Nomura Announces Nomination of Members for Board of Directors

Tokyo, May 17, 2010 Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that its Board of Directors resolved to submit a proposal to the 106th annual meeting of shareholders to be held on June 25, 2010, for the following twelve nominees, including three new nominees, to be elected to the Board of Directors in accordance with a resolution by the Nomination Committee on May 17, 2010.

As part of the ongoing globalization of its business, Nomura has elected two nominees from outside Japan to ensure its corporate activities are conducted properly and in line with its position as a global investment bank. The two nominees, Lord Colin Marshall and Dame Clara Furse, both have impressive track records of running international businesses and broad managerial experience.

Lord Marshall served as Chairman of British Airways plc from 1993 to 2004 and was made a Knight Bachelor in 1987. He has broad and deep management experience, and his skills and knowledge have been widely acknowledged within Nomura and across a wide range of industries.

Dame Clara was Chief Executive of the London Stock Exchange Group from 2001 to 2009 and was made a Dame Commander of the British Empire in 2008. She has extensive experience in the financial markets, and her achievements and insights are highly regarded around the world.

Nomura has also elected Masanori Nishimatsu as a nominee for the role of Audit Mission Director based on his years of experience in various roles at Nomura Group.
