Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 7, 2005, John F. Antioco, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Inc. (Blockbuster), sent a letter to the Board of Directors of Hollywood Entertainment Corporation (Hollywood) expressing Blockbuster's disappointment with the board's continued lack of cooperation in connection with Blockbuster's effort to provide Hollywood shareholders with a premium price for their shares. The full text of the letter is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

The letter contains forward-looking statements relating to Blockbuster's interest in acquiring Hollywood including its intention to commence a fully financed tender offer for all Hollywood shares under certain circumstances. Specific forward-looking statements relate to (i) the anticipated timing, pricing and rationale for a tender offer, (ii) Blockbuster's intention to complete the Hart-Scott-Rodino process and the expected timing of completion of such process and (iii) the anticipated benefits to Hollywood's shareholders that could result from the transaction. These forward-looking statements are based on Blockbuster's current intent, expectations, estimates and projections and are not guarantees of future performance. These statements involve risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors that are difficult to predict and that could cause actual results to vary materially from those expressed in or indicated by them. In addition, some factors are beyond Blockbuster's control, including the possible consummation of the recently announced merger between Hollywood and Movie Gallery, Inc. Certain of the statements made in the letter are contingent upon receipt of cooperation from Hollywood's board of directors and the completion of the proposed transaction. Blockbuster can give no assurance that the proposed transaction will be completed. Other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the statements made in the letter include, among others: (i) Blockbuster's and Hollywood's ability to receive all necessary approvals, including any necessary governmental or regulatory approvals and the approval of the respective Board's of Directors and stockholders, if applicable; (ii) Blockbuster's ability to close the financing necessary for the tender offer; (iii) the ability of Blockbuster and Hollywood to negotiate and enter into a confidentiality agreement on terms satisfactory to both parties; (iv) the results of Blockbuster's review of Hollywood information if it is provided access to such information; (v) changes to Blockbuster's strategy, business plan and pricing model, including its plans regarding use of capital and any related impact on Blockbuster's offer price; and (vi) other factors as described in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the detailed factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Statements" in Blockbuster's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 and discussed under the heading "Disclosure Regarding Forward-Looking Information" in Blockbuster's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2004.
