Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously reported, in connection with the offering of its 5.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2016 (the “Notes”) in 2011, Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into convertible note hedge transactions (the “Purchased Options”) with each of UBS AG and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association (collectively, the “Counterparties”) whereby the Company purchased from the Counterparties options covering approximately 10.9 million shares of the Company’s common stock at a strike price that corresponded to the initial conversion price of the Notes ($7.8819 per share), subject to anti-dilution adjustments, which Purchased Options were set to expire in March 2016. Concurrently with the Purchased Options, the Company also entered into warrant transactions (the “Warrants”) with the Counterparties whereby the Company sold to the Counterparties Warrants to acquire approximately 10.9 million shares of the Company’s common stock at a strike price of $10.00 per share, subject to anti-dilution adjustments, which Warrants were set to expire at various dates beginning in June 2016.

The Company agreed with the Counterparties to unwind and terminate the Purchased Options and the Warrants in their entirety, which unwinding and termination occurred on November 18, 2015. In connection with the unwind and termination of the Purchased Options, the Company received approximately $301.6 million from the Counterparties. In connection with the unwind and termination of the Warrants, the Company paid approximately $282.6 million to the Counterparties.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD.

The Purchased Options were antidilutive and have had no effect on diluted earnings per share. The Warrants were included in the Company’s computation of diluted earnings per share.

With the termination of the Warrants, the Company expects its diluted shares to decrease from the third quarter ended September 30, 2015. Specifically, for the fourth quarter ending December 31, 2015, the Company expects its diluted shares to be in the range of 57 to 58 million. In 2016, the Company expects its diluted shares to further decrease as the Warrants shall have no effect.
