PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON JUNE 3, 2008

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement and enclosed Proxy Card are being furnished commencing on or about April 24, 2008 in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Barnes & Noble, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), of proxies for use at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on June 3, 2008 (the "Meeting") for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Any proxy given pursuant to such solicitation and received in time for the Meeting will be voted as specified in such proxy. If no instructions are given, proxies will be voted FOR the election of the nominees listed below under the caption "Election of Directors" Information Concerning the Directors and Nominees "Nominees for Election as Director," FOR the ratification of the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as independent certified public accountants for the Company's fiscal year ending January 31, 2009 (collectively, the "Proposals"), and in the discretion of the proxies named on the Proxy Card with respect to any other matters properly brought before the Meeting and any adjournments thereof. Any proxy may be revoked by written notice received by the Corporate Secretary of the Company at any time prior to the voting thereof by submitting a subsequent proxy or by attending the Meeting and voting in person.

Only holders of record of the Company's voting securities as of the close of business on April 16, 2008 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. As of the record date, 54,811,164 shares of Common Stock, par value $.001 per share ("Common Stock"), were outstanding. Each share of Common Stock entitles the record holder thereof to one vote on each of the Proposals and on all other matters properly brought before the Meeting. The presence of a majority of the combined outstanding shares of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting will constitute a quorum.

Vote Required

The four nominees for Director receiving the highest vote totals will be elected as Directors of the Company to serve until the 2011 annual meeting of stockholders and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. The proposal to ratify the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accountants will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal in person or by proxy at the Meeting.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

With respect to the proposal to elect the four nominees for Director and the proposal to ratify the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accountants, abstentions and "broker non-votes" will not be included in vote totals and will have no effect on the outcome of these proposals. A "broker non-vote" occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power on that matter and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Abstentions and "broker non-votes" are included in determining whether a quorum is present.

It should be noted that all of the Directors and executive officers of the Company, together with principal stockholders of the Company with which they are affiliated, own or control the voting power of approximately 31.9% of the Common Stock outstanding as of April 16, 2008, and have advised the Company that they intend to vote FOR all of the Proposals.

A Proxy Card is enclosed for your use. YOU ARE SOLICITED ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO VOTE AND SUBMIT YOUR PROXY BY TELEPHONE OR BY INTERNET, OR COMPLETE, SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THE PROXY CARD IN THE ACCOMPANYING ENVELOPE, which is postage paid if mailed in the United States.

NO PERSON IS AUTHORIZED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION OR TO MAKE ANY REPRESENTATIONS OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT, AND, IF GIVEN OR MADE, SUCH INFORMATION MUST NOT BE RELIED UPON AS HAVING BEEN AUTHORIZED. THE DELIVERY OF THIS PROXY STATEMENT SHALL, UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES, CREATE ANY IMPLICATION THAT THERE HAS BEEN NO CHANGE IN THE AFFAIRS OF THE COMPANY SINCE THE DATE OF THIS PROXY STATEMENT.

Meetings and Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors met eight times during the fiscal year ended February 2, 2008 (fiscal 2007). All Directors attended at least 75% of all of the meetings of the Board of Directors. All Directors also attended at least 75% of all the meetings of the respective committees of the Board on which they served in fiscal 2007, except William F. Reilly who attended 50% of the Compensation Committee meetings (constituting 66% of all Board and Compensation Committee meetings). Based on information supplied to it by the Directors, the Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that each of George Campbell Jr., Michael J. Del Giudice, William Dillard II, Patricia L. Higgins, Irene R. Miller, Margaret T. Monaco and William F. Reilly are independent under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE), and have made such determination based on the fact that none of such persons have had, or currently have, any relationship with the Company or its affiliates or any executive officer of the Company or his or her affiliates, that would currently impair their independence, including, without limitation, any such commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable or familial relationship.

Special Committee. In July 2006, the Company created a Special Committee of the Board of Directors, consisting of Patricia L. Higgins, to review all of the stock option grants by the Company and the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Barnes & Noble.com, during the period from 1996 through 2006 and engaged independent outside counsel and an independent forensic auditor to assist in this matter. On April 2, 2007, the Special Committee presented its findings and recommendations to the Company's Board of Directors, as reported in the Company's Form 8-K filed April 4, 2007. The Special Committee indicated that the Committee and its advisors received the Company's full cooperation throughout its investigation. Regarding corporate governance, the Special Committee recommended changes to the composition of certain committees of the Board of Directors as follows:

the Compensation Committee should be reconstituted with independent directors who were not members of this Committee during the period of the option grant practices at issue;

the Audit Committee should add independent directors; and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee should be reconstituted to include the Chairs of the Compensation and Audit Committees as members of this Committee and be renamed the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee.

The Company agreed with the foregoing recommendations and has implemented these changes.

The Board of Directors has three standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee has the principal function of, among other things, reviewing the adequacy of the Company's internal system of accounting controls, the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the independent certified public accountants, conferring with the independent certified public accountants concerning the scope of their examination of the books and records of the Company, reviewing and approving related party transactions and considering other appropriate matters regarding the financial affairs of the Company. In addition, the Audit Committee has established procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of confidential and anonymous complaints regarding the Company's accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter setting out the functions of the Audit Committee, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.barnesandnobleinc.com and is available in print to any stockholder who requests it, in writing to the Company's Corporate Secretary, Barnes & Noble, Inc., 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011. Prior to May 1, 2007, the members of the Audit Committee were Mr. William Sheluck, Jr. (deceased) (Chair) and Messrs. Berdon and Del Giudice. Effective May 1, 2007, the members of the Audit Committee were Ms. Higgins (Chair), Mr. Del Giudice, Ms. Monaco and Mr. Sheluck (deceased). Currently, the members of the Audit Committee are Ms. Higgins (Chair), Mr. Del Giudice and Ms. Monaco. In addition to meeting the independence standards of the NYSE, each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate and meets the independence standards established by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). The Board of Directors has also determined that each member of the Audit Committee has the requisite attributes of an audit committee financial expert as defined by regulations promulgated by the SEC and that such attributes were acquired through relevant education and/or experience. The Audit Committee met 10 times during fiscal 2007.

Compensation Committee. The principal function of the Compensation Committee is to review and approve the compensation and employment arrangements for the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee is also responsible for administering the Company's 2004 Incentive Plan and 1996 Incentive Plan, each as amended, as well as the Company's 2004 Executive Performance Plan. Prior to May 1, 2007, the members of the Compensation Committee were Mr. Berdon (Chair), Ms. Monaco and Mr. Sheluck (deceased). Effective May 1, 2007, the members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Del Giudice (Chair), Dillard and Reilly. All members of the Compensation Committee meet the independence standards of the NYSE. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter setting out the functions of the Compensation Committee, which is available on the Company's website at www.barnesandnobleinc.com and is available in print to any stockholder who requests it, in writing to the Company's Corporate Secretary, Barnes & Noble, Inc., 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011. The Compensation Committee met six times during fiscal 2007.

Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The function of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is to, among other things, seek qualified individuals to serve as Directors of the Company. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee also has primary responsibility for overseeing the corporate governance of the Company. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee was previously named the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Prior to May 1, 2007, the members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee were Messrs. Dillard and Sheluck (deceased). Effective May 1, 2007, the members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee were Messrs. Dillard (Co-Chair), Sheluck (deceased) (Co-Chair), Del Giudice and Ms. Higgins. Currently, the members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee are Mr. Dillard (Chair), Mr. Del Giudice, Ms. Higgins and Ms. Miller, all of whom meet the independence standards of the NYSE. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter setting out the functions of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, which is available on the Company's website at www.barnesandnobleinc.com and is available in print to any stockholder who requests it, in writing to the Company's Corporate Secretary, Barnes & Noble, Inc., 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee met four times during fiscal 2007.

Minimum Qualifications

The Company does not set specific criteria for Directors except to the extent required to meet applicable legal, regulatory and stock exchange requirements, including, but not limited to, the independence requirements of the NYSE and the SEC, as applicable. Nominees for Director will be selected on the basis of outstanding achievement in their personal careers; board experience; wisdom; integrity; ability to make independent, analytical inquiries; understanding of the business environment; and willingness to devote adequate time to Board duties. While the selection of qualified Directors is a complex and subjective process that requires consideration of many intangible factors, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee believes that each Director should have a basic understanding of (i) the principal operational and financial objectives and plans and strategies of the Company, (ii) the results of operations and financial condition of the Company and of any significant subsidiaries or business segments, and (iii) the relative standing of the Company and its business segments in relation to its competitors. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has identified and recommended George Campbell Jr. to join the Company's Board upon election by the Company's stockholders at the Meeting.

Nominating Process

Although the process for identifying and evaluating candidates to fill vacancies and/or expand the Board will inevitably require a practical approach in light of the particular circumstances at such time, the Board of Directors has adopted the following process to guide the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee in this respect. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is willing to consider candidates submitted by a variety of sources (including incumbent Directors, stockholders (as described below), Company management and third-party search firms) when reviewing candidates to fill vacancies and/or expand the Board. If a vacancy arises or the Board decides to expand its membership, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee may ask each Director to submit a list of potential candidates for consideration. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee then evaluates each potential candidate's educational background, employment history, outside commitments and other relevant factors to determine whether he or she is potentially qualified to serve on the Board. At that time, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee also will consider potential nominees submitted by stockholders, if any, in accordance with the procedures described below, or by the Company's management, and if the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee deems it necessary, retain an independent third-party search firm to provide potential candidates. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee seeks to identify and recruit the best available candidates, and it intends to evaluate qualified stockholder nominees on the same basis as those submitted by Board members, Company management, third-party search firms or other sources.

After completing this process, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will determine whether one or more candidates are sufficiently qualified to warrant further investigation. If the process yields one or more desirable candidates, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will rank them by order of preference, depending on their respective qualifications and the Company's needs. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee Chair will then contact the preferred candidate(s) to evaluate their potential interest and to set up interviews with the full Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. All such interviews include only the candidate and one or more Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee members. Based upon interview results and appropriate background checks, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee then decides whether it will recommend the candidate's nomination to the full Board.

When nominating a sitting Director for re-election at an annual meeting, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider the Director's performance on the Board and its committees and the Director's qualifications in respect of the criteria referred to above.

Consideration of Stockholder-Nominated Directors

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee also will consider potential nominees submitted by stockholders if a vacancy arises or if the Board decides to expand its membership, and at such other times as the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee deems necessary or appropriate. Any stockholder wishing to submit a candidate for consideration should send the following information to the Company's Corporate Secretary, Barnes & Noble, Inc., 122 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011: (i) stockholder's name, number of shares owned, length of period held, and proof of ownership; (ii) name, age and address of candidate; (iii) a detailed resume describing, among other things, the candidate's educational background, occupation, employment history for at least the previous five years, and material outside commitments (e.g., memberships on other boards and committees, charitable foundations, etc.); (iv) a supporting statement which describes the candidate's reasons for seeking election to the Board; (v) a description of any arrangements or understandings between the candidate and the Company; and (vi) a signed statement from the candidate, confirming his or her willingness to serve on the Board. In accordance with the Company's Bylaws, in order for the Company to consider a candidate submitted by a stockholder, the Company must receive the foregoing information not less than 30 days, nor more than 60 days, prior to a meeting of the Company's stockholders for the election of Directors; provided, that if less than 40 days' notice or prior public disclosure of such meeting is given to stockholders, the Company must receive the foregoing information no later than the 10th day following the day on which notice of the date of such meeting was mailed or publicly disclosed. The Company's Corporate Secretary will promptly forward such materials to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Company's Corporate Secretary also will maintain copies of such materials for future reference by the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee when filling Board positions.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The following Compensation Discussion and Analysis summarizes the Company's philosophy and objectives regarding the compensation of its Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table (collectively, the named executive officers), including how the Company determines elements and amounts of executive compensation. The following Compensation Discussion and Analysis should be read in conjunction with the report of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee) which immediately follows below.

Overview of Compensation Program

The Committee has the responsibility for establishing, implementing and overseeing the Company's compensation program for the named executive officers. The Committee reviews and approves the Company's compensation principles and the compensation of the named executive officers.

Compensation Principles

The Company's compensation program for the named executive officers is based upon the following guiding principles:

- 1. Pay for performance The compensation program is designed to reward the named executive officers for attaining established goals that require the dedication of their time, efforts, skills and business experience to the success of the Company and the maximization of stockholder value. The compensation program is designed to reward both annual and long-term performance. Annual performance is rewarded through salary and annual bonus and is measured principally by the Company's EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization). Long-term performance is rewarded through stock awards, including stock options or restricted stock awards (stock awards), the value of which are measured in the performance of the Company's stock price.
- 2. Pay competitively The compensation program is designed to be competitive relative to similarly situated executives at peer companies and to allow the Company to attract and retain individuals whose skills are critical to the current and long-term success of the Company.
- 3. Align pay to business objectives and long-term strategy The compensation program is designed to reward and motivate the named executive officers' individual and team performance in attaining business objectives and maximizing stockholder value. Compensation awards are based on the fundamental principle of aligning the long-term interests of the named executive officers with those of the Company's stockholders.

Role of Executive Officers in Compensation Decisions for the Named Executive Officers

The Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer annually review the performance of each of the other named executive officers. The performance of the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer is reviewed annually by the Committee. The Chairman's and the Chief Executive Officer's compensation recommendations reached following these reviews are presented to the Committee, together with the Chairman's compensation recommendations with respect to the Chief Executive Officer. The Committee considers all key elements of compensation separately and also reviews the full compensation package afforded by the Company to the named executive officers, including insurance and other benefits. In accordance with the Company's compensation principles, the Committee considers the full compensation package provided to the named executive officers in light of: (1) the Company's business performance; (2) the performance of the Company's stock price; and (3) the compensation provided by the Company's peers. Based on its judgment and expertise, the Committee can exercise its discretion in modifying any or all recommended elements of compensation or awards to the named executive officers. The Committee also reviews recommendations regarding stock awards to all executive officers of the Company.

Retention of Consultants

The Committee has retained compensation consultants as more fully described below. The Committee has established procedures that it considers adequate to ensure that the advice of these consultants to the Committee remains objective and is not influenced by the Company's management. All of the decisions with respect to determining the amount or form of executive and director compensation under the Company's executive and director compensation programs are made by the Committee alone and may reflect factors and considerations other than the information and advice provided by the compensation consultants.

In the second quarter of 2007, the Committee retained Mercer (US) Inc. (Mercer) to provide information, analyses and advice regarding executive and director compensation, as described below. The Mercer consultant who performs these services reports directly to the Committee Chair. The Company also retains Mercer and its related entities to perform other services.

At the Committee's direction, Mercer provided the following services for the Committee during fiscal 2007:

Conducted a review of director compensation, including an evaluation of director compensation relative to the Company's peers;

Conducted an evaluation of the competitive positioning of the Company's named executive officers' base salaries, annual incentive and long-term incentive compensation relative to its peers and the broader industry;

Conducted an assessment of the alignment of Company compensation levels relative to performance of the Company against its peers and relative to the Company's articulated compensation principles;

Provided ongoing advice as needed on the design of the Company's compensation program; and Assisted with the preparation of the Compensation Discussion and Analysis for this proxy statement.

In the course of conducting its activities, Mercer attended two meetings of the Committee and presented its findings and recommendations for discussion. With the consent of the Committee Chair, Mercer may, from time to time, contact the Company's executive officers for information necessary to fulfill its assignments and may make reports and presentations to and on behalf of the Committee that the executive officers also receive.

The Committee retained Frederic W. Cook & Co., Inc. (Frederic W. Cook) in 2004 to assist in identifying an appropriate peer group in making compensation decisions, to analyze the direct and indirect elements of compensation (both separately and in the aggregate) of the named executive officers relative to the peer group, and to advise on developing trends in executive compensation. In determining the peer group, the Committee and Frederic W. Cook looked to retailers with similar characteristics to the Company. The peer group used by the Committee and Frederic W. Cook consisted of Autozone, Bed Bath & Beyond, Borders Group, Circuit City Stores, Dollar General, Kohl's, Limited Brands, Office Depot, OfficeMax, RadioShack, Toys 'R Us and Williams-Sonoma. In this analysis, comparative compensation was reviewed for each named executive officer at two levels—those with similar titles and those ranked similarly within the compensation structure of the peer group. This is in recognition of the fact that titles and related responsibilities vary significantly from company to company. Reviewing comparative compensation based on compensation level exclusive of title provided a broader perspective in making compensation decisions. The Committee also retained Frederic W. Cook in 2006 to assist in the preparation of the Compensation Discussion and Analysis for the Company's proxy statement dated April 23, 2007.

Establishment of Competitiveness

A new peer group analysis was not conducted in setting 2007 compensation levels for the named executive officers. The Committee chose not to conduct a new peer group benchmark for 2007 because annual salaries for the named executive officers were not modified in 2007 except: (1) a decrease in the annual salary of Leonard Riggio from $500,000 in 2006 to $300,000 in 2007; and (2) a 3.6% increase in the annual salary of William F. Duffy. In 2008, with the assistance of Mercer, the Company and the Committee are continuing to assess the composition and size of the Company's peer group and to evaluate the competitive positioning of the Company's named executive officers' base salaries, annual incentive and long-term incentive compensation relative to its peers and the broader industry.

Key Elements of Compensation

The Company has entered into employment agreements with its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer, and with the Chief Executive Officer of its subsidiary barnesandnoble.com llc ("Barnes & Noble.com"), which establish minimum levels of compensation. These employment agreements, which cover certain key elements of the Company's executive compensation package, as well as severance and termination benefits, are discussed below (see "Employment Agreements").

Consistent with the Company's compensation principles, the following elements make up the compensation of the named executive officers:

Base Salary

Performance-based Annual Bonus

Long-term equity: Restricted Stock

Discretionary Awards

Retirement, Other Benefits and Limited Perquisites

The mix of compensation between these elements is designed to strike the appropriate balance by rewarding annual performance in a competitive marketplace while also aligning the long-term interests of the Company's named executive officers with those of the Company's stockholders. Set out below are pie charts showing the overall compensation mix for each of the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer and the weighted average mix for the remaining named executive officers.

Base Salaries

The Company pays its named executive officers a base salary to provide them with a minimum guaranteed compensation level for their annual services. A named executive officer's base salary is determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held, the individual's experience and the competitive marketplace for executive talent. The base salary is intended to be competitive with base salaries paid to executive officers at peer group companies with comparable qualifications, experience and responsibilities.

The base salaries of the named executive officers are established by the Committee by the end of the first quarter of each fiscal year. The Committee met on March 13, 2007 to establish the base salaries for fiscal 2007 for Leonard Riggio, Chairman; Stephen Riggio, Chief Executive Officer; Mitchell S. Klipper, Chief Operating Officer; Marie J. Toulantis, Chief Executive Officer of Barnes & Noble.com; Joseph J. Lombardi, Chief Financial Officer; and William F. Duffy, Executive Vice President, Distribution and Logistics. Stephen Riggio,

Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis are each entitled to the minimum base salaries set forth in their employment agreements (see Employment Agreements below). In setting salaries for fiscal 2007, the Committee considered the following:

The responsibilities of the executive officer and how successful he or she was in carrying out those responsibilities.

The industry-wide environment within which those responsibilities were being carried out.

Whether the executive officer had received salary increases within the past few years and the amount of any such increases.

The salaries of executive officers at peer companies, both in terms of comparable responsibilities and comparable compensation rank within the peer company.

The salary increases to be given to other named executive officers.

The recommendations of the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Performance-based Annual Bonuses

In addition to a base salary, each named executive officer is eligible for a performance-based annual bonus. The Company has chosen to include performance-based annual bonuses as a material element in its compensation plan, representing 49% of aggregate compensation for the Chairman, 66% of aggregate compensation for the Chief Executive Officer, and 40% of the weighted average aggregate compensation for the other named executive officers in fiscal 2007. The annual bonus is designed to motivate individual and team performance in attaining the current year's performance goals and business objectives.

Bonuses for the named executive officers are determined by the Committee based upon the attainment of EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) targets established by the Committee by the end of the Company's first fiscal quarter, subject to the adjustments to operating income described below. The EBITDA targets are set in accordance with the Company's annual budget and financial goals. The Committee chose EBITDA (as adjusted for certain legal and distribution center closing costs) as an appropriate measure because of the importance of margin performance in the highly competitive retail marketplace and because it closely aligns performance-based bonuses with the interests of stockholders. During the first fiscal quarter of 2007, the Committee established an EBITDA target for each named executive officer. Leonard Riggio, Stephen Riggio and Marie J. Toulantis were each given the same EBITDA target based on the EBITDA of the Company on a consolidated basis (the Consolidated 2007 EBITDA Target). Mitchell S. Klipper, Joseph J. Lombardi and William F. Duffy were each given the same EBITDA target based on the EBITDA of the Company's bookstores (the Bookstore 2007 EBITDA Target). The Consolidated 2007 EBITDA Target and the Bookstore 2007 EBITDA Target are collectively referred to as the 2007 Targets. The 2007 Targets were set to align each executive's bonus most closely with his or her business area of responsibility. For fiscal 2007, the Committee also concurrently established a designated percentage of base salary as the amount of the minimum bonus if the respective 2007 Target was achieved, as well as a sliding scale that increased or decreased that percentage based on the extent to which the respective Target was missed, attained or exceeded. The sliding scale provided for no bonus payout if the named executive officer achieved less than 85% of his or her respective 2007 Target and for a maximum bonus payout, as more fully described below, if the named executive officer achieved 106% or more of his or her respective 2007 Target.

Bonus levels were determined by the Committee after receiving the recommendations of the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer. Generally, the Committee sets the targets such that the relative difficulty of achieving the targets is consistent from year to year. In the last six years, the Company has missed the target once, achieved the target three times, and exceeded the target twice. The Consolidated 2007 EBITDA Target was $368.8 million.

In the case of Leonard Riggio, Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis, each was entitled to receive a bonus of 150% of base salary for achieving between 98% and 102% of their respective 2007 Targets. They were entitled to receive an additional 25% of base salary for achieving 106% or more of their respective 2007 Targets. In the case of Joseph J. Lombardi, he was entitled to receive a bonus of 100% of his base salary for achieving between 98% and 102% of his 2007 Target and was entitled to receive an additional 25% of base salary for achieving 106% or more of his respective 2007 Target. In the case of William F. Duffy, he was entitled to receive a bonus of 40% of his base salary for achieving between 98% and 102% of his 2007 Target and was entitled to receive an additional 3.6% of base salary for achieving 106% or more of his 2007 Target.

For fiscal 2007, the Committee provided for the bonuses for Leonard Riggio, Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis to be payable 50% in cash and 50% in restricted stock vesting in equal annual installments over three years. For fiscal 2007, the Committee provided for the bonuses for Joseph J. Lombardi and William F. Duffy to be payable in cash.

The same bonus percentages apply for bonuses for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2009 (fiscal 2008), except that: (1) the threshold for each named executive officer to achieve his or her respective fiscal 2008 target has been changed from a range of 98% to 102% to a range of 96% to 104% and the threshold for each named executive officer to receive the maximum bonus payout has been raised from 106% or more to 108% or more, (2) Joseph J. Lombardi will be entitled to receive a minimum bonus of 150% of his base salary for achieving between 96% and 104% of his fiscal 2008 target and will be entitled to receive an additional 25% of base salary for achieving 108% or more of his fiscal 2008 target; (3) William F. Duffy will be entitled to receive a minimum bonus of 40% of his base salary for achieving between 96% and 104% of his fiscal 2008 target and will be entitled to receive an additional 3.0% of base salary for achieving 108% or more of his fiscal 2008 target. In addition, acknowledging the continued integration of the Company's business as a multi-channel retailer, the named executive officers' fiscal 2008 targets will all be the same and based on the EBITDA of the Company on a consolidated basis, with the exception of William F. Duffy, whose fiscal 2008 target will be based 20% on the consolidated EBITDA, 30% on bookstore EBITDA and 50% on personal goals related to operational metrics associated with the Company's distribution center. Bonuses to all of the named executive officers for fiscal 2008 will be paid in cash.

In addition, upon the recommendation of the Chairman, the Committee also granted Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis a bonus for fiscal 2007, based on their achievement of their respective 2007 Targets referred to above, equal to a percentage of the per share dividend that each executive would have received on their shares of common stock for which they have stock options that is the same percentage as the respective named executive officer's annual bonus payout percentage, capped at 100% of the dividend. This bonus was intended to provide incentives to these executives both to achieve their respective 2007 Targets as well as to retain their stock options in the Company. The Committee has also approved this same bonus for Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis for fiscal 2008.

To preserve the deductibility of bonuses for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, under the Company's stockholder-approved 2004 Executive Performance Plan (the "Bonus Plan"), the named executive officers are entitled to a maximum performance-based bonus equal to a designated percentage of the Company's operating income, which is defined in the Bonus Plan as gross profit minus operating expenses of the Company and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, without regard to (a) restructurings, discontinued operations, extraordinary items and other unusual or non-recurring charges, (b) events not directly related to the operations of the Company or not within the reasonable control of the Company's management, or (c) changes in accounting standards required by generally accepted accounting principles. Under the Bonus Plan, the aggregate designated bonus percentage for the named executive officers may not exceed five percent of operating income. For fiscal 2007, the Committee allocated that five percent as follows: 1.3% for Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis, and 0.55% for Joseph J. Lombardi and William F. Duffy (or any executive officer who replaced Mr. Duffy as a named executive officer in the next year's Proxy Statement). For fiscal 2007, the Company's operating earnings under the Bonus Plan were $224 million. For fiscal 2008, the Committee modified those percentages to 1.3% for Stephen Riggio and Mitchell S. Klipper, 1.0% for Marie J. Toulantis and Joseph J. Lombardi and 0.4% for William F. Duffy (or any executive officer who replaces Mr. Duffy as a named executive officer in next year's Proxy Statement).

Set out below is a chart showing maximum, target and minimum bonus percentages for the named executive officers for 2007.

Long-term Equity: Restricted Stock

The Company chooses to grant long-term awards, currently in the form of restricted stock, to align the interests of the named executive officers with the interests of the Company's stockholders. Additionally, long-term awards offer the named executive officers an incentive for the achievement of superior performance over time and foster their retention. Grants of long-term awards are made to the named executive officers under the Company's stockholder-approved 2004 Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan").

As indicated above, for fiscal 2007, 50% of the performance-based bonus to Leonard Riggio, Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis was paid in the form of restricted stock vesting in equal annual installments over three years. In addition, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis were granted 33,333 and 16,666 shares of restricted stock, respectively, as a result of achieving their respective 2007 Targets, also vesting in equal annual installments over three years, and they are entitled to the same grant if they achieve their targets for fiscal 2008.

In addition to the performance-based grants described above, the Company grants restricted stock to its named executive officers as part of the Company's broad-based annual grant to Company employees under the Incentive Plan. Beginning in the fiscal year ending January 28, 2006 (fiscal 2005), the Committee determined that the Company should grant restricted stock as the annual long-term incentive award, as opposed to stock options, which was the prior preferred award. The Committee believes that the use of restricted stock as opposed to stock options results in less dilution to stockholders, while accomplishing similar objectives—value creation through stock price appreciation and alignment of stockholder and executive officer interests. In addition, the Committee believes that restricted stock is a preferred compensation element given the growth profile of the Company.

The Committee meets within the first fiscal quarter each year to approve the annual grants of restricted stock. Awards are granted to the named executive officers, other executive officers and eligible full-time employees based on a formula keyed to a percentage of salary. For the named executive officers for fiscal 2007, the percentage was 15%.

Historical Stock Option Grants

Previously the Company granted stock options as its preferred long-term incentive tool. In July 2006, the Company created a Special Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Special Committee") to review all of the stock option grants by the Company and the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Barnes & Noble.com, during the period from 1996 through 2006 and engaged independent outside counsel and an independent forensic auditor to assist in this matter. On April 2, 2007, the Special Committee presented its findings and recommendations to the Company's Board of Directors, as reported in the Company's Form 8-K filed April 4, 2007. The Special Committee indicated that the Committee and its advisors received the Company's full cooperation throughout its investigation.

The Special Committee determined that there were instances where historical option grants were misdated. In connection with this review, in December 2006, the Board members and all current Section 16 officers holding options unvested as of December 31, 2004 voluntarily agreed to reprice such options to an exercise price determined to be the appropriate fair market value by the Special Committee. All incorrectly dated and unexercised stock options issued to current Section 16 officers and directors of the Company other than hiring grants were repriced to reflect the greater of the original grant price or the price appropriate to the measurement date as determined by the Special Committee. The Board members and Section 16 officers did not receive cash payments to compensate them for the increase in exercise price due to their voluntary agreements to reprice such options. The total difference in exercise price as a result of the re-pricing of these unexercised options was approximately $2.64 million.

Consistent with the Special Committee's recommendation that all incorrectly dated and unexercised options issued to current Section 16 officers be repriced, current Section 16 officers who had exercised incorrectly dated options agreed to voluntarily repay to the Company the difference in the price at which the stock options were exercised and the price at which the Special Committee believes the stock options should have been priced, net of any allocable portion of income taxes paid in connection with such exercise. The total amount voluntarily repaid to the Company by Section 16 officers was approximately $1.98 million, prior to any netting of allocable income taxes.

Holders of incorrectly dated options that vested after December 31, 2004 and were exercised in 2006 were subject to penalty taxes under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code (Section 409A). The Company reimbursed Section 16 officers who voluntarily repaid the Company if they were subject to these penalty taxes. The Board approved payment to such executives who were subject to Section 409A taxes in connection with exercised options in an amount equal to the cost of the Section 409A penalty tax, any interest or penalties, plus an amount to offset the associated income tax consequences of the reimbursement payments. In reaching this decision, the Board took into consideration, among other factors, the fact that the applicable taxes under Section 409A far exceeded the amount of any possible enrichment to such officers as a result of improper grant dating and the agreement by such officers to repay the amount of any enrichment as a result of the improper dating. The aggregate cost of the payments to such officers, including the gross-up amounts, was approximately $960,000, not taking into account interest and penalties.

Consistent with the recommendation of the Special Committee, the Board implemented improvements to the stock option grant process to the extent options are used as a compensation tool. The Special Committee recommended and the Board resolved that responsibility for oversight of the process related to the issuance of stock options be vested in the Chief Financial Officer, with assistance from the Vice President of Human Resources. The Company implemented internal procedures to improve communication between the Human Resources and Finance Departments, enhanced interaction with the Company's external auditors and counsel, enhanced the interaction between internal and external auditors, and promoted periodic reviews of procedures for stock option grants.

The Special Committee recommended and the Board established a policy that all stock options be priced where possible on the date of a meeting, either in person or telephonically, of the Compensation Committee. Stock options, if granted, are granted by the Compensation Committee with an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Company's Common Stock as reported on the NYSE on the date of the grant. In addition, the Board established a policy that all restricted stock grants approved by the Committee will have specific grant dates documented in the minutes of the meeting of the Compensation Committee at which such grant or grants are approved.

The Company has vested responsibility for all internal accounting and finance functions in the Company's Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer has been instructed to review periodically the Company's equity awards processes, document the results of such review and to report these results to the Compensation and Audit Committees.

Discretionary Awards

From time to time the Committee may approve discretionary awards for the named executive officers in recognition of efforts that are beyond the normal requirements of their assigned duties or as further incentive for continued employment. No discretionary awards were granted to the named executive officers in fiscal 2007.

Other Considerations

Retirement Benefits

Each of the named executive officers is entitled to participate in the Company's tax-qualified defined contribution 401(k) plan on the same basis as all other eligible employees. The Company matches the contributions of participants, subject to certain criteria. Under the terms of the 401(k) plan, as prescribed by the Internal Revenue Code, the 401(k) contribution of any participating employee is limited to a maximum percentage of annual pay or a maximum dollar amount ($15,500 for 2007) subject to a $5,000 increase for participants who are age 50 or older). The amount of the Company's matching payments for each of the named executive officers is set forth in Note 7 to the Summary Compensation Table.

As of December 31, 1999, substantially all employees of the Company were covered under the Company's Employees' Retirement Plan (the Retirement Plan). The Retirement Plan is a defined benefit pension plan. As of January 1, 2000, the Retirement Plan was amended so that employees no longer earn benefits for subsequent service. Subsequent service continues to be the basis for vesting of benefits not yet vested at December 31, 1999 and the Retirement Plan will continue to hold assets and pay benefits.

A participant's annual benefit is determined for an employee, including an officer, generally as (i) 0.7% of the participant's average annual pay as determined in accordance with the Retirement Plan up to Social Security-covered compensation, multiplied by the participant's years of credited service, plus (ii) 1.3% of the participant's average annual pay as determined in accordance with the Retirement Plan in excess of Social Security-covered compensation, multiplied by the participant's years of credited service. A participant's maximum benefit is limited, pursuant to Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code, to $130,000, indexed annually. For 1999, compensation recognized under the Retirement Plan was limited to $160,000.

Credited years of service under the Retirement Plan as of February 2, 2008 for the named executive officers are: Stephen Riggio 13 years; Mitchell S. Klipper 11.25 years; Marie J. Toulantis 4 years; and William F. Duffy 7 years. Leonard Riggio and Joseph J. Lombardi are not participants in the Retirement Plan.

The estimated pension benefits to be made by the Company to the named executive officers are set forth in the Table entitled "Pension Benefits Table" on page 28 of this Proxy Statement.

Deferred Compensation Plan

The Company has a Deferred Compensation Plan that permits Company employees making an annual salary in excess of $160,000 ($130,000 prior to May 1, 2006) to elect to defer receipt of up to 50% of their annual salary and up to 100% of their annual bonus. Participants may elect to have deferred amounts paid after one of the following events: (1) retirement; (2) termination of employment; or (3) the beginning of a designated year, not earlier than three years after the deferral is made, and not later than the year in which the participant would attain the age of 70-1/2. This plan allows employees, if they so choose, to save for retirement.

Amounts paid to a participant under the Deferred Compensation Plan are paid in a lump sum, except in the case of retirement, where a participant may elect to have payments made in equal annual installments for a period of up to 15 years. Amounts in the Deferred Compensation Plan may be withdrawn by a participant at any time subject to a 10% penalty, which may be waived by the Committee in the case of financial hardship.

William F. Duffy is the only named executive officer who participates in the Deferred Compensation Plan. See the table entitled "Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation" on page 29 of this Proxy Statement.

Limited Perquisites

The Company does not have a formal program providing perquisites to its executive officers. Messrs. Stephen Riggio and Klipper and Ms. Toulantis are entitled to the limited perquisites set forth in their employment agreements, as described below. (See "Employment Agreements").

The perquisites received by the named executive officers are set forth in Note 7 of the Summary Compensation Table.

Employment Agreements

The Company has entered into employment agreements with Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis. The terms of the employment agreements for Messrs. Stephen Riggio and Klipper commenced on February 18, 2002, continued for a period of three years thereafter, and now renew each year automatically for one year unless either party gives notice of non-renewal at least six months prior to automatic renewal. The initial term of the employment agreement for Ms. Toulantis commenced on March 9, 2005 and continued through March 9, 2008, with automatic annual one-year renewals thereafter unless either party gives notice of non-renewal at least six months prior to automatic renewal. The Committee will review these agreements on an annual basis to assess their continued competitiveness.

Stephen Riggio's minimum annual salary during the term of his employment under the employment agreement can be no less than $650,000. Mitchell S. Klipper's and Marie J. Toulantis' minimum annual salary during the term of their employment under their respective employment agreements can be no less than $600,000. For Messrs. Stephen Riggio and Klipper, minimum annual bonus compensation will be based on the formula and targets established under and in accordance with the Bonus Plan. For Ms. Toulantis, minimum annual bonus compensation is based on the zero to 175% of the base salary formula set forth above for pre-set targets established under the Bonus Plan. Ms. Toulantis' employment agreement also provides for a $2,000,000 merger bonus, which was paid in equal installments on May 27, 2005 and May 27, 2006.

The employment agreements also provide for certain limited perquisites, including a monthly car allowance ($1,500 in the case of Messrs. Stephen Riggio and Klipper and $1,000 in the case of Ms. Toulantis), $1,000,000 of life insurance, and long-term disability (providing for monthly payments of $12,800 in the case of Messrs. Stephen Riggio and Klipper and $12,500 in the case of Ms. Toulantis) payable during the disability period through the earlier of death or the attainment of age 65. Each executive is also entitled to all other benefits afforded to executive officers and employees of the Company.

Each executive is also restricted from competing with the Company, directly or indirectly, during the term of his or her agreement and for two years after termination of employment, unless the contract is terminated by the Company (other than for cause prior to a change of control) or by the executive for good cause (as defined in the employment agreements and as discussed below).

Change of Control/Severance Benefits in Employment Agreements

The employment agreements of Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis provide that each executive's employment may be terminated by the Company upon death, disability or for cause, and by the executive for good cause (defined as a material modification of duties, title or direct reports, or a material reduction in compensation and benefits, or a relocation of the Company's principal executive offices outside the New York metropolitan area). If an executive's employment is terminated due to death or disability, by the Company with cause or by the executive without good cause, the executive is entitled to payment of base salary through the date of death, disability or termination of employment.

If the executive is terminated by the Company without cause or by the executive for good cause, the executive is entitled to lump sum severance equal to two times the sum of annual salary, most recent annual bonus and the cost of annual benefits, unless such event occurred within two years following a change of control of the Company, in which case the executive is entitled to lump sum severance equal to three times the sum of annual salary, most recent annual bonus and the cost of annual benefits, up to the maximum severance permitted to be paid to the executive by the Company without triggering the golden parachute excise tax under the Internal Revenue Code. In the case of Ms. Toulantis, she also received performance-based stock options for 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock in accordance with her employment agreement, vesting in equal annual installments over four years. Under her agreement, any unvested options would immediately vest in the event of a change of control or upon a termination of her employment (other than by the Company for cause or by her voluntarily).

In addition, Mr. Joseph J. Lombardi is entitled to severance equal to six months' salary in the event of the termination of his employment, other than for termination for cause.

The triggering events which would result in the severance benefits and the amount of those benefits were selected to provide these named executive officers with a guaranteed level of financial protection upon loss of employment to enable them to focus on the interests of the Company and its stockholders in the event of a potential change of control. They were considered competitive with severance provisions being offered by other companies at the time the agreements were entered into. The Committee will review these agreements on an annual basis to assess their continued competitiveness.

For similar reasons, the Company's outstanding stock options and restricted stock awards, including those held by the named executive officers, vest immediately upon a change of control of the Company.

The estimated payments to be made by the Company to the named executive officers in the event of a change of control are set forth in the Table entitled Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control on page 30 of this Proxy Statement.

Tax Implications

Impact of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. In making its determinations, the Committee considers the potential impact of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (Section 162(m)), which disallows a tax deduction for any publicly held corporation for individual compensation exceeding $1,000,000 in any taxable year paid to its chief executive officer or any of its three other highest paid officers (other than the CFO) unless (i) the compensation is payable solely on account of the attainment of performance goals, (ii) the performance goals are determined by a committee of two or more outside directors, (iii) the material terms under which compensation is to be paid are disclosed to and approved by stockholders, and (iv) the determining committee certifies that the performance goals were met. Because it is in the best interests of the Company to qualify to the maximum extent possible the compensation of its executives for deductibility under applicable tax laws, the Company obtained stockholder approval in June 2004 for the Bonus Plan and the Incentive Plan, which provides for the payment of compensation in compliance with Section 162(m), and the Committee administers the Bonus Plan and the Incentive Plan in a manner intended to comply with Section 162(m). However, it is possible that one or more option grants for which revised measurement dates have been determined for accounting purposes as a result of the Special Committee review of historical stock option grants may not qualify as performance-based awards as may be determined by the Internal Revenue Service.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the foregoing Compensation Discussion and Analysis with management and, based on such review and discussions, has recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Proxy Statement.

- (1) The amounts in these columns reflect the minimum payout level, target payout level and maximum payout level under the Company's annual incentive bonus plan. Note that for Mr. S. Riggio, Ms. Toulantis, Mr. Klipper and Mr. L. Riggio, the incentive award was paid 50% in cash and 50% in restricted stock in fiscal 2006 and fiscal 2007. For additional information regarding this bonus plan refer to page 16 of this Proxy Statement.
- (2) The maximum amounts shown in the column reflect values derived from each executive's internal target bonus percentage. However, to preserve the maximum deductibility of bonuses for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Company's stockholder-approved Bonus Plan provides for a maximum bonus payable to the named executive officers equal to five percent of the Company's operating earnings for the fiscal year to which the bonus relates or such lesser percentage as established by the Committee by the end of the first quarter of such fiscal year. For additional information regarding the Bonus Plan refer to page 16 of this Proxy Statement.
- (3) This column shows the number of shares of restricted stock granted in fiscal 2007 to the named executive officers. Restricted stock granted on April 9, 2007 vests in equal annual installments on the first through third anniversaries of the date of grant. Restricted stock granted on May 9, 2007 vests in equal annual installments on the first through fourth anniversaries of the date of grant.
- (4) This column shows the full grant date fair value of stock awards under SFAS 123R granted to the named executive officers. The assumptions used in calculating these amounts are set forth in Note 3 to the Company's Financial Statements for the fiscal year ending February 2, 2008 which is located on page F-27 of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Stephen Riggio	Employees Retirement Plan	13.00	$ 134,978
Mitchell S. Klipper	Employees Retirement Plan	11.25	$ 97,015

Joseph J. Lombardi	N/A
William F. Duffy	Employees Retirement Plan	7.00	$ 2,496

Effective as of January 1, 2000, the Retirement Plan, a tax-qualified defined benefit plan which had covered substantially all of the Company's employees, was amended to freeze benefits. Accordingly, participants as of December 31, 1999 no longer earned benefits for service with the Company and no new employees became participants in the Retirement Plan after that date. Service with the Company after December 31, 1999 continues to be taken into account for determining whether participants are vested in their accrued benefits on December 31, 1999, if they were not vested on that date. The Retirement Plan continues to pay benefits in accordance with its provisions as in effect on December 31, 1999.

A participant's annual benefit payable at normal retirement age (65) is equal to the sum of:

- (i) 0.7% of the participant's five-year average annual pay up to the Social Security-covered compensation limit, multiplied by the participant's years of credited service; and
- (ii) 1.3% of the participant's five-year average annual pay in excess of Social Security-covered compensation limit, multiplied by the participant's years of credited service.

For purposes of the Retirement Plan, pay is the sum of the participant's base compensation, overtime, bonus and commissions. Pay under the Retirement Plan does not include any amounts paid on or after January 1, 2000, and is limited to the Internal Revenue Code maximum amount permitted for 1999 ($160,000) and previous years.

The calculation of the present value of accumulated benefit shown in the Pension Benefits Table assumes a discount rate of 6.25% and mortality under the 1995 George B. Buck Mortality Table.

Benefits under the Retirement Plan are generally not payable as a lump sum; they are paid as a monthly annuity for the life of the retiree. Participants who retire at the later of normal retirement age or the completion of five years of service receive an unreduced benefit. Participants may elect early retirement with reduced benefits after attaining age 55 and completing five years of vesting service. An immediate benefit is payable at early retirement equal to the normal retirement benefit, reduced by an annual reduction factor of 6-2/3% for each of the first five years and 3-1/3% for each of the next five years that payment commences prior to normal retirement age.

Participants may elect payment in the form of a 50%, 75% or 100% joint and survivorship annuity or in the form of a ten-year certain and life annuity. Election of these payment forms will result in a lower annuity payment during the retiree's life.

(1) This amount is from salary deferred by the executive and has been included in the Summary Compensation Table on page 24. The Company has a Deferred Compensation Plan that permits employees with an annual salary in excess of $160,000 ($130,000 prior to May 1, 2006) to elect to defer receipt of up to 50% of annual salary and up to 100% of bonus. The minimum annual salary deferral is $5,000 (unless the participant is hired or first eligible for the Deferred Compensation Plan after March 31) and the minimum annual bonus deferral is $2,500.

Deferred amounts are credited to accounts for participants under the Deferred Compensation Plan. Participants direct the deemed investment of their accounts among Fidelity Investments mutual funds. Participants may change the deemed investment of their accounts at any time.

Payments from the Deferred Compensation Plan may be made, as elected by participants, at: (i) retirement (age 55 or later with at least five years of service); (ii) termination of employment; or (iii) the beginning of a designated year, not earlier than three years after the deferral is made, and not later than the year in which the participant would attain the age of 70-1/2. Payments are accelerated if a participant is disabled and in the event of a change of control. In addition, a participant may make a hardship withdrawal for financial emergency if the participant's request is approved by the Compensation Committee. Amounts deferred prior to 2005 (and related earnings) may also be withdrawn by a participant at any time subject to a 10% penalty. A participant's account under the Deferred Compensation Plan is paid in a lump sum, except for payments on retirement which may be made in equal annual installments for a period of up to 15 years if elected by the participant.

William F. Duffy is the only named executive officer who currently participates in the Deferred Compensation Plan.

- (1) The values in this table reflect estimated payments associated with various termination scenarios, assumes a stock price of $34.03 (based on the closing price of the Company's common stock as of the end of fiscal 2007, except where otherwise noted) and includes all outstanding grants through the assumed termination date of February 2, 2008. Actual value will vary based on changes in the Company's common stock price.
- (2) With the exception of Mr. Lombardi, cash severance equal to the sum of the executive's annual salary plus annual bonus for the most recently completed fiscal year (assumes bonus for fiscal 2007 that was paid in fiscal 2008) plus the aggregate annual benefit dollar amount times the executive's severance multiple as follows: two times for non-change of control and three times for change of control for Mr. Klipper, Mr. S. Riggio and Ms. Toulantis. Mr. Lombardi would receive cash severance equal to six months' base salary.
- (3) Mr. Leonard Riggio and Mr. Duffy do not have formal severance arrangements with the Company. Any severance payments would be provided at the Board's discretion.

- (4) Under the Company's 2004 Incentive Plan, all unvested options are forfeited upon an involuntary termination, death or disability except for awards granted in connection with Mr. Klipper and Ms. Toulantis' employment agreements. Under these agreements, any unvested options granted as part of these agreements will vest upon an involuntary termination, death or disability. Note that all of Mr. Klipper's option awards made under his agreement have already vested. Ms. Toulantis has 25,000 options that are unvested as part of her employment agreement. The value represents the intrinsic value (defined as the difference between a $34.03 stock price, the closing price of the Company's common stock as of the end of fiscal 2007, and the exercise price of the option multiplied by the number of unvested option shares) of unvested stock options that would vest in the event of an involuntary termination, death or disability.
- (5) Represents the value of unvested shares that would automatically vest upon a termination due to death, disability or termination following a change of control. Unvested shares are forfeited upon an involuntary termination or termination for cause.
- (6) The Company provides three months of COBRA premiums for medical and dental coverage following death.
- (7) The Company provides a seven-month subsidy of COBRA premiums for medical and dental coverage following termination due to disability.
- (8) Under the Company's 2004 Incentive Plan, all unvested options vest upon a change of control. The value represents the intrinsic value (based on a $34.03 stock price, the closing price of the Company's common stock as of the end of fiscal 2007) of unvested stock options that would vest in the event of a change of control.

The amounts shown in the table above in the event of involuntary termination were calculated assuming that the termination of employment of each named executive officer occurred on the last day of fiscal 2007 (February 2, 2008). The amounts shown in the table above in the event of a change of control were calculated assuming that a change of control occurred on the last day of fiscal 2007 and each named executive officer's employment terminated on that date due to involuntary termination or for good cause.

In addition to the amounts shown in the above table, in the event of a change of control the named executive officers would be entitled to exercise their vested stock options as shown in the "Option Awards-Number of Securities Underlying Unexercised Options-Exercisable" column of the Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End table on page 27 of this Proxy Statement.

For a summary of the provisions of the employment agreements with Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper and Marie J. Toulantis that affect the amounts set forth in the table above in the event of involuntary termination or a change of control, see the discussion under "Employment Agreements" and "Change of Control/Severance Benefits in Employment Agreements" in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis on page 21 of this Proxy Statement.

For purposes of the employment agreements, involuntary termination by the Company of the named executive officer's employment means termination other than due to death, disability or cause (conviction of a felony that impacts the performance of the named executive officer's duties or involving a crime of moral turpitude; misappropriation or embezzlement in the performance of duties; or willfully engaging in conduct materially injurious to the Company that is in violation of obligations under the agreement and continues for at least 30 days after written notice from the Company that specifies the violation in reasonable detail). Good cause is defined in the employment agreements as a material modification of duties, titles or direct reports; a material reduction in compensation and benefits; or the relocation of the Company's principal executive offices to a location outside of the New York City metropolitan area.

Under the agreements, change of control is defined as the acquisition by any person or group (other than named executive officer or Leonard Riggio or any of his heirs or affiliates) of 40% or more of the Company's voting securities; the Company's directors immediately prior to a merger, consolidation, liquidation or sale of assets cease within two years thereafter to be a majority of the board of directors; or the Company's directors immediately prior to a tender or exchange offer for the Company's voting securities cease within two years thereafter to be a majority of the board of directors.

All outstanding stock options and restricted stock awards held by the Company's employees would vest immediately in the event of a change of control, including those held by the named executive officers. The stock option and restricted stock award agreements define change of control as: (i) a change of control of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; (ii) a merger or consolidation of the Company with another company; or (iii) a sale of substantially all of the assets of the Company to another company.

The amount paid by B&N College to the Company approximates the cost per square foot paid by the Company to its unaffiliated third-party landlord.

The Company purchases new and used textbooks at market prices directly from MBS Textbook Exchange, Inc. (MBS), a corporation majority-owned by Leonard Riggio. Total purchases were $7,539,000, $6,945,000 and $19,129,000 for fiscal years 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. MBS distributes certain proprietary products on behalf of the Company for which the Company is paid a commission. Total commissions received were $419,000, $362,000 and $321,000 for fiscal years 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

In fiscal 2006, MBS began selling used books as part of the Barnes & Noble.com dealer network. MBS pays Barnes & Noble.com the same commission as other dealers in the Barnes & Noble dealer network. Barnes & Noble.com earned a commission of $1,598,000 and $1,626,000 on the MBS used book sales in fiscal 2007 and 2006, respectively. In addition, Barnes & Noble.com maintains a link on its website which is hosted by MBS and through which Barnes & Noble.com customers are able to sell used books directly to MBS. Barnes & Noble.com is paid a commission based on the price paid by MBS to the customer. Total commissions paid to Barnes & Noble.com were $81,000, $34,000, and $46,000 for fiscal years 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

The Company licenses the Barnes & Noble name under a royalty-free license agreement dated February 11, 1988, as amended, from B&N College. Barnes & Noble.com licenses the Barnes & Noble name under a royalty-free license agreement, dated October 31, 1998, as amended, between Barnes & Noble.com and B&N College (the License Agreement). Pursuant to the License Agreement, Barnes & Noble.com has been granted an exclusive license to use the Barnes & Noble name and trademark in perpetuity for the purpose of selling books over the Internet (excluding sales of college textbooks). Under a separate agreement dated as of January 31, 2001, between Barnes & Noble.com, B&N College and Textbooks.com, Inc. (Textbooks.com), a corporation owned by Leonard Riggio, Barnes & Noble.com was granted the right to sell college textbooks over the Internet using the Barnes & Noble name. Pursuant to this agreement, Barnes & Noble.com pays Textbooks.com a royalty on revenues (net of product returns, applicable sales tax and excluding shipping and handling) realized by Barnes & Noble.com from the sale of books designated as textbooks. The current term of the agreement is through January 31, 2010 and renews annually for additional one-year periods unless terminated 12 months prior to the end of any given term. Royalty expense was $4,864,000, $3,916,000 and $4,870,000 for fiscal years 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively, under the terms of this agreement.

The Company reimbursed B&N College certain operating costs B&N College incurred on the Company's behalf. These charges were $200,000, $248,000 and $198,000 for fiscal 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. B&N College purchased inventory, at cost plus an incremental fee, of $50,597,000, $48,574,000 and $49,997,000 from the Company during fiscal 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. B&N College reimbursed the Company $4,889,000, $2,698,000 and $2,527,000 for fiscal years 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively, for capital expenditures, business insurance and other operating costs incurred on its behalf.

The Company uses a jet aircraft owned by B&N College and pays for the costs and expenses of operating the aircraft based upon the Company's usage. Such costs which include fuel, insurance and other costs were $1,921,000, $1,722,000 and $2,590,000 during fiscal 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

GameStop, a company in which Leonard Riggio is a member of the Board of Directors and a minority shareholder, operates departments within some of the Company's bookstores. GameStop pays a license fee to the Company in an amount equal to 7% of the gross sales of such departments, which totaled $1,221,000, $996,000 and $857,000 during fiscal 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

In fiscal 2005, GameStop began selling new and used video games and consoles on the Barnes & Noble.com website. Barnes & Noble.com receives a commission on sales made by GameStop. For fiscal years 2007, 2006 and 2005, the commission earned by Barnes & Noble.com was $447,000, $343,000 and $264,000, respectively.

Until June 2005, GameStop participated in the Company's worker's compensation, property and general liability insurance programs. The costs incurred by the Company under these programs were allocated to GameStop based upon GameStop's total payroll expense, property and equipment, and insurance claim history. GameStop reimbursed the Company for these services $289,000, $838,000 and $1,726,000 during fiscal 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Although GameStop secured its own insurance coverage, costs are continuing to be incurred by the Company on insurance claims which were made under its programs prior to June 2005 and any such costs applicable to insurance claims against GameStop will be charged to GameStop at the time incurred.

On October 1, 2004, the Company's independent directors approved an overall plan for the complete disposition of all of its Class B common stock in GameStop. This disposition was completed in two steps. The first step in the disposition was completed on October 1, 2004 and included the sale of 6,107,338 shares of GameStop Class B common stock held by the Company to GameStop (the Stock Sale) for an aggregate consideration of $111,520,000. This consideration included a $74,020,000 note payable to the Company, $12,173,000 of which was received in each of the last three fiscal years. The second step in the disposition was the spin-off by the Company of its remaining 29,901,662 shares of GameStop's Class B common stock (the Spin-Off). The Spin-Off was completed on November 12, 2004 with the distribution of 0.424876232 of a share of GameStop Class B common stock as a tax-free distribution on each outstanding share of the Company's common stock to the Company's stockholders of record as of the close of business on November 2, 2004.

The Company is provided with national freight distribution, including trucking services by the Argix Direct Inc. (Argix) (formerly the LTA Group, Inc.), a company in which a brother of Leonard and Stephen Riggio owns a 20% interest, pursuant to a transportation agreement expiring in 2012. The Company paid Argix $18,953,000, $20,524,000 and $20,120,000 for such services during fiscal years 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. The Company believes the cost of freight delivered to the stores is comparable to the prices charged by publishers and other third-party freight distributors. Argix subleases warehouse space from the Company in Jamesburg, New Jersey, pursuant to a sublease expiring in 2011. The Company charged Argix $2,642,000, $2,005,000 and $1,993,000 for such subleased space and other operating costs incurred on its behalf during fiscal 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Rent per square foot is currently estimated to be at or above market.

The Company uses Source Interlink Companies, Inc. (Source Interlink) as its primary supplier of music and DVD/video, as well as magazines and newspapers. Leonard Riggio is an investor in an investment company that owns a minority interest in Source Interlink. The Company paid Source Interlink $438,159,000, $442,685,000 and $383,382,000 for merchandise purchased at market prices during fiscal 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. In addition, during fiscal 2005, Source Interlink spun-off its Digital on Demand subsidiary, which provides database equipment and services to the Company. Leonard Riggio owns a minority interest in Digital on Demand through the same investment company through which he owns a minority interest in Source Interlink. The Company paid Digital on Demand $4,396,000, $4,705,000 and $4,974,000 for database equipment and services during fiscal 2007, 2006 and 2005, respectively. The Company believes the cost charged by Digital on Demand is comparable to other suppliers. Outstanding amounts payable to Source Interlink for merchandise purchased were $58,822,000 and $68,048,000 as of February 2, 2008 and February 3, 2007, respectively.

Legal Proceedings

The Company is involved in a variety of claims, suits, investigations and proceedings that arise from time to time in the ordinary course of its business, including actions with respect to contracts, intellectual property (IP), taxation, employment, benefits, securities, personal injuries and other matters. The results of these proceedings in the ordinary course of business are not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

The following is a discussion of the material legal matters involving the Company.

In re Barnes & Noble, Inc. Derivative Litigation

In July and August 2006, four putative stockholder derivative actions were filed in New York County Supreme Court against certain members of the Company's Board of Directors and certain current and former executive officers of the Company, alleging breach of fiduciary duty and unjust enrichment in connection with the grant of certain stock options to certain executive officers and directors of the Company. These actions were subsequently consolidated under the caption In re Barnes & Noble, Inc. Derivative Litigation (the State Derivative Action). The Company is named as a nominal defendant only. The consolidated complaint sought on behalf of the Company unspecified money damages, disgorgement of any proceeds from the exercise of the options that are the subject of the action (and any subsequent sale of the underlying stock), rescission of any unexercised stock options, other equitable relief, and costs and disbursements, including attorneys' fees. The Company filed a motion to dismiss the consolidated complaint. On May 4, 2007, the court heard argument on the Company's motion. The motion was voluntarily withdrawn, subject to the right of re-filing, to permit the parties to pursue efforts to resolve the dispute amicably without the need for any decision on the motion.

In September 2006, three putative stockholder derivative actions were filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York naming the directors of the Company and certain current and former executive officers as defendants and alleging that the defendants backdated certain stock option grants to executive officers and caused the Company to file false or misleading financial disclosures and proxy statements. These actions were subsequently consolidated under the caption In re Barnes & Noble, Inc. Shareholders Derivative Litigation (the Federal Derivative Action). The consolidated complaint purports to set forth claims under Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) and under Delaware law for breach of fiduciary duty, insider trading, unjust enrichment, rescission, accounting, gross mismanagement, abuse of control, and waste of corporate assets. The Company is named as a nominal defendant only. The consolidated complaint seeks on behalf of the Company unspecified money damages, disgorgement of any proceeds from the exercise of the options that are the subject of the action (and any subsequent sale of the underlying stock), rescission of any unexercised stock options, other equitable relief, and costs and disbursements, including attorneys' fees. The Company filed a motion to dismiss the consolidated complaint, but no decision has been issued in light of the parties' efforts to resolve the matter through out-of-court settlement.

On September 6, 2007, the parties in the State Derivative Action and in the Federal Derivative Action signed a Stipulation of Compromise and Settlement (the "Settlement Agreement") with respect to these matters. In entering into the Settlement Agreement, neither Barnes & Noble nor any of the named defendants has admitted to any liability or wrongdoing. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, which is subject to court approval, the Company will institute certain corporate governance and internal control measures and will pay plaintiffs' attorneys' fees and expenses in the total amount of $2,750,000.

On November 14, 2007, upon notice duly given to the Company's shareholders, a hearing was held in the State Derivative Action regarding the terms of the Settlement Agreement. No objections were filed, and no shareholder appeared to contest any aspect of the Settlement Agreement. At the hearing, the court issued an order approving the settlement subject only to a determination by a Special Referee as to the reasonableness of plaintiffs' attorneys' fees and expenses. Following a conference before the Special Referee on January 2, 2008, the Special Referee determined that the requested attorneys' fees and expenses were reasonable. The Court in the State Derivative Action has not yet issued a final order approving the settlement. Once that order issues, the parties will move voluntarily to dismiss the Federal Derivative Action.

In re Initial Public Offering Securities Litigation

The class action lawsuit In re Initial Public Offering Securities Litigation filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York in April 2002 (the "Action") named over one thousand individuals and 300 corporations, including Fatbrain.com, LLC ("Fatbrain") (a subsidiary of Barnes & Noble.com) and its former officers and directors. The amended complaints in the Action all allege that the initial public offering registration statements filed by the defendant issuers with the SEC, including the one filed by Fatbrain, were false and misleading because they failed to disclose that the defendant underwriters were receiving excess compensation in the form of profit sharing with certain of its customers and that some of those customers agreed to buy additional shares of the defendant issuers' common stock in the after market at increasing prices. The amended complaints also allege that the foregoing constitute violations of: (i) Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") by the defendant issuers, the directors and officers signing the related registration statements, and the related underwriters; (ii) Rule 10b-5 promulgated under the Exchange Act by the same parties; and (iii) the control person provisions of the Securities and Exchange Acts by certain directors and officers of the defendant issuers. A motion to dismiss by the defendant issuers, including Fatbrain, was denied.

After extensive negotiations among representatives of plaintiffs and defendants, the parties entered into a memorandum of understanding ("MOU"), outlining a proposed settlement resolving the claims in the Action between plaintiffs and the defendants issuers. Subsequently a settlement agreement was executed between the defendants and plaintiffs in the Action, the terms of which are consistent with the MOU. The settlement agreement was submitted to the court for approval and on February 15, 2005, the judge granted preliminary approval of the settlement.

On December 5, 2006, the federal appeals court for the Second Circuit issued a decision reversing the District Court's class certification decision in six focus cases. In light of that decision, the District Court has stayed all proceedings, including consideration of the settlement. Plaintiffs then filed, in January 2007, a Petition for Rehearing En Banc before the Second Circuit, which was denied in April 2007. On May 30, 2007, Plaintiffs moved, before the District Court, to certify a new class. On June 25, 2007, the District Court entered an order terminating the settlement agreement.

While a new settlement may be reached, in the event that one is not, the Company intends to vigorously defend this lawsuit.

Barnesandnoble.com LLC v. Yee, et al.

On December 21, 2007, Barnes & Noble.com filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California for declaratory and injunctive relief against the members of the California Board of Equalization (the BOE) and others. The complaint seeks a declaration that the actions of the State of California in seeking to impose California sales and use tax on the sales of Barnes & Noble.com for the period of May 1, 2000 through March 31, 2004 in the amount of approximately $17 million, plus interest and penalties, violate the Commerce Clause and the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, as well as the California Administrative Procedures Act. This assessment is also the subject of an administrative protest filed by Barnes & Noble.com. Barnes & Noble.com is also challenging another earlier assessment by the BOE in the amount of approximately $700,000, plus interest and penalties, for the period of November 15, 1999 through January 31, 2000. This earlier assessment was struck down by a decision of the California Superior Court on September 7, 2007 in favor of Barnes & Noble.com, and the BOE filed an appeal which is still pending.
