(b) On February 24, 2009, Sara R. Nichols has accepted the position of Vice President, Finance. In this role, Ms. Nichols will be responsible for managing all aspects of Kforce Inc.'s (Kforce) finance operations including strategic financial planning, analysis of operational results and internal reporting to various Kforce executives and its Board of Directors. From August 13, 2007 through February 24, 2009, Ms. Nichols served as Kforce's Chief Accounting Officer and Principal Accounting Officer. For two years prior to assuming her role as Chief Accounting Officer, Ms. Nichols served as the Director of the Business Process Management Department where her team led enterprise-wide process improvement projects and managed the internal control certification process for the company.

(c) On February 24, 2009, Kforce appointed Jeffrey B. Hackman, age 30, as Chief Accounting Officer and Principal Accounting Officer. Mr. Hackman received his Bachelor of Science in Accounting and Masters of Accountancy from the University of South Florida (USF). He is a CPA in the State of Florida and a member of the American Institute of CPAs and Florida Institute of CPAs. His professional affiliations include serving on the Board of Directors of the USF Accounting Circle, which supports the development and growth of the USF School of Accountancy and its students and faculty.

From October 1, 2007 through February 24, 2009, Mr. Hackman served as the SEC Reporting Director of Kforce, where he oversaw all aspects of Kforce's reporting with the Securities and Exchange Commission, assisted in the oversight of Kforce's external audit and certain areas of the financial close as well as other initiatives. Mr. Hackman began his career with Arthur Andersen, LLP in January 2001 where he served as an auditor. Mr. Hackman was employed by Grant Thornton LLP, the U.S. member firm of Grant Thornton International Ltd and one of the six global audit, tax and advisory organizations, as an audit senior manager from September 2002 to September 2007.
