Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Howard S. Stern (Howard Stern or Mr. Stern) died on December 28, 2005. At the time of his death, Mr. Stern beneficially owned 1,981,279 shares of E Z EM Common Stock, including options for 33,475 shares. Mr. Stern obtained these shares in connection with the founding of E Z EM in 1962 and through subsequent stock splits, stock dividends, stock grants received as a member of the E-Z-EM board of directors, and stock option exercises. He received the outstanding stock options as part of his compensation for serving as Chairman and a director of E-Z-EM. On January 13, 2006, the Nassau County Surrogate s Court issued Letters Testamentary appointing Linda Stern, Mr. Stern s wife, the executor of the H. Stern Estate under the last will and testament of Howard Stern (the H. Stern Will). Under the H. Stern Will, Mrs. Stern is a discretionary beneficiary of a credit shelter trust, the sole lifetime beneficiary of a QTIP trust, which is the beneficiary of one-half of Mr. Stern s residuary estate, and the direct outright beneficiary of the other-half of the residuary estate. Linda Stern currently intends to make open market sales of E Z EM Common Stock on The Nasdaq Stock Market for the account of the H. Upon distribution of shares of E Z EM Common Stock to her outright as a beneficiary of one-half of the residuary estate under the H. Stern Will, Mrs. Stern expects to make additional open market sales of E Z EM Common Stock to provide for living expenses and to diversify her investment portfolio. Further, Mrs. Stern may make gifts of E Z EM Common Stock to family members and charitable institutions.

Mrs. Stern may also acquire additional shares of E Z EM Common Stock, dispose of additional shares of E Z EM Common Stock and/or enter into privately negotiated derivative transactions with institutional counterparties to hedge the market risk of some or all of her or the H. Stern Estate's positions in the E Z EM Common Stock. Any such transactions may be effected at any time and from time to time subject to any applicable limitations of the federal securities laws.

Additionally, Linda Stern expects to evaluate on an ongoing basis E Z EM's financial condition, business operations and prospects, the market price of the E Z EM Common Stock, conditions in securities markets generally, general economic and industry conditions and other factors. In furtherance thereof, Mrs. Stern may hold discussions with management of E Z EM in which she may suggest or take a position with respect to potential changes in the operations, management or capital structure of E Z EM as a means of enhancing shareholder value. Such suggestions or positions may relate to one or more of the transactions described in Item 4(a) through (j) of Schedule 13D under Rule 13d-1(a), including, without limitation, such matters as suggesting candidates for nomination as directors; disposing of one or more businesses; selling E-Z-EM or acquiring another company or business; adopting, not adopting, modifying or eliminating certain types of anti-takeover measures; restructuring E-Z-EM's capitalization; and reviewing dividend policies. Accordingly, Mrs. Stern reserves the right to change her plans and intentions at any time, as she deems appropriate.

As of the date of filing of this statement, Linda Stern has no other plan or proposal that relates to or would result in any of the actions set forth in parts (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.
