaries of the Company (excluding amounts outstanding on inter company accounts) when added to the amount (if any) remaining undischarged of moneys borrowed by the Company will not exceed the limit imposed by Article 101 without the previous authority provided for in that Article.

106. TERMS OF ISSUE OF SECURITIES

Any debentures, debenture stock or other securities may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, attending and voting at general meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors and otherwise and may be so framed that the moneys so raised or secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.

107. APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS TO BE VOTED ON INDIVIDUALLY

A resolution for the election of two or more persons as Directors by a single resolution shall not be voted upon at any general meeting unless a resolution that it shall be so voted upon has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it; and any resolution voted upon in contravention of this Article shall be void.

108. APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS BY THE BOARD

The Board has the power to appoint any person to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Board, but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed any maximum number fixed by or in accordance with these Articles. 109. RETIREMENT BY ROTATION

At every annual general meeting one-third of the Directors who are subject to rotation or, if their number is not a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to but not exceeding one-third shall retire from office. If the Company, at the meeting at which a Director retires by rotation, does not fill the vacancy, the retiring Director shall, if he consents to act, be deemed to have been re-elected unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the re-election of the Director is put to the meeting and lost.

The Company may by ordinary resolution, of which special notice has been given under the Act, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office notwithstanding anything in these Articles or in any agreement between the Company and such Director. 115. DIRECTORS FEES

The Directors (other than alternate Directors) shall be paid such remuneration (by way of fee) for their services as directors as may be from time to time determined by the Board. The remuneration payable to Executive Directors shall also be determined in accordance with these Articles. 119. CHAIRMAN, VICE-CHAIRMAN AND DEPUTY CHAIRMAN

The Board may appoint a Chairman or Chairmen and, if it thinks fit, a vice-Chairman or vice-Chairmen and a deputy Chairman or deputy Chairmen of its meetings and determine the period for which they respectively are to hold office. If there are Joint Chairmen at any time, they shall, unless otherwise determined by the Board, chair alternate meetings of the Board. If no Chairman, vice-Chairman or deputy Chairman is appointed, or none is present within five (5) minutes after the time fixed for holding any meeting, the Directors present may choose one of their number to act as Chairman of the meeting. If more than one person is appointed as vice-chairman, and a dispute arises as to which of them shall be Chairman the Directors present shall determine which person is to act as Chairman.

120. VALIDITY OF DIRECTORS ACTIONS

All acts of the Board, or of a committee or sub-committee of the Board, or by any person acting as a Director, shall, even if it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any Director, or person so acting, or that they or any of them were disqualified, or had vacated office or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified and had continued to be a Director and had been entitled to vote.

121. RESOLUTION IN WRITING

A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board is as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board (or, as the case may be, of that committee) duly convened and held, and may consist of several documents in similar form each executed by one or more Directors.

122. RESOLUTIONS BY TELEPHONE OR FACSIMILE

The Board, or a committee of the Board, may hold meetings by telephone, either by conference telephone connection(s) or by a series of telephone conversations, or by exchange of facsimile transmissions addressed to the Chairman, or by any communication equipment which allows all persons participating in the meeting to speak and hear each other. The views of the Board, or a committee of the Board, as ascertained by such telephone conversations or facsimile transmissions or other means and communicated to the Chairman shall be treated as votes in favour of or against a particular resolution. A resolution passed at any meeting held in this manner, and signed by the Chairman, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board (or, as the case may be, of that committee) duly convened and held.

142. AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS

- 142.1 Any Director or the Secretary or any person appointed by the Board for the purpose, has the power to authenticate any documents affecting the constitution of the Company and any resolutions passed by the Company or the Board or any committee of the Board and any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the Company, and to certify copies or extracts as true copies or extracts; and where any books, records, documents or accounts are elsewhere than at the Office the officer or local manager of the Company having custody is deemed to be a person appointed by the Board.
- 142.2 A document purporting to be a copy of a resolution, or an extract from the minutes of a meeting of the Company or of the Board or of any committee which is certified as such in accordance with Article 142.1 is conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Company on the faith of the document that the resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that the extract is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

143. BRANCH REGISTER

The Board may direct the Company to keep, in any part of the world outside the United Kingdom in which the Company transacts business, a branch register or registers of members resident in such territory, and the Board may (subject to the Act) make and vary such regulations as they think fit regarding the keeping of any such register or registers, provided that if there are in issue any uncertificated shares such regulations shall be consistent with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations.

144. RECORD DATES

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles the Board may specify any date as the Record Date for any dividend, distribution, allotment or issue and the Record Date may be on or at any time within six (6) months before or after any date on which any dividend, distribution, allotment or issue is declared, paid or made.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVES

145. DECLARATION OF DIVIDENDS

Subject to the Act, the Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends to members in accordance with their respective rights and priorities; but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

146. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS

paid up on a share in advance of the date upon which a call is payable shall be treated for the purposes of this Article or the next following Article as paid up on the share.

146.2 All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but, if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date or be entitled to dividends declared after a particular date, that share shall rank for or be entitled to dividend accordingly.

147. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS IN SPECIE

Any general meeting declaring a dividend may, upon the recommendation of the Board, direct payment or satisfaction of the dividend wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of fully paid shares or debentures of any other company, and the Board shall give effect to such direction. Where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Board may settle it as it thinks expedient, and in particular it may ignore fractions altogether or issue fractional certificates and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part of them and may determine that cash payment shall be made to any members on the basis of the value fixed in order to adjust the rights of those entitled to participate in the dividend, and may vest any specific assets in trustees, upon trust for the members entitled to the dividend.

148. INTERIM DIVIDENDS

The Board may pay to the members interim dividends which the Board thinks justified by the profit of the Company available for distribution and the position of the Company, and the Board may also pay the fixed dividend payable on any shares of the Company with preferential rights half-yearly or otherwise on fixed dates whenever such profits in the opinion of the Board justify that course. In particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) if at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes, the Board may pay interim dividends on shares in the capital of the Company which confer deferred or non-preferential rights, as well as in respect of shares which confer preferential rights with regard to dividend, but no interim dividend shall be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferential rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear. Provided the Board acts in good faith, the Board shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring any preferential rights for any loss that they may suffer by reason of the lawful payment of an interim dividend on any shares having deferred or non-preferential rights.

149. DEBTS TO BE SET-OFF AGAINST DIVIDENDS

The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any member, on or in respect of a share, all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to shares in the Company.

Table of Contents

150. DIVIDENDS PAYABLE TO MEMBERS ON REGISTER

151. PROOF OF ENTITLEMENT TO DIVIDENDS

The Board may pay the dividends or interest payable on shares, to any person who is by transmission entitled to be registered as holder on production of the certificate and evidence which would be required if that person desired to be registered as a member in respect of those shares.

152. UNPAID AND UNCLAIMED DIVIDENDS

No dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company unless otherwise expressly provided by the rights attached to the share. Subject as provided in these Articles, all dividends unclaimed may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed. All dividends unclaimed for a period of twelve (12) years from the date when such dividend became due for payment shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company. The provisions of this Article shall not affect the provisions of Article 45.

153. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS IN FOREIGN CURRENCIES

153.1 The Board may in its discretion make provisions to enable such Approved Depositary and/or member as the Board shall from time to time determine to receive dividends duly declared in a currency or currencies other than sterling. For the purposes of the calculation of the amount receivable in respect of any dividend, the rate of exchange to be used to determine the foreign currency equivalent of any sum payable as a dividend shall be such market rate selected by the Board as they shall consider appropriate ruling at the close of business in London on the date which is the business day last preceding (a) in the case of a dividend to be declared by the Company in general meeting, the date on which the Board publicly announces its intention to recommend that specific dividend and (b) in the case of any other dividend, the date on which the Board publicly announces its intention to pay that specific dividend.

153.2 Where an Approved Depositary has elected or agreed to receive dividends in a foreign currency, the Board may in its discretion approve the entering into of arrangements with the Approved Depositary to enable payment of the dividend to be made to the Approved Depositary in such foreign currency for value on the date on which the relevant dividend is paid, or such date as the Board may determine.

Table of Contents

154. DIVIDEND WARRANTS

Any dividend or other moneys payable (whether in sterling or foreign currency pursuant to provisions made under these Articles) in respect of a share may be paid either:

- (a) in the case where the member or person entitled thereto has provided the Company with a written mandate for payment of dividends via any bank or other funds transfer system by transfer through that system to such person's mandated account; or
- (b) in the case where the dividend or other moneys is/are payable in respect of uncertificated shares and the member or person entitled thereto has so instructed the Company by means of the facilities and requirements of a relevant system; or
- (c) in all other cases by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the address in the register of the member or person entitled thereto or, in the case of an Approved Depository, subject to the approval of the Board, to such persons and addresses as the Approved Depository may notify or, in the case of joint holders, to any one of the joint holders, or to any other person and to any other address the holder or joint holders may in writing direct.

Every cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent and shall be sent at the risk of the member or other person entitled, and payment of the cheque or warrant, or transfer via any funds transfer system or by means of the facilities of a relevant system as aforesaid shall be a good discharge to the Company. The Company shall have no responsibility for any sums lost or delayed in the course of any such transfer as referred to in (b) or (c) above.

155. RECEIPT OF JOINT HOLDER EFFECTIVE

If several persons are entered in the register as joint holders of any share, any one of them may give effectual receipts for any moneys payable in respect of the share.

156. RESERVES

The Board may, before recommending any dividend (whether preferential or otherwise), set aside out of the profits of the Company the sums it thinks fit as a reserve which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be lawfully and properly applied. Pending application those sums may either be employed in the business of the Company or invested in investments as the Board thinks fit. It shall not be necessary to keep any investments constituting the reserve or reserves separate or distinct from any other investments of the Company. The Board may also, without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which it thinks prudent not to distribute.

Table of Contents

157. CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

157.1 The Company may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve that it is desirable to capitalise all or any part of the profits of the Company to which this Article applies and accordingly that the Board be authorised and directed to appropriate the profits so resolved to be capitalized to the members on the Record Date specified in the relevant resolution, or determined as therein provided, who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.

157.2 Subject to any direction given by the Company, the Board shall appropriate the profits resolved to be capitalised by any such resolution, and apply such profits on behalf of the members entitled thereto either:

- (a) in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by the members respectively; or
- (b) in paying up in full unissued shares, debentures or obligations of the Company, of a nominal amount equal to those profits, for allotment and distribution credited as fully paid, to and amongst such members in the proportions referred to above (subject to any arrangements made for fractional entitlements pursuant to this Article); or
- (c) partly in one way and partly in the other;

provided that no unrealised profit shall be applied in paying up amounts unpaid on any issued shares and the only purpose to which sums standing to capital redemption reserve or share premium account shall be applied pursuant to this Article shall be the payment up in full of unissued shares to be allotted and distributed to members credited as fully paid.

157.3 The Board shall have power after the passing of any such resolution:

- (a) to make such provision as it thinks expedient for the case of shares, debentures or obligations becoming distributable in fractions, and in particular may (i) issue fractional certificates or (ii) authorise any person to sell and transfer, or authorise any person to elect to redeem (if applicable), any fractions, or shares representing such fractions, on behalf of members otherwise entitled to them or (iii) may resolve that the distribution should be as nearly as may be practicable in the correct proportion but not exactly so or (iv) may ignore fractions altogether, and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any members in order to adjust the rights of all parties, such powers to include the right for the Company to retain small amounts, the cost of distribution of which would be disproportionate to the amounts involved;
- (b) to authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the members entitled thereto, into an agreement with the Company providing either:
 - (i) for the payment up by the Company on behalf of those members (by the application of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised) of the amounts, or any part of the amounts, remaining unpaid on their existing shares; or

- (ii) for the allotment to those members, credited as fully paid, of any further shares, debentures or obligations to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation (subject to any arrangements made for fractional entitlements pursuant to this Article); and any agreement made under this authority shall be effective and binding on all those members.

157.4 The Company in general meeting may resolve that any shares allotted pursuant to this Article to holders of any partly paid Ordinary Shares shall, so long as those Ordinary Shares remain partly paid, rank for dividends only to the extent that partly paid shares rank for dividends.

157.5 The profits of the Company to which this Article applies shall be any undivided profits of the Company not required for paying the fixed dividends on any preference shares or other shares issued on special conditions and shall also be deemed to include (whether or not the same is available for distribution):

- (a) any profits arising from appreciation in capital assets (whether realised by sale or ascertained by valuation); and
- (b) any amounts standing to any reserve or reserves or to the capital redemption reserve or to share premium or other special account.

160. NOTICE NOT INVALIDATED BY CHANGE IN REGISTER

Any notice or document may be served or delivered by the Company by reference to the register as it stands at any time not more than twenty-eight (28) days before the date of service or delivery. No change in the register after that time shall invalidate that service or delivery. Where any notice or document is served on or delivered to any person in respect of a share in accordance with these Articles, no person deriving any title or interest in that share shall be entitled to any further service or delivery of that notice or document.

161. MEMBERS RESIDENT ABROAD

Any member whose address in the register is not within the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland, and who gives to the Company an address within the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland at which notices may be served upon him, shall be entitled to have notices or documents served upon him at that address but, unless he does so, shall not be entitled to receive any notice or documents from the Company.

162. NOTICE TO PERSONS NOT ON THE REGISTER

Every person who becomes entitled to a share:

- (a) shall, except as mentioned in (b) below, be bound by any notice in respect of that share which, before his name is entered in the register, has been duly given to a person from whom he derives his title; but
- (b) subject to Article 72.3, shall not be bound by any notice given by the Company to the person from whom he derives his title under Section 212 of the Act or under Article 72.

163. NOTICE BY ADVERTISEMENT

If at any time, by reason of the suspension or curtailment of postal services within the United Kingdom and/or the Republic of Ireland, the Company is unable effectively to convene a general meeting by notices sent through the post, a general meeting may be convened by a notice advertised on the same date in at least two leading national daily newspapers published in the United Kingdom and in one leading national daily newspaper published in the Republic of Ireland and the notice shall be deemed to have been duly served on all members entitled to notice at noon on the day when the last such advertisement appears. 164. SERVICE ON DECEASED OR BANKRUPT MEMBERS

A person entitled to a share in consequence of the death, mental disorder or bankruptcy of a member, on supplying to the Company such evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show his title to that share, and on supplying also an address within the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland for the service of notices, shall be entitled to have served on or delivered to him at that address any notice or document to which the member but for his death, mental disorder or bankruptcy would be entitled, and the service or delivery shall for all purposes be deemed a sufficient service or delivery of the notice or document on all persons interested in the share. Save as aforesaid, any notice or document delivered or sent by post to, or left at, the last registered address of any member pursuant to these Articles shall (notwithstanding that the member is then dead or bankrupt or in liquidation or that a receiver has been appointed for him under the Mental Health Act 1983 or the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984, and whether or not the Company has notice of such event) be deemed to have been duly served or delivered in respect of any share registered in the name of that member as sole or first named joint holder.

165. MEMBERS PRESENT DEEMED TO HAVE RECEIVED NOTICE

Any member present, either personally or by proxy, at any general meeting of the Company or of the holders of any class of shares in the Company shall for all purposes be deemed to have received due notice of that meeting, and of the purposes for which the meeting was called.

166. POWER TO STOP SENDING NOTICES

Subject to the Statutes, if on two consecutive occasions notices or other documents have been sent by the Company through the post to any member at his registered address or his address for the service of notices but have been returned undelivered, such member shall not thereafter be entitled to receive subsequent notices or other documents from the Company until he has given the Company a new registered address or address within the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland for the service of notices and other documents. For the purposes of this Article, references to a document include references to any cheque, warrant or similar financial instrument; but nothing in this Article shall entitle the Company to cease (or refuse to recommence) sending any cheque, warrant or similar financial instrument for any dividend, unless it otherwise entitled under these Articles to do so.

168. DISTRIBUTION OF SECURITIES IN PLACE OF CASH

- 168.1 If the Company is wound up the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Act or the Insolvency Act 1986, divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out between the members or different classes of members. Any division may be otherwise than in accordance with the existing rights of the members, but if any division is resolved otherwise than in accordance with those rights, the members shall have the same right of dissent and consequential rights as if the resolution were a special resolution passed pursuant to Section 110 of the Insolvency Act 1986. The liquidator may, with the same sanction, vest the whole or any part of the whole of the assets in trustees on such trusts for the benefit of the members as he with the same sanction determined but no member is compelled to accept any assets on which there is a liability.
- 168.2 A special resolution sanctioning a transfer or sale to another company duly passed pursuant to Section 110 of the Insolvency Act 1986 may in the same manner authorise the distribution of any shares or other consideration receivable by the liquidator among the members otherwise than in accordance with their existing rights, and that determination shall be binding on all the members, subject to the right of dissent and consequential rights conferred by the Act or the Insolvency Act 1986.
