Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

George Paz, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Express Scripts Holding Company (the Company), Jeff Hall, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, and Nicholas J. LaHowchic, director of the Company, each adopted prearranged trading plans under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, on June 1, 2012, June 1, 2012 and May 29, 2012, respectively, for personal financial management purposes. Rule 10b5-1 plans permit insiders to sell fixed portions of their holdings over a designated period of time by establishing the prearranged written plans at a time when they are not aware of material non-public information. Such programs provide for regular selling of a predetermined, fixed number of shares in order to gradually diversify the individual's investment portfolio, minimize the market effect of share sales by spreading them out over an extended period of time and avoid concerns about initiating transactions while in possession of material non-public information.

Mr. Paz's plan provides for (i) the potential exercise of previously granted stock-settled stock appreciation rights (the SARs), and (ii) the potential sale of certain shares of the Company's common stock, including shares to be acquired upon the exercise of the SARs. The total shares of the Company's common stock covered by Mr. Paz's plan represent approximately 17% of his total Company holdings.

Mr. Hall's plan provides for (i) the potential exercise of previously granted stock options, and (ii) the potential sale of certain shares of the Company's common stock, including shares to be acquired upon the exercise of the stock options, vesting of Restricted Stock Units and Performance Shares. The total shares of the Company's common stock covered by Mr. Hall's plan represent approximately 15% of his total Company holdings.

Mr. LaHowchic's plan provides for (i) the potential exercise of previously granted stock options and SARs, and (ii) the potential sale of certain shares of the Company's common stock, including shares to be acquired upon the exercise of the stock options and SARs.

Except as may be required by law, the Company does not undertake to report stock trading plans by other Company officers or directors, nor to report modifications or termination of any publicly-announced plan, including the plans described herein.

On May 31, 2012 and June 1, 2012, Mr. Paz and his spouse also entered into certain transactions involving gifts of the Company's common stock for estate planning purposes, which transactions were reported on a Form 4 Statement of Changes in Beneficial Ownership of Securities. Mr. Paz expects to continue to report the shares involved in these transactions as beneficially owned by him for SEC reporting purposes.
