The exact stock prices and effective dates may not be set forth in the table above, in which case:

if the stock price is between two stock prices in the table or the effective date is between two effective dates in the table, the number of additional shares will be determined by a straight-line interpolation between the number of additional shares set forth for the higher and lower stock prices and the earlier and later effective dates, as applicable, based on a 365-day year;

if the stock price is greater than $30.00 per share (subject to adjustment in the same manner as the stock prices set forth in the column headings of the table above), no additional shares will be added to the Conversion Rate; or if the stock price is less than $8.13 per share (subject to adjustment in the same manner as the stock prices set forth in the column headings of the table above), no additional shares will be added to the Conversion Rate.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the Conversion Rate be increased on account of a make-whole fundamental change to exceed 123.0012 shares of the Issuer's common stock per $1,000 principal amount of Notes, subject to adjustments in the same manner as the Conversion Rate is required to be adjusted as set forth under Description of the Notes Conversion Rights Conversion Rate Adjustments in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth the Issuer's cash and cash equivalents and the Issuer's combined capitalization as of December 31, 2010 (i) on an actual basis and (ii) as adjusted to give effect to the sale of the Notes (assuming no exercise of the underwriters' option to purchase additional notes) and sources and uses of funds described in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement under the heading "Use of Proceeds." You should read the information in this table in conjunction with the Issuer's consolidated financial statements and related notes included in the Issuer's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2010, which is incorporated by reference into the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement.

(1) Short-term borrowings include amounts outstanding under the Issuer's liquidity facility, portions of which will be repaid with the proceeds from the offering. See "Use of Proceeds" in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement.

(2) As adjusted long-term borrowings includes the Notes. For additional accounting information relating to the Notes, please see footnote (3) below.

(3) Amounts shown below reflect the application of ASC 470-20, which requires issuers to separately account for the liability and equity components of convertible debt instruments that may settle in cash

(such as the Notes and the Issuer's existing convertible notes). In accordance with ASC 470, the Issuer estimates that $250.0 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes will be recognized as follows (in thousands):

Liability Component

The equity component associated with the Notes is reflected in the capitalization table as an increase to additional paid-in capital, as adjusted. Additional paid-in capital, as adjusted, has also been (i) reduced by $23.9 million, representing the cost of the convertible note hedge transactions (after such cost is partially offset by the proceeds to the Issuer of the warrant transactions) and (ii) increased by a net $1.6 million impact for deferred taxes.

RANKING

As of December 31, 2010 (without giving effect to this offering or the use of proceeds from this offering), the Issuer's total consolidated indebtedness was $723.7 million, (i) none of which was secured indebtedness, (ii) $14.8 million of which was indebtedness of the Issuer's subsidiaries to third parties, which will be structurally senior in right of payment to the Notes, and (iii) the remainder of which was unsecured, senior indebtedness, including the Issuer's 9.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2038 and amounts outstanding under the Issuer's $1.2 billion unsecured, committed revolving credit facility, which will rank equal in right of payment to the Notes.
