Item 4. Description of Securities.

The deferred compensation obligations of Wachovia Securities LLC (Wachovia Securities) being registered herein (the Deferred Compensation Obligations) are issuable under the terms of the Wachovia Securities LLC Transitional Voluntary Deferral and Matching Contribution Plan, the Wachovia Securities LLC Transitional Deferral Election Plan and the Wachovia Securities LLC Transitional Earn-out Incentive Compensation Plan (together, the Plans). The Deferred Compensation Obligations represent obligations of Wachovia Securities to pay to participants in each of the Plans certain compensation amounts that the participants have elected to defer. The Deferred Compensation Obligations may also represent amounts that have been credited to a participant's account under each of the Plans. Wachovia Securities is a subsidiary of the Corporation. The Corporation is the guarantor of the Deferred Compensation Obligations.

The Plans are intended to be unfunded plans maintained primarily for the purpose of providing deferred compensation benefits for a select group of management or highly compensated employees of Wachovia Securities. The Plans are intended to allow certain highly compensated employees to defer the payment of current compensation to future years for tax and financial planning purposes. The Deferred Compensation Obligations are payable in cash and generally will be paid in either a lump-sum or in annual installments over a certain term upon retirement, death or other termination of service.

The obligation to pay the vested balance of each Plan participant's account shall at all times be an unfunded and unsecured obligation of Wachovia Securities and rank pari passu with other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of Wachovia Securities. The Corporation, as sponsor of the Plans, shall serve as the guarantor of that obligation, but such guaranty shall also be unfunded and unsecured. The Deferred Compensation Obligations are not convertible into another security of either Wachovia Securities or the Corporation. Benefits are payable solely from Wachovia Securities' general funds and are subject to the risk of corporate insolvency. Wachovia Securities may but is not required to establish or maintain a special or separate fund or otherwise to segregate assets to facilitate payments under the Plans, and participants will not have any interest in any particular assets of Wachovia Securities by reason of any obligation created under the Plans. Nothing in any of the Plans creates or may be construed as creating a trust of any kind or any other fiduciary relationship between either Wachovia Securities or the Corporation and a participant or any other person, and each participant (or person claiming through him) will be responsible for enforcing his own rights with respect to the Deferred Compensation Obligations. A participant's right to the Deferred Compensation Obligations cannot be transferred, assigned, pledged or encumbered except by a written designation of a beneficiary under the terms of any of the Plans. Any attempt to sell, transfer, assign, pledge or encumber the Deferred Compensation Obligations will be void.

The amount of compensation to be deferred by each participant is determined in accordance with the terms of the Plans based on elections by the participant. Deferred amounts are credited to each participant's account. Amounts in a participant's account will be indexed to one or more hypothetical or deemed investment media individually chosen by a participant from the hypothetical investment funds available under the Plans. Each participant's account will be adjusted to reflect the investment performance of the selected investment fund(s), including any appreciation or depreciation. Amounts deferred by the participants may be fully vested (i.e., nonforfeitable) and certain other amounts contributed to Plan accounts by Wachovia Securities may be forfeitable in certain situations. There is no trading market for the Deferred Compensation Obligations.

The Plans may be amended or terminated at any time by the Corporation's Board of Directors or by any committee appointed by the Corporation's Board of Directors that is authorized to administer the Plans. Generally, except for such modifications, limitations or restrictions as may otherwise be required to avoid current income taxation or other adverse tax consequences to Plan participants resulting from future changes to the tax laws and regulations applicable to the Plans, no such plan amendment or plan termination shall adversely affect the benefits of Plan participants accrued to date under the Plans or otherwise reduce the then outstanding balances credited to their Plan sub-accounts or otherwise adversely affect the vesting schedules or distribution/rollover provisions in effect for those sub-accounts, and those Plan sub-accounts shall, subject to the foregoing exception, continue to become due and payable in accordance with the vesting and distribution provisions of the Plans as in effect immediately prior to such amendment or termination.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The validity of the Deferred Compensation Obligations issuable under the Plans have been passed upon by Ross E. Jeffries, Jr., Esq., Senior Vice President and Assistant General Counsel of the Corporation.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Sections 55-8-50 through 55-8-58 of the North Carolina Business Corporation Act contain specific provisions relating to indemnification of directors and officers of North Carolina corporations. In general, the statute provides that (i) a corporation must indemnify a director or officer against reasonable expenses who is wholly successful in his defense of a proceeding to which he is a party because of his status as such, unless limited by the articles of incorporation, and (ii) a corporation may indemnify a director or officer if he is not wholly successful in such defense, if it is determined as provided in the statute that the director or officer meets a certain standard of conduct, provided when a director or officer is liable to the corporation or liable on the basis of receiving a personal benefit, the corporation may not indemnify him. The statute also permits a director or officer of a corporation who is a party to a proceeding to apply to the courts for indemnification, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, and the court may order indemnification under certain circumstances set forth in the statute. The statute further provides that a corporation may in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or by contract or resolution provide indemnification in addition to that provided by the statute, subject to certain conditions set forth in the statute.

The Corporation's bylaws provide for the indemnification of the Corporation's directors and executive officers by the Corporation against liabilities arising out of his status as such, excluding any liability relating to activities which were at the time taken, known or believed by such person to be clearly in conflict with the best interests of the Corporation. The Corporation's articles of incorporation provide for the elimination of the personal liability of each director of the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by the provisions of the North Carolina Business Corporation Act, as the same may from time to time be in effect.

The Corporation maintains directors and officers liability insurance. In general, the policy insures (i) the Corporation's directors and officers against loss by reason of any of their wrongful acts, and/or (ii) the Corporation against loss arising from claims against the directors and officers by reason of their wrongful acts, all subject to the terms and conditions contained in the policy.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) Rule 415 offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
  - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (as amended, the "Securities Act");
  - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; and
  - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (as amended, the "Exchange Act") that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Request for acceleration of effective date or filing of registration statement on Form S-8.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
