PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

Due to unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the Registrant or the Plan, the annual audit of the Plan and the financial statements required to be included in the Form 11-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 for the Plan cannot be completed in a timely manner, which cannot be overcome without unreasonable effort and expense. The Plan underwent a change in its independent registered public accountant in 2006. The transition from the Plan's former independent registered public accountant to the new independent registered public accountant created unanticipated delays in the preparation of the Plan audit for 2005 and the Plan's 2005 financial statements. The Registrant and the Plan intend to file the subject Form 11-K on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date for the Form 11-K. See the attached Exhibit for additional information.

Attn: David M. Julian, Executive Vice President and Principal Accounting Officer

Dear Mr. Julian:

The late date of the change in independent registered accounting firms and therefore the timing of our procedures have resulted in unanticipated administrative delays in the collection and compilation of certain information regarding the Amended and Restated Westcorp Employee Stock Ownership and Salary Savings Plan (the Plan). Our audit of the financial statements for the Plan for the year ended December 31, 2005, will not be completed on or before June 29, 2006. We are aware that our audit report on the Plan's financial statements is needed for inclusion in the Plan's Form 11-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and we expect to complete our audit upon receipt of the requested information, on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date of June 29, 2006 to enable the Form 11-K to be filed in accordance with Rule 12b-25.

Sincerely,

/s/ Hancock Askew & Co. LLP
