Item 4. Description of Capital Stock

The following summary of the capital stock of the Company is subject in all respects to applicable provisions of the Ohio General Corporation Law, the Company's Amended Articles of Incorporation and Amended Regulations.

General

The total authorized shares of capital stock of the Company consist of (i) 480,000,000 Common Shares, par value $.01 per share, (ii) 1,357,299 voting preferred shares, without par value, and (iii) 1,000,000 non-voting preferred shares, without par value (together with the voting preferred shares, preferred shares). The Company's board of directors has designated 400,000 of its voting preferred shares as Series A Preferred Shares and 155,250 shares of its voting preferred shares as 6³/₄% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Shares (6³/₄% Preferred Shares). At the close of business on March 5, 2007, approximately 247,620,311 Common Shares were issued and outstanding and 155,250 6³/₄% Preferred Shares were issued and outstanding. The Series A Preferred shares were designated in connection with the Company's rights agreement, which has been expired, and no Series A Preferred Shares are outstanding.

Common Shares

Each holder of Common Shares is entitled to cast one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders, including the election of directors. Holders of Common Shares are entitled to receive dividends or other distributions declared by the board of directors. The right of the board of directors to declare dividends, however, is subject to the rights of any holders of preferred shares of the Company and certain requirements of Ohio law.

No holder of Common Shares has preemptive rights nor the right to exercise cumulative voting in the election of directors.

The issuance of preferred shares affects certain rights of the Common Shares as described below.

Preferred Shares

The board of directors is authorized to provide for the issuance from time to time of preferred shares in series and, as to each series, to fix the designation, the dividend rate and the date or dates from which such dividends will be cumulative, the times when the prices at which shares will be redeemable, the voluntary and involuntary liquidation prices, the sinking fund provisions, if any, applicable to such series, the conversion or exchange privileges, if any, of such series, the restrictions, if any, upon the payment of dividends or other distributions and upon the creation of indebtedness, if any, and any other rights, preferences and limitations. Cumulative dividends, dividend preferences and conversion, exchange and redemption provisions, to the extent that some or all of these features may be present when Company preferred shares are issued, could have an adverse effect on the availability of earnings for distribution to the holders of Common Shares.

Holders of 6³/₄% Preferred Shares are entitled to cast one vote per whole share that they own on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders, including the election of directors. Holders of 6³/₄% Preferred Shares and holders of Common Shares vote together as a single class, unless otherwise provided by law or the Amended Articles of Incorporation. The approval of each holder of 6³/₄% Preferred Shares is necessary to:

alter the voting rights

reduce the liquidation preference

reduce the rate of or change the time for payment of dividends adversely alter certain redemption provisions of the 6³/₄% Preferred Shares.

In addition, the approval of at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of 6³/₄% Preferred Shares is required to amend the Amended Articles of Incorporation to affect adversely the specified rights, preferences, privileges or voting rights of holders of 6³/₄% Preferred Shares.

If and when declared, dividends on 6³/₄% Preferred Shares are payable quarterly and accrue at a rate of 6³/₄% per annum per share on a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share, $67.50 per annum per share. Dividends may, at the option of the Company, be paid in Common Shares if, and only if, the documents governing the Company's indebtedness that existed as of March 30, 1998, prohibit the payment of such dividends in cash. The Company is allowed to declare and pay dividends only if permitted by Ohio law.

Unless previously redeemed or repurchased, 6³/₄% Preferred Shares are redeemable after April 5, 2000, subject to certain conditions with respect to the closing price of the Common Shares in the case of redemptions prior to April 1, 2002.

In order to protect the interests of holders of 6³/₄% Preferred Shares, the Amended Articles of Incorporation provide for adjustment of the conversion rate and related terms in the case of certain consolidations, mergers or changes in control of the Company.

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the business of the Company, holders of 6³/₄% Preferred Shares are entitled to receive the liquidation preference of $1,000 per share plus all accrued and unpaid dividends.

Anti-takeover Provisions

The Company's Amended Articles of Incorporation regulate transactions between the Company and an interested shareholder. Under the Amended Articles of Incorporation, an interested shareholder is defined as a shareholder who is the beneficial owner of 10% or more of the voting power of the Company. If any person is an interested shareholder under the Amended Articles of Incorporation, the affirmative vote of 80% of the outstanding voting power of the Company is required for any of the following:

any merger or consolidation of the Company or any of its subsidiaries with an interested shareholder any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or disposition to or with an interested shareholder of any assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries having an aggregate fair market value of $5,000,000 or more any sale or other transfer by the Company or any of its subsidiaries of any securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to an interested shareholder for consideration of $5,000,000 or more in fair market value

the adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Company proposed by or on behalf of an interested shareholder

any reclassification of securities or recapitalization of the Company, or merger or consolidation or other transaction which has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of outstanding shares of any class of equity or convertible securities of a corporation owned by an interested shareholder

The supermajority voting requirement does not apply if a majority of the directors not associated with such an interested shareholder approves the transaction or certain other requirements regarding consideration paid are met.

Ohio law contains several anti-takeover provisions which apply to corporations like the Company. The Company is subject to these provisions because there are no opt-out provisions in the Amended Articles of Incorporation or Amended Regulations with respect to these provisions.

Chapter 1704 of the Ohio General Corporation Law applies to a broad range of business combinations between an Ohio corporation and an interested shareholder. The Ohio law definition of "business combination" includes mergers, consolidations, combinations or majority share acquisitions. An "interested shareholder" is defined as a shareholder who, directly or indirectly, exercises or directs the exercise of 10% or more of the voting power of the corporation. Chapter 1704 of the Ohio General Corporation Law restricts corporations from engaging in business combinations with interested shareholders, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, for a period of three years following the date on which the shareholder became an interested shareholder, unless the directors of the corporation have approved the business combination or the interested shareholder's acquisition of shares of the corporation prior to the date the shareholder became an interested shareholder. After the initial three-year moratorium, Chapter 1704 prohibits such transactions absent approval by the directors of the interested shareholder's acquisition of shares of the corporation prior to the date that the shareholder becomes an interested shareholder, approval by disinterested shareholders of the corporation or the transaction meeting certain statutorily defined fair price provisions.

Under Section 1701.831 of the Ohio General Corporation Law, unless the articles of incorporation or regulations provide otherwise, any control share acquisition of a corporation can only be made with the prior approval of the corporation's shareholders. A control share acquisition is defined as any acquisition of shares of a corporation that, when added to all other shares of that corporation owned by the acquiring person, would enable that person to exercise levels of voting power in any of the following ranges: at least 20% but less than 33-1/3%; at least 33-1/3% but less than 50%; or 50% or more.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

There are no provisions in the Company's Amended Articles of Incorporation by which an officer or director may be indemnified against any liability which he or she may incur in his or her capacity as such. However, the Company has indemnification provisions in its Amended Regulations which provide the Company will, to the full extent permitted by Ohio law, indemnify all persons whom it may indemnify thereto. Reference is made to Section 1701.13(E) of the Ohio Revised Code which provides for indemnification of directors and officers in certain circumstances. The foregoing references are necessarily subject to the complete text of the Amended Regulations and the statute referred to above and are qualified in their entirety by reference thereto.

The Company provides liability insurance for its directors and officers for certain losses arising from certain claims and charges, including claims and charges under the Securities Act of 1933, which may be made against such persons while acting in their capacities as directors and officers of the Company.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

The Exhibits filed as part of this Registration Statement are described in the Exhibit Index included in this filing.

Item 9. Undertakings.

- (1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (a) To file, during any period in which offers or sales of the securities registered hereunder are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;
 - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that this undertaking will only apply to the extent that the information in clauses (i) - (ii) hereof is not contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement;

- (b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and
 - (c) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (2) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (3) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issues.
