Diageo plc (Diageo)
Proposed monetisation of shares
in General Mills, Inc. (General Mills)

Diageo today announces that General Mills has filed a universal shelf registration statement with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) registering equity and debt securities in General Mills. Diageo is required to register the common shares of General Mills it owns before it can dispose of those shares in a public offering, and under a separate agreement between Diageo and General Mills, this registration statement includes 49,907,680 common shares of General Mills owned by Diageo.

Edgar Filing: DIAGEO PLC - Form 6-K

The sale of shares under the registration statement is dependent on a number of factors, including the timing of the SEC's declaration of the effectiveness of the registration statement and prevailing market conditions, and therefore there is no certainty as to the size or timing of a sale of any or all of the General Mills common shares owned by Diageo.

In connection with the filing of the registration statement, Paul Walsh, CEO of Diageo, and Jack Keenan, a former director of Diageo and designee of Diageo on the General Mills board, have resigned from the General Mills board. These resignations facilitate an eventual sale of the common shares. As a consequence of the resignations, Diageo will no longer account for General Mills as an associate. The pro forma impact of this change in accounting on the reported results for the year ended 30 June 2003 is a 3.0 pence per share reduction in eps and is shown in Appendix 1.

Diageo currently holds 79 million common shares of General Mills, which at the close of the New York Stock Exchange on Tuesday, June 22, 2004 were trading at $45.86 per common share. Proceeds from any sale will depend on market conditions at the time of sale.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall there be any sale of, any securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.
