Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

As part of the Company's strategy to continue to improve its capital structure, on February 24, 2010, Revlon, Inc.'s wholly owned operating subsidiary, Revlon Consumer Products Corporation ("RCPC"), scheduled a meeting with a group of potential lenders to discuss a possible refinancing of its existing 2006 bank term loan facility and asset-based revolving credit facility.

The 2006 bank credit facilities represent RCPC's next debt maturity, due in January 2012. Among other things, it is expected that RCPC's 2006 term loan facility, with $815 million outstanding at December 31, 2009, would be replaced with a new approximately $800 million term loan facility and that its 2006 revolving credit facility, with nil outstanding borrowings at December 31, 2009, would be replaced with a new approximately $140 million asset-based revolving credit facility. The refinancing would, among other things, extend the maturities of these facilities. There can be no assurances that the possible refinancing will be executed.

RCPC was in compliance with all applicable covenants under its existing 2006 bank credit agreements as of December 31, 2009 and the date of this filing.

In accordance with General Instruction B.2 to the Form 8-K, the information under this Item 7.01 shall be deemed to be "furnished" to the SEC and not be deemed to be "filed" with the SEC for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements made in this Form 8-K, which are not historical facts, including statements about the Company's plans, strategies, focus, beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking and subject to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and, except for the Company's ongoing obligations under the U.S. federal securities laws, the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether to reflect actual results of operations; changes in financial condition; changes in general U.S. or international economic, industry or cosmetics category conditions; changes in estimates, expectations or assumptions; or other circumstances, conditions, developments or events arising after the filing of this Form 8-K. Such forward-looking statements include, without limitation, the Company's beliefs, expectations, focus and/or plans about future events, including those regarding a possible refinancing of RCPC's existing 2006 bank term loan facility and asset-based revolving credit facility, as part of the Company's strategy to continue to improve its capital structure. Actual results may differ materially from such forward-looking statements for a number of reasons, including those set forth in our filings with the SEC, including, without limitation, our 2008 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC in February 2009, our 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K that we expect to file with the SEC in February 2010 and our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K that we have filed or will file with the SEC during 2009 and 2010 (which may be viewed on the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov> or on Revlon, Inc.'s website at <http://www.revloninc.com>), as well as reasons including difficulties, delays, unanticipated costs or RCPC's inability to refinance its 2006 bank credit facilities, in whole or in part. Factors other than those listed above could also cause the Company's results to differ materially from expected results. Additionally, the business and financial materials and any other statement or disclosure on, or made available through, the Company's websites or other websites referenced herein shall not be incorporated by reference into this Form 8-K.
