Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On November 4, 2008, Ventas, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing its results of operations for the quarter ended September 30, 2008.

A copy of the press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated in this Item 2.02 by reference.

The press release states that the Company's normalized funds from operations (FFO) for the quarter ended September 30, 2008 were $97.2 million, or $0.69 per diluted common share, as compared to $88.7 million, or $0.66 per diluted common share, for the quarter ended September 30, 2007. FFO, as defined by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT), for the third quarter of 2008 was $113.9 million, or $0.81 per diluted common share, as compared to $97.1 million, or $0.73 per diluted common share, for the comparable 2007 period. The Company's net income applicable to common shares for the third quarter of 2008 was $64.7 million, or $0.46 per diluted common share (including income from discontinued operations of $0.6 million), versus $28.0 million, or $0.21 per diluted common share (including income from discontinued operations of $0.8 million), for the comparable period in 2007.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2008, the Company's normalized FFO was $288.2 million, or $2.08 per diluted common share, as compared to $242.9 million, or $2.03 per diluted common share, for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. FFO, as defined by NAREIT, for the first nine months of 2008 was $317.5 million, or $2.29 per diluted common share, as compared to $277.3 million, or $2.32 per diluted common share, for the comparable 2007 period. The Company's net income applicable to common shares for the first nine months of 2008 was $167.8 million, or $1.21 per diluted common share (including income from discontinued operations of $29.7 million), versus $247.7 million, or $2.07 per diluted common share (including income from discontinued operations of $138.0 million), for the comparable period in 2007.

The press release also states that the Company expects its normalized FFO for the year ending December 31, 2008 to be between $2.71 and $2.74 per diluted common share, updated from its previous guidance. The Company expects its net income applicable to common shares for 2008 to be between $1.68 and $1.71 per diluted common share.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Current Report on Form 8-K includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. All statements regarding the Company's and its subsidiaries expected future financial position, results of operations, cash flows, funds from operations, dividends and dividend plans, financing plans, business strategy, budgets, projected costs, capital expenditures, competitive positions, acquisitions, investment opportunities, merger integration, growth opportunities, expected lease income, continued qualification as a real estate investment trust (REIT), plans and objectives of management for future operations and statements that include words such as anticipate, if, believe, plan, estimate, expect, intend, may, could, should, will and others are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain, and security holders must recognize that actual results may differ from the Company's expectations. The Company does not undertake a duty to update these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made.

The Company's actual future results and trends may differ materially depending on a variety of factors discussed in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Factors that may affect the Company's plans or results include without limitation: (a) the ability and willingness of the Company's operators, tenants, borrowers, managers and other third parties, as applicable, to meet and/or perform the obligations under their various contractual arrangements with the Company; (b) the ability and willingness of Kindred Healthcare, Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, Kindred), Brookdale Living Communities, Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, Brookdale) and Alterra Healthcare Corporation (together with its subsidiaries, Alterra) to meet and/or perform their obligations to indemnify, defend and hold the Company harmless from and against various claims, litigation and liabilities under the Company's respective contractual arrangements with Kindred, Brookdale and Alterra; (c) the ability of the Company's operators, tenants, borrowers and managers, as applicable, to maintain the financial strength and liquidity necessary to satisfy their respective obligations and liabilities to third parties, including without limitation obligations under their existing credit facilities; (d) the Company's success in implementing its business strategy and its ability to identify, underwrite, consummate, finance and integrate diversifying acquisitions or investments, including those in different asset types and outside the United States; (e) the nature and extent of future competition; (f) the extent of future or pending healthcare reform and regulation, including cost containment measures and changes in reimbursement policies, procedures and rates; (g) increases in the Company's cost of borrowing; (h) the ability of the Company's operators and managers, as applicable, to deliver high quality services, to attract and retain qualified personnel and to attract residents and patients; (i) the results of litigation affecting the Company; (j) changes in general economic conditions and/or economic conditions in the markets in which the Company may, from time to time, compete; (k) the Company's ability to pay down, refinance, restructure and/or extend its indebtedness as it becomes due; (l) the Company's ability and willingness to maintain its qualification as a REIT due to economic, market, legal, tax or other considerations; (m) final determination of the Company's taxable net income for the year ending December 31, 2008; (n) the ability and willingness of the Company's tenants to renew their leases with the Company upon expiration of the leases and the Company's ability to relet its properties on the same or better terms in the event such leases expire and are not renewed by the existing tenants; (o) risks associated with the Company's seniors housing communities managed by Sunrise Senior Living, Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, Sunrise), including the timely delivery of accurate property-level financial results for the Company's properties; (p) factors causing volatility in the Company's revenues generated by its seniors housing communities managed by Sunrise, including without limitation national and regional economic conditions, costs of materials, energy, labor and services, employee benefit costs and professional and general liability claims; (q) the movement of U.S. and Canadian exchange rates; (r) year-over-year changes in the Consumer Price Index and the effect of those changes on the rent escalators, including the rent escalator for Master Lease 2 with Kindred, and the Company's earnings; (s) the impact on the liquidity, financial condition and results of operations of the Company's operators, tenants, borrowers and managers, as applicable, resulting from increased operating costs and uninsured liabilities for professional liability claims, and the ability of the Company's operators, tenants, borrowers and managers to accurately estimate the magnitude of these liabilities; (t) the ability and willingness of the lenders under the Company's unsecured revolving credit facilities to fund, in whole or in part, borrowing requests made by the Company from time to time; (u) the impact of market or issuer events on the liquidity or value of the Company's investments in marketable securities; and (v) the impact of the Sunrise strategic review process and accounting, legal and regulatory issues. Many of these factors are beyond the Company's control and the control of its management.
