Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 28, 2007, The Western Union Company ( Western Union ) entered into an amended and restated credit agreement providing for unsecured financing facilities in an aggregate amount of $1.5 billion (the Western Union Financing Facility ), the primary purpose of which is to extend the maturity by one year from the original five-year $1.5 billion facility entered into in 2006. No other material changes were made in the amended and restated facility. The syndicate of lenders included Citibank, N.A., as administrative agent, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as syndication agent, and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as joint lead arrangers and joint book runners.

The Western Union Financing Facility provides for a $1.5 billion revolving credit facility, a $250 million letter of credit subfacility and a swing line subfacility in the amount of up to $150 million. The Western Union Financing Facility contains certain covenants that limit or restrict indebtedness of significant subsidiaries and Western Union s or any significant subsidiary s incurrence of liens and sale and leaseback transactions, subject to certain exceptions. Western Union is also required to maintain compliance with a consolidated interest coverage ratio covenant. The final maturity date of the Western Union Financing Facility is September 28, 2012, subject to extension in certain circumstances.
