Item 1.01. ENTRY INTO MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On December 23, 2005, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Sun Microsystems, Inc. (the Company ) adopted the Sun Microsystems, Inc. 2005 U.S. Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan, effective January 1, 2005 (the Plan ). The Plan is an unfunded deferred compensation plan and is intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Plan allows select members of management, highly compensated employees of the Company and members of the Company's Board of Directors to make voluntary deferrals of the compensation that they would otherwise be paid by the Company until specified future dates or termination of employment. A participant who is an Eligible Employee (as that term is defined under the Plan) may elect to defer up to: (i) 75% of any eligible annual or quarterly bonus award; and (ii) 60% of base salary and incentive awards/commissions. A participant who is an Eligible Board Member (as that term is defined under the Plan) may elect to defer up to 100% of his or her director fees. In the event of a participant's death while an Eligible Employee or Eligible Board Member, the participant's beneficiary shall receive a distribution equal to the balance of the participant's Plan account, plus an amount equal to two times the participant's actual deferrals under the Plan (exclusive of earnings), not to exceed a total distribution of $3 million. Each participant's deferred compensation may be adjusted upwards or downwards based on the performance of investment options chosen by the participant, as allowed by the Plan. Amounts due to participants under the Plan represent unsecured obligations of the Company.
