ITEM 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Item 3 is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

Personal funds in the aggregate amount of $636,797.05 have been used to effect the purchases. No part of the purchase price represents borrowed funds.

ITEM 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following:

The respondent, who continues to hold the shares for investment purposes, is filing this Amendment #7 to report an increase in his position in the company's common stock to 8.1%, from the 7.0% previously reported in Amendment #6, on September 9, 2011.

On December 26, 2011, the respondent sent an e-mail (see Exhibit #1) to Compensation Committee members Kenneth Scheriff and Jeffrey Franklin, and Lead Independent Director Marc Utay (for forwarding to the entire board). In the e-mail, the respondent commented on the company's 8-K, filed on December 12, 2011, announcing that director Dennis Kalick would not stand for reelection at the next annual meeting. Respondent requested the board fill the expiring seat with a new "bonafide independent" member, "sourced from, or with the approval of [the company's] major outside shareholders," or, alternatively, to permanently reduce the board size to 7, and have one MORE of the legacy directors, that are closely "tethered" to the CEO, Richard Horowitz, also step down.

In addition, in the aforementioned e-mail, the respondent 1) repeated his request that the board separate the roles of chairman and CEO, 2) repeated his request that the board release the peer group company list utilized by the Compensation Committee to establish a CEO employment agreement renewal, and 3) asked the board to consider a "Dutch Tender" offer (assuming the financing would be obtainable), for the company to buyback up to 500,000 shares of its common stock, at a price range of $4-5.

Edgar Filing: STABOSZ TIMOTHY J - Form SC 13D/A

On January 4, 2012, the company filed a Form 8-K, announcing a renewal of CEO Richard Horowitz's employment for another 3 years. As the respondent believed the $650,000 base pay in the contract to be excessive, and he had not received, to date, a response from the board or Compensation Committee on his e-mail of December 26, 2011...on January 6, 2012, he sent a follow up e-mail (see Exhibit #2) to the Compensation Committee, and entire board, in which he 1) indicated that the base pay for Mr. Horowitz's employment renewal was "wholly inappropriate," and 2) formally demanded that the board release the peer company group utilized in the outside compensation review. The board responded, in a limited, "boilerplate," defensive, and noncommittal fashion, by e-mail, on January 7, 2012.

Finally, on January 10, 2012, the respondent sent an e-mail to the Compensation Committee, and the entire board (see Exhibit #3). In the e-mail, the respondent 1) noted the positive changes the compensation committee had made in the new employment agreement. More significantly, the respondent 2) made a sweeping, broadbased, and damning case against the compensation committee, for how the $650,000 base salary renewal for Mr. Horowitz remained "unseemly," based on, among other things, a) the CEO's lengthy record of value destruction, and b) peer group comparisons by an outside shareholder, and respected advisory firm Proxy Governance, that suggested the base pay should have been set at roughly HALF of what Mr. Horowitz was awarded. Also, the respondent 3) again, implicitly and explicitly repeated his demand that the board release the peer group companies utilized in the outside compensation review.

Despite pernicious and ongoing issues related primarily to corporate governance, and (of course) executive pay, the respondent believes the board has been making frustratingly slow, and sporadic, progress, overall. The respondent intends to continue to communicate, in public forums, press releases, and amended 13D filings, as necessary and/or required by law, to educate and inform the P&F shareholder base, and the broader "corporate governance space," on P&F's corporate governance issues, lack of adequate board independence, and the continued domination of the board, overall, by members whose primary interest is advancing Mr. Horowitz's parochial, pecuniary, and personal interests. Consequentially, respondent continues to believe that P&F's common stock, while fundamentally undervalued, will continue to trade at a discount to what "fair value" might otherwise be perceived as. (The respondent believes that the Company has historically been viewed by many investors, de facto, as a nominally public Company, being operated primarily for the private gain of Richard Horowitz.)

ITEM 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

Item 5 is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

At the close of business on January 9, 2012, respondent has sole voting and dispositive power over 292,508 shares of P&F Industries, Inc.'s common stock. According to the Company's latest Form 10-Q filing, as of November 11, 2011, there were 3,614,562 common shares outstanding. Respondent is therefore deemed to own 8.1% of the Company's common stock.
