Section 5—Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02. Departure of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective November 26, 2014, Anika Therapeutics, Inc. (“Anika” or the “Company”) and Carol A. Barnett entered into a separation agreement (the “Agreement”) regarding her employment with the Company through January 29, 2015 (the “Termination Date”). This Agreement was entered into in connection with the previously announced departure of Ms. Barnett from her position as the Company’s Chief Commercial Officer. Pursuant to the Agreement, among other items, Ms. Barnett shall remain employed by the Company, with the title of Marketing Consultant, through January 29, 2015, unless earlier terminated for cause, and Ms. Barnett shall be paid no more than $1,200 for her work during this period. Under the Agreement, Ms. Barnett will not be entitled to any additional payments, including bonus payments, from the Company. Ms. Barnett shall be eligible to continue to receive medical and dental plan coverage under and subject to COBRA through the Termination Date, provided that Ms. Barnett is responsible for payment of the entire premium and any other amounts necessary to maintain COBRA coverage. Ms. Barnett continues to be bound by the terms and conditions of the non-disclosure and non-competition agreement executed in connection with her employment by the Company. Additionally, in consideration of the continued employment, pay, and benefits provided by the Agreement, Ms. Barnett has released the Company, its directors, and all related entities, including, among others, Company officers, employee benefit plans, fiduciaries of such plans and other providers of services to the Company (together, without limitation, the “Releasees”), from all known and unknown claims that, as of the date of the Agreement, Ms. Barnett had, has ever had, had a claim to have or ever had a claim to have against any Releasee.
