This Amendment No. 6 to Schedule 13D (this "Amendment") amends the below-indicated items from the Schedule 13D previously filed by or on behalf of the undersigned parties (the "Reporting Persons"), as previously amended (the "Schedule 13D"), by supplementing such Items with the information below:

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Recently Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) and Glass Lewis (GL) recommended that clients withhold their votes from several incumbent Brooks Automation (BRKS) directors. We strongly disagree with ISS and GL and have voted all of our shares enthusiastically to re-elect the entire BRKS director slate.

We believe that the Board of Directors of BRKS has improved dramatically the quality of its corporate governance in the past year. First, the Board announced that former Chairman and CEO Robert Therrien would not be re-nominated for another term on the Board. Second, when the Wall Street Journal broke the story last March about the appearance of back-dated stock option grants made to Mr. Therrien, the Board immediately appointed a special committee of newer, independent directors to examine the matter and empowered the special committee to engage independent legal and accounting counsel. Later, after several months of intensive examination of the Therrien and other suspect stock option grants, the two board members who had been the Board's compensation committee at the time the Therrien grants were made resigned from the Board of Directors. Now BRKS' Board has a capable new Chair; the former Lead Director is no longer on the Board; and BRKS' compensation committee and its nominating and governance committee also have new Chairs. The company is publicly committed to cooperating fully with federal examinations of past option practices and to never repeating the unfortunate practices of the past. Fundamentally, we believe that BRKS has a strong balance sheet, a sensible corporate strategy, and excellent management to execute the strategy.

None of the directors opposed by ISS and GL served on the BRKS Board when the problematic stock options were granted to the former Chairman and CEO. In fact, directors Robert Lepofsky and Mark Wrighton did not join BRKS' Board until the company acquired Helix Technology late in 2005. Director Krishna Palepu joined the Board at about the same time precisely to improve the quality of its governance.

In conclusion, we have voted enthusiastically to re-elect all eight incumbent BRKS directors. We believe that the formulaic approach taken by ISS and GL would, if followed in this case, cause shareholders to withhold votes from directors who have been doing difficult work exceptionally well. We believe that doing the right thing should be rewarded, not punished.

By reporting the information contained in this Amendment, the Reporting Persons do not intend to solicit, nor are they soliciting, proxies or consents from, nor seeking or requesting any other action by, any of the other stockholders of BRKS. The Reporting Persons are reporting their own voting intentions and the reasons therefor.

The previous statements by the Reporting Persons regarding their investment in BRKS represent solely their own analyses and judgments, based on publicly-available information and their own internal evaluation thereof. Those statements are not intended, and should not be relied on, as investment advice to any other investor or prospective investor. To the extent those statements reflect assessments of possible future developments, those assessments are inherently subject to the uncertainties associated with all assessments of future events; actual developments may materially differ as a result of circumstances affecting BRKS and/or extrinsic factors such as developments in the company's industry and the economic environment. The Reporting Persons reserve the right to change their internal evaluation of this investment in the future, as well as to increase or decrease their investment depending on their evaluation, without further amending the Schedule 13D except as required by applicable rules.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a, b) The Reporting Persons, in the aggregate, beneficially own 4,847,458 Shares, constituting approximately 6.4% of the outstanding Shares.

(c) During the past sixty (60) days, the following purchases of Shares were made by D3 Family Funds in open market transactions:

Fund	Trade Date	Shares Bought	Price
----	-----	-----	-----
DIII Offshore Fund LP	1/18/2007	147,000	14.00
D3 Family Bulldog Fund LP	1/18/2007	3,000	13.97

In addition, on January 3, 2007, an aggregate of 203,280 Shares were distributed in kind, on a pro rate basis, to the general partners in the DIII Offshore Fund, LP.

Item 7. Material to be filed as Exhibits

Exhibit 1 to this Amendment is the joint filing agreement pursuant to which all of the filing persons have authorized the filing of this Amendment as a group.
