Item 5. Other Events.

Reference is made to Note 10 Litigation, Regulatory Matters and Other Contingencies to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements contained in Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the Quarter Ended September 30, 2003. There has been a development in the Berger case.

On November 14, 2003, the Xerox Corporation Retirement Income Guarantee Plan (RIGP) announced that it had reached an agreement in principle to settle the pension-related Berger v. RIGP litigation. The terms of the proposed agreement require RIGP to settle the case for $239 million. The final settlement is subject to the negotiation of a definitive agreement and court approval.

In April 2003, Registrant reported a first-quarter pre-tax charge of $300 million to cover any potential pension-funding shortfall should RIGP be required to pay damages in this case.

If the court approves the final agreement, RIGP will pay the settlement amount from its assets. Should Registrant need to make a cash contribution to compensate for a potential shortfall in the plan related to this litigation, it would not be required to begin doing so until 2005.

Former Xerox employees who are eligible to receive damages will receive notification when the settlement is approved.
