

Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard: Transfer of Listing

As a result of the termination of the employment of Karl S. Puehringer as president and chief executive officer of Baldwin Technology Company, Inc. (the "Company") and Mr. Puehringer's resignation as a director of the Company, effective September 30, 2010, and the election effective October 1, 2010 of Mark T. Becker, previously an independent director and member of the audit, compensation and nominating committees, as president and chief executive officer, due to the small size of its Board of Directors, the Company no longer has a majority of independent directors on its board and is not in compliance with certain other governance requirements regarding independent directors.

On October 18, 2010, the Company notified the NYSE Amex that it was not in compliance with certain sections of the corporate governance requirements listed in the NYSE Amex Company Guide. On October 19, 2010, the NYSE Amex issued a warning letter advising the Company that it was not in compliance with Section 802(a) (that requires a majority of the directors on the Board of Directors to be independent directors), Section 802(d) (that requires the classes of the Board of Directors to be of approximately equal size), Section 803(B)(2)(a) (that requires the audit committee to have at least three independent members) and Section 805(a) (that requires the compensation committee to be comprised solely of independent directors).

The Company advised the NYSE Amex that the Board of Directors is aware of the non-compliance and is taking steps to remedy it. The Board has identified several candidates and is currently in the process of conducting interviews of potential candidates to serve as an Independent Director or Independent Directors of the Company.

The Company issued a press release on October 22, 2010 regarding this matter, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is hereby incorporated by reference herein.
