Lease Litigation Settlement

On February 24, 2011, Tri-Valley Corporation announced the settlement of lease termination litigation over its Lenox Ranch oil and gas leases located in its Pleasant Valley oil sands project near Oxnard, California. Under the terms of the settlement agreement signed February 22, 2011, the primary term of the leases has been extended by three years until May 1, 2014. The settlement agreement also extends to May 1, 2013, a requirement to drill a new exploration well below a depth of 6,000 feet, and it removes a previous requirement for Tri-Valley to relinquish the oil and gas rights below 6,000 feet if commercial production is not established by May 1, 2013. In addition, the lessors have waived payment of their 2009 and 2010 annual surface rentals and minimum royalties.

Update on Drilling Plans

Edgar Filing: TRI VALLEY CORP - Form 8-K

Tri-Valley also provided an update on its initiative to expand oil production at its Claflin project in the Edison Oil Field, near Bakersfield, California.
