ITEM 1. Security and Issuer

Common stock of Scott's Liquid Gold-Inc. ("the company"), 4880 Havana Street, Denver, CO 80239.

ITEM 2. Identity and Background

The reporting person, Timothy J. Stabosz, 1307 Monroe Street, LaPorte, IN 46350, a natural person and United States citizen, is engaged as a private investor. He has not been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or other similar misdemeanors) in the last 5 years, and has not been a party to any proceedings, or subject to any judgements, enjoined, decrees, et al., related to violations of state or federal securities laws, in his lifetime.

ITEM 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Personal funds in the aggregate amount of $184,855.34 have been used to effect the purchases. No part of the purchase price represents borrowed funds.

ITEM 4. Purpose of Transaction

The reporting person is the largest unaffiliated shareholder of Scott's Liquid Gold. He has acquired the shares for investment purposes.

Notwithstanding CEO Mark Goldstein's atrocious record of value destruction, including losing money for all 10 of the last 10 years, the reporting person believes that the core "Liquid Gold" brand, in particular, retains substantial brand equity, and is ripe for a sale, that would unlock considerable value for shareholders.

The reporting person submitted a letter to the board of directors, dated May 23, 2013 (see Exhibit #1). In the letter, the reporting person accuses the CEO, Mark Goldstein, of "pocketing" bids and expressions of interest to purchase the company, over many years, with a Goldstein "stacked" board impudently and brazenly "turning its head the other way." (The reporting person gives three specific examples of how bonafide M&A players, seriously interested in the company, were "shown the door" or "ignored" by Mr. Goldstein, with no evidence of independent board involvement whatsoever.)

In the same letter, the reporting person announced his intention to present a shareholder proposal (see Exhibit #2) "off the floor" at the June 14, 2013 annual meeting, calling for the company to form a Special Committee, and to formally put itself up for sale. The reporting person states that there are interested parties he has spoken to, that he believes would be willing to offer a substantial premium to the current stock price, in a buyout, and that any offer of 50 cents or more for the company (as a result of a robust "shopping" process), should be accepted by the board. The reporting person noted that if the company received credible offer(s) to be bought, and the board failed in its duty to form a Special Committee to examine such offers (arms length from the CEO Mark Goldstein), that the reporting person intends to sue the board for breach of fiduciary responsibility.

The reporting person stated also, in the letter, that if Mr. Goldstein wants to continue to "run" the company, he should be forced to take it private at a fair price, or the company should engage in a tender offer, at 50 cents per share, to take out those holders who want to separate from the failed manager that Goldstein has evidenced himself to be.

The reporting person believes the board continues to evidence that its primary imperative is the protection of CEO Mark Goldstein's and his wife's sinecures with the company, and that the board has no interest in maximizing value for ALL stockholders. Consequentially, the reporting person believes the board continues to dissemble, hiding behind the "business judgement rule," and facilitating the maintenance of Mr. Goldstein's outrageous 22 year record of wanton value destruction, incompetence, and self-entrenchment as CEO.

Separately, the reporting person announces his voting intentions for the aforementioned annual shareholder meeting. He intends to vote to WITHHOLD the entire board of directors, to vote AGAINST the executive pay ("say on pay"), to vote for ONE YEAR "say on pay" in the future, and to vote FOR Proposal #4, the shareholder proposal calling on the company to adopt cumulative voting.

The reporting person intends to review his investment in the company on a continual basis and engage in discussions with management and the Board of Directors concerning the governance, business, operations, and future plans of the company. Depending on various factors, including, without limitation, the company's financial position and investment strategy, the price levels of the common stock, conditions in the securities markets, and general economic and industry conditions, the reporting person may, in the future, take such actions with respect to his investment in the company as he deems appropriate including, without limitation, communicating with other stockholders, seeking Board representation, making proposals to the company concerning the capitalization and operations of the issuer, purchasing additional shares of common stock or selling some or all of his shares, or changing his intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in Item 4.

Other than as indicated in this and previous 13D filings, the reporting person has no plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any matters referred to in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

ITEM 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

As of the close of business on May 23, 2013, the reporting person has sole voting and dispositive power over 806,662 shares of Scott's Liquid Gold, Inc.'s common stock. According to the company's 1st quarter 2013 Form 10-Q, as of May 13, 2013 there were 11,201,622 common shares outstanding. The reporting person is therefore deemed to own 7.2% of the company's common stock.
