Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On July 26, 2006, during a conference call concerning second quarter 2006 earnings and forward-looking statements for the second six months and fiscal year 2006 of K2 Inc. (K2), and in connection with filing its earnings release on July 26, 2006 on a current report on Form 8-K, K2 provided the following information in response to questions from investors and analysts:

Management estimates that sales of paintball products are up 10% year-to-date in 2006 compared to the same period in 2005.

Management estimates that sales in the Team Sports segment (other than K2 Licensed Products and Brass Eagle) are up 16% year-to-date in 2006 compared to the same period in 2005 and 5% in the 2006 second quarter compared to the same period in 2005.

Management estimates that it will pay cash taxes in 2006 in a similar amount as in 2005.

Management noted that early indications are favorable for 2007 performance for K2.

The above statements include forward-looking statements. K2 cautions that these statements are qualified by important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, including but not limited to K2's ability to successfully execute its acquisition plans and growth strategy, integration of acquired businesses, weather conditions, consumer spending, continued success of manufacturing in China, global economic conditions, product demand, financial market performance, and other risks described in the Company's most recent annual report on Form 10-K, subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and current reports on Form 8-K, each as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company cautions that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive, any forward-looking statements included in this news release is made as of the date of the statement, and the Company does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement.
