NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. GENERAL

The accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (all of which consisted of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three and six months ended June 30, 2007 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2007.

The balance sheet at December 31, 2006 has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements.

For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

On the consolidated statement of cash-flows for the six months ended June 30, 2006, the excess tax benefit for share-based payments has been reclassified from incomes taxes receivable and shown as a reduction in net cash provided by operating activities to conform to the presentation for the current year. The reclassification had no effect on previously reported net earnings or stockholders' equity.

2. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Statement of Financial Accounting Standard ("SFAS") 128, "Earnings Per Share," requires a basic earnings per share and diluted earnings per share presentation. The two calculations differ as a result of the dilutive effect of stock options and time lapse restricted shares and performance restricted shares included in diluted earnings per share, but excluded from basic earnings per share. Basic and diluted earnings per share are computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the respective periods. A reconciliation of weighted average shares outstanding is as follows:

3. RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued SFAS No. 157, “Fair Value Measurements.” SFAS 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 is effective for the Company on January 1, 2008 and is not expected to have a significant impact on the Company’s consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS 159, “The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Liabilities - Including an Amendment of FASB Statement No. 115,” to permit an entity to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. Most of the provisions in SFAS 159 are elective; however the amendment to SFAS 115, “Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities,” applies to all entities with available-for-sale and trading securities. The fair value option permits all entities to choose to measure eligible items at fair value at specified election dates. The fair value option may be applied on an instrument-by-instrument basis, is irrevocable and is to be applied to entire instruments and not portions thereof. The Company will adopt SFAS 159 in fiscal year 2008. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of applying these provisions.

MARINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In May 2007, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position No. FIN 48-1 (“FSP 48-1”), “Definition of Settlement in FASB Interpretation No. 48”. FSP 48-1 amended FIN 48 to provide guidance on how an enterprise should determine whether a tax position is effectively settled for the purpose of recognizing previously unrecognized tax benefits. FSP 48-1 required application upon the initial adoption of FIN 48. The adoption of FSP 48-1 did not affect the Company’s consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

In June 2007, the FASB ratified a consensus opinion reached by the EITF on EITF Issue 06-11, “Accounting for Income Tax Benefits of Dividends on Share-Based Payment Awards.” The consensus ratified by the FASB requires that a realized income tax benefit from dividend or dividend equivalents that are charged to retained earnings and paid to employees for equity classified nonvested equity shares, nonvested equity share units and outstanding share options should be recognized as an increase in additional paid-in-capital. Such amount recognized should be included in the pool of excess tax benefits available to absorb potential future tax deficiencies on share-based payment awards. This consensus ratified by the FASB should be applied prospectively to the income tax benefits of dividends on equity awards granted to employees that are declared in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting EITF Issue 06-11.

MARINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

This cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 4.0 years. The Company warrants the entire boat, excluding the engine, against defects in materials and workmanship for a period of one year. The Company also warrants the entire deck and hull, including its bulkhead and supporting stringer system, against defects in materials and workmanship for periods ranging from five to ten years.

An analysis of the warranty accruals for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 is as follows:

(in thousands)	2007	2006
Balances at beginning of year	$ 5,337	$ 4,272

Changes to warranty provision for prior years	123	343
Balances at June 30	$ 4,980	$ 3,727

Repurchase Obligations

The Company is a party to certain agreements with third party lenders that provide financing to the Company's network of dealers. The agreements provide for the return of repossessed boats in "like new" condition to the Company, in exchange for the Company's assumption of specified percentages of the unpaid debt obligation on those boats, up to certain contractually determined dollar limits. As of June 30, 2007, the maximum contractual obligation and the amounts outstanding under these agreements, which expire in 2007 and 2008, totaled approximately $3.5 million. The Company records the estimated fair value of the guarantee; at June 30, 2007, this amount was immaterial.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

7. BUSINESS SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company has only one reportable segment, its powerboat manufacturing business; therefore, the majority of the disclosures required by SFAS 131 are not relevant to the Company. In addition, the Company's results of operations and its financial condition are not significantly reliant upon any single customer or product model.

8. INVENTORIES

Inventories consist of the following:

(in thousands)	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006
Raw materials and supplies	$ 20,969	$ 13,319
Work in process	6,281	9,383
Finished goods	6,830	6,854
Total inventories	$ 34,080	$ 29,556

9. INCOME TAXES

The Company determines its periodic income tax expense based upon the current period income and the annual estimated tax rate for the Company adjusted for any change to prior year estimates. The estimated tax rate is revised, if necessary, as of the end of each successive interim period during the fiscal year to the Company's current annual estimated tax rate.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In July 2006, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109" ("FIN 48"), which provides criteria for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of uncertain tax positions. The Company is subject to the provisions of FIN 48 as of January 1, 2007, and has analyzed filing positions in federal, state and foreign filing jurisdictions where it is required to file income tax returns, as well as all open years in those jurisdictions. As a result of the implementation of FIN 48, the Company did not recognize a material adjustment in the liability for unrecognized income tax benefits. As of the adoption date the Company had gross tax affected unrecognized tax benefits of $659,000, all of which, if recognized, would affect the Company's effective tax rate. There have been no material changes to these amounts during the six months ended June 30, 2007.

The Company and its subsidiaries are subject to U.S. federal and state income tax in multiple jurisdictions. In many cases our uncertain tax positions are related to tax years that remain open and subject to examination by the relevant taxing authorities. The Company's 2003 through 2006 tax years remain open to examination.

It is reasonably possible that the amount of the unrecognized benefits with respect to our unrecognized tax positions will increase or decrease in the next 12 months. These changes may be the result of, among other things, state tax settlements under Voluntary Disclosure Agreements. However, quantification of an estimated range cannot be made at this time.

The Company's policy is to record interest and penalties related to income tax matters as income tax expense. Accrued interest and penalties were immaterial as of January 1, 2007 and June 30, 2007.

MARINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

OVERVIEW

Marine Products Corporation, through our wholly-owned subsidiaries Chaparral and Robalo, is a leading manufacturer of recreational fiberglass powerboats. Our sales and profits are generated by selling the products that we manufacture to a network of independent dealers who in turn sell the products to retail customers. These dealers are located throughout the continental United States and in several international markets. A majority of these dealers finance their inventory through third-party floorplan lenders, who pay Marine Products generally within seven to 10 days after delivery of the products to the dealers.

The discussion on business and financial strategies of the Company set forth under the heading "Overview" in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 is incorporated herein by reference. There have been no significant changes in the strategies since year-end.

In implementing these strategies and attempting to optimize our financial returns, management closely monitors dealer orders and inventories, the production mix of its various models, and indications of near term demand such as consumer confidence, interest rates, fuel costs, dealer orders placed at our annual dealer conferences, and retail attendance and orders at annual winter boat show exhibitions. We also consider trends related to certain key financial and other data, including our market share, unit sales of our products, average selling price per unit, and gross profit margins, among others, as indicators of the success of our strategies. Marine Products' financial results are affected by consumer confidence — because pleasure boating is a discretionary expenditure, interest rates — because many retail customers finance the purchase of their boats, and other socioeconomic and environmental factors such as availability of leisure time, consumer preferences, demographics and the weather.

We reduced our production levels during the fourth quarter of 2006 in response to our concerns about dealer and consumer demand for products in our industry, which resulted from higher fuel prices and declining consumer sentiment for recreational boating. In the second quarter of 2007, our production levels were lower than the levels during the second quarter of 2006. Gross profit margin as a percentage of net sales decreased approximately 0.5 percentage points compared to the second quarter of 2006. This decline was primarily due to manufacturing cost inefficiencies resulting from lower production levels. At the end of the quarter, our unit backlog was lower than at this time last year due to the current weak retail demand. The reduction in retail demand in the United States was partially offset by strong performance outside of the United States. Historically, net sales outside of the United States have been higher in the first six months of each year and therefore have not necessarily been indicative of the related net sales for the remainder of the year.

MARINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIESOUTLOOK

The discussion on the outlook for 2007 is incorporated herein by reference from the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

Marine Products experienced a weaker than expected winter boat show season and retail selling season. As we prepare to introduce our 2008 models, we will continue to monitor dealer inventories and backlog, as well as any signs of declining consumer confidence due to high fuel prices, a weak housing market, or other factors. We are using our enhanced research and development and design resources to develop and introduce innovative models for the 2008 model year. We continue to attempt to manage the high cost of raw materials, which have negatively impacted our margins, through effective management of our purchasing processes.

The Company has reduced production volumes in the third quarter of 2007 in keeping with the historical trends of lower demand during the third quarter of each year and in order to achieve appropriate levels of dealer inventories and backlog of orders. In addition, the Company has implemented certain cost-reduction initiatives commensurate with lower production volumes.

MARINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

THREE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2007 COMPARED TO THREE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2006

Net sales for the three months ended June 30, 2007 decreased $3.9 million or 5.4 percent compared to the comparable period in 2006. The change in net sales was comprised of a 6.8 percent increase in average gross selling price per boat, a decrease in parts and accessories sales and a 13.3 percent decrease in the number of boats sold. The increase in average selling price per boat was primarily due to increased average selling prices of SSi Sportboats, SSX Sportdecks, and Robalo offshore sport fishing boats offset by decreased average selling prices of Signature Cruisers. The decrease in net sales was partially offset by strong growth outside of the United States. In the second quarter of 2007, sales outside of the United States accounted for approximately 28.0 percent of net sales compared to approximately 19.0 percent of net sales for the prior year.

Cost of goods sold for the three months ended June 30, 2007 was $52.9 million compared to $55.6 million for the comparable period in 2006, a decrease of $2.7 million or 4.9 percent. Cost of goods sold, as a percentage of net sales, increased primarily as the result of cost inefficiencies due to lower production volumes.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2007 were $7.9 million compared to $8.4 million for the comparable period in 2006, a decrease of $0.5 million or 6.0 percent. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses was primarily due to lower warranty expense and incentive compensation expense consistent with lower profitability. Warranty expense was 1.9 percent of net sales for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 2.3 percent in the prior year, primarily due to improved claims experience.

Operating income for the three months ended June 30, 2007 decreased $0.7 million or 8.9 percent compared to the comparable period in 2006. Operating income was lower primarily due to lower sales and gross profit margin percent.

Interest income was $0.6 million during the three months ended June 30, 2007 and for the comparable period in 2006. The slight increase resulted primarily from higher returns on our short term maturities due to an increase in investable balances in the second quarter of 2007.

Income tax provision for the three months ended June 30, 2007 of $2.4 million was $0.4 million or 20.0 percent higher than the income tax provision of $2.0 million for the comparable period in 2006. The income tax provision reflects an effective tax rate of 31.1 percent, compared to 24.1 percent for the comparable period in the prior year. The increase in the effective rate was due to discrete adjustments recorded in the prior year to reflect the favorable settlement of tax examinations.

MARINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2007 COMPARED TO SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2006

Net sales for the six months ended June 30, 2007 decreased $8.9 million or 6.2 percent compared to the comparable period in 2006. The change in net sales was comprised of a 2.4 percent increase in average gross selling price per boat, a decrease in parts and accessories sales and a 10.3 percent decrease in the number of boats sold. The increase in average selling price per boat was primarily due to increased average selling prices of SSi Sportboats, SSX Sportdecks and Robalo offshore sport fishing boats offset by decreased average sales prices of Signature Cruisers. The decrease in net sales was partially offset by strong growth outside of the United States. For the first six months of 2007, sales outside of the United States accounted for approximately 27.0 percent of net sales compared to approximately 21.0 percent of net sales for the prior year.

Cost of goods sold for the six months ended June 30, 2007 was $103.9 million compared to $108.7 million for the comparable period in 2006, a decrease of $4.8 million or 4.4 percent. Cost of goods sold, as a percentage of net sales, increased primarily as the result of cost inefficiencies due to lower production volumes, as well as higher raw material costs compared to the prior year.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2007 were $16.4 million compared to $17.1 million for the comparable period in 2006, a decrease of $0.7 million or 4.1 percent. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses was primarily due to lower incentive compensation expense consistent with lower profitability. Warranty expense was 2.0 percent of net sales for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and June 30, 2006.

Operating income for the six months ended June 30, 2007 decreased $3.3 million or 21.1 percent compared to the comparable period in 2006. Operating income was lower primarily due to lower sales and gross profit margin percent.

Interest income was $1.4 million during the six months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $1.0 million for the comparable period in 2006. This increase resulted primarily from an increase in investable balances in the first six months of 2007.

Income tax provision for the six months ended June 30, 2007 of $4.7 million was $0.1 million or 2.1 percent lower than the income tax provision of $4.8 million for the comparable period in 2006. The decrease in the provision was primarily due to lower pre-tax income as compared to the comparable period in the prior year. The income tax provision reflects an effective tax rate of 33.9 percent, compared to 28.7 percent for the comparable period in the prior year. The increase in the effective rate was due to discrete adjustments recorded in the prior year to reflect the favorable settlement of tax examinations.

MARINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIESLIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES*Cash Flows*

The Company's cash and cash equivalents at June 30, 2007 were $15.9 million. The following table sets forth the historical cash flows for:

(in thousands)	Six months ended June 30,
	2007	2006
Net cash provided by operating activities	$ 9,262	$ 10,418
Net cash (used for) provided by investing activities	(38,249)	16
Net cash used for financing activities	$ (9,544)	$ (3,871)

Cash provided by operating activities for the six months ended June 30, 2007 decreased approximately $1.2 million compared to the comparable period in 2006. This decrease is primarily the result of lower net income in the first six months of 2007 compared to the comparable period in 2006, partially offset by a lower growth in working capital in 2007 compared to 2006

Cash used for investing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2007 increased approximately $38.2 million compared to the comparable period in 2006, resulting from increased purchases of non-current marketable securities.

Cash used for financing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2007 increased approximately $5.7 million primarily due to an increase in the cash paid for repurchases of common stock on the open market and an increase in dividends paid.

Financial Condition and Liquidity

The Company believes that the liquidity provided by existing cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities, its overall strong capitalization, and cash expected to be generated from operations, will provide sufficient capital to meet the Company's requirements for the next twelve months. The Company believes that the liquidity will allow it the ability to fund any growth and provide the opportunity to take advantage of business opportunities that may arise.

The Company's decisions about the amount of cash to be used for investing and financing purposes are influenced by its capital position and the expected amount of cash to be provided by operations.

MARINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

Cash Requirements

The Company currently expects that capital expenditures during 2007 will be approximately $3.0 million, of which approximately $0.8 million has been spent through June 30, 2007.

The Company participates in a multiple employer Retirement Income Plan, sponsored by RPC, Inc. (“RPC”). The Company contributed approximately $0.3 million to the multiple employer pension plan in the first quarter of 2007 to achieve its funding objectives. The Company does not currently expect to make any additional contributions to this plan for the remainder of 2007.

On July 24, 2007, the Board of Directors approved a quarterly cash dividend per common share of $0.06. The Company expects to continue to pay cash dividends to common stockholders, subject to the earnings and financial condition of the Company and other relevant factors.

The Company has purchased a total of 3,186,057 shares in the open market pursuant to April 2001 and September 2005 resolutions of the Board of Directors that authorized in the aggregate the repurchase of up to 5,250,000 shares. As of June 30, 2007, the Company can purchase 2,063,943 additional shares under these programs. Details regarding the shares repurchased during the second quarter of 2007 have been disclosed in Part II, Item 2 of this document.

The Company has an immaterial amount of obligations and commitments that require future payments. See the section below titled “Off Balance Sheet Arrangements” for details regarding agreements that the Company has with third-party dealer floor plan lenders.

The Company warrants the entire boat, excluding the engine, against defects in materials and workmanship for a period of one year. The Company also warrants the entire deck and hull, including its bulkhead and supporting stringer system, against defects in materials and workmanship for periods ranging from five to ten years. See Note 6 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for a detail of activity in the warranty accruals during the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006.

OFF BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

To assist dealers in obtaining financing for the purchase of its boats for inventory, the Company has entered into agreements with various dealers and selected third-party lenders to guarantee varying amounts of qualifying dealers’ debt obligations. The Company’s obligation under these guarantees becomes effective in the case of default by the dealer. The agreements provide for the return of all repossessed boats in “like new” condition to the Company, in exchange for the Company’s assumption of specified percentages of the dealers’ unpaid debt obligation on those boats capped at the lender level. As of June 30, 2007, the maximum contractual obligation to the lenders and the amount outstanding under these agreements, which expire in 2007 and 2008, totaled approximately $3.5 million. The Company has recorded the estimated fair value of this guarantee; at June 30, 2007, this amount is immaterial and did not change from the prior year.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

In conjunction with its spin-off from RPC in 2001, the Company and RPC entered into various agreements that define their relationship after the spin-off. A detailed discussion of the various agreements in effect is contained in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. The Company reimbursed RPC for its allocable share of administrative costs incurred for services rendered on behalf of Marine Products totaling approximately $0.5 million in the six months ended June 30, 2007 and approximately $0.4 million in the six months ended June 30, 2006.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The discussion of Critical Accounting Policies is incorporated herein by reference from the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. There have been no significant changes in the critical accounting policies since year-end.

IMPACT OF RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

See Note 3 of the Consolidated Financial Statements for a description of recent accounting pronouncements, including the expected dates of adoption and estimated effects on results of operations and financial condition.

SEASONALITY

Marine Products' quarterly operating results are affected by weather and the general economic conditions in the United States. Quarterly operating results for the second quarter historically have reflected the highest quarterly sales volume during the year with the first quarter being the next highest sales quarter. However, the results for any quarter are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected in any future period.

INFLATION

During 2005 and 2006, the Company experienced increases in certain material and component costs. The Company responded to these higher costs by instituting price increases effective during early 2006, and for the model year 2007, which began on July 1, 2006. However, these price increases did not fully absorb the increased material costs and therefore negatively impacted the gross margin percent. For the most recent quarter compared to the prior year, these material and component costs have remained high but relatively stable and therefore gross margin percentage has not been negatively impacted. We anticipate, with continued high commodity prices, energy prices and petroleum based product prices, that the price of materials could continue to increase. If the prices of these raw materials and components continue to increase, or the prices of other factors of production increase, Marine Products will attempt to increase its product prices to offset its increased costs. No assurance can be given, however, that the Company will be able to adequately increase its product prices in response to inflation or estimate the impact on future sales of increasing product prices.

MARINE PRODUCTS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

New boat buyers typically finance their purchases. Higher inflation typically results in higher interest rates that could translate into increased cost of boat ownership. Prospective buyers may choose to delay their purchases or buy a less expensive boat.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements made in this report that are not historical facts are “forward-looking statements” under Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements may include without limitation, the expected effect of recent accounting pronouncements on the Company’s consolidated results of operation and financial condition, statements that relate to the Company’s business strategy, plans and objectives, the Company’s plan and ability to effect future price increases, expectations for future warranty expense, the Company’s outlook for 2007, the Company’s schedule and plan for new model introductions, adequacy of capital resources and funds, opportunity for continued growth, estimated capital expenditures, estimated pension contributions, future dividends, estimates regarding boat purchase obligations, market risk exposure, effect of litigation on our financial position and results of operations, and the Company’s beliefs and expectations regarding future demand for the Company’s products and services. The words “may,” “should,” “will,” “expect,” “believe,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “seek,” “project,” “estimate,” and similar expressions used in this document that do not relate to historical facts are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements are based on certain assumptions and analyses made by our management in light of its experience and its perception of historical trends, current conditions, expected future developments and other factors it believes to be appropriate. We caution you that such statements are only predictions and not guarantees of future performance and that actual results, developments and business decisions may differ from those envisioned by the forward-looking statements. Risk factors that could cause such future events not to occur as expected include the following: possible decreases in the level of consumer confidence impacting discretionary spending, business interruptions due to adverse weather conditions, increased interest rates, unanticipated changes in consumer demand and preferences, deterioration in the quality of Marine Products’ network of independent boat dealers or availability of financing of their inventory, our ability to insulate our financial results against increasing commodity prices, our ability to identify, complete or successfully integrate acquisitions, the impact of rising gasoline prices and a weak housing market on consumer demand for our products, and competition from other boat manufacturers and dealers. Additional discussion of factors that could cause the actual results to differ materially from management’s projections, forecasts, estimates and expectations is contained in Marine Products’ Form 10-K, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the year ended December 31, 2006. The Company does not undertake to update its forward-looking statements.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Marine Products does not utilize financial instruments for trading purposes and, as of June 30, 2007, did not hold derivative financial instruments that could expose the Company to significant market risk. Also, as of June 30, 2007, the Company's investment portfolio, totaling approximately $57.8 million and comprised primarily of municipal debt securities, is subject to interest rate risk exposure. This risk is managed through conservative policies to invest in high-quality obligations that are both short-term and long-term in nature, with a recent increased emphasis on long-term securities. Although Marine Products' investment portfolio mix has been allocated towards securities with longer term maturities compared to the end of fiscal year 2006, the risk of material market value fluctuations is not expected to be significantly different from the end of fiscal year 2006 and the Company currently expects no such changes through the remainder of the current year.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures - The Company maintains disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in its Exchange Act reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to its management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

As of the end of the period covered by this report, June 30, 2007 (the "Evaluation Date"), the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of its management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of its disclosure controls and procedures. Based upon this evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective at a reasonable assurance level as of the Evaluation Date.

Changes in internal control over financial reporting - Management's evaluation of changes in internal control did not identify any changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the Company's most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
