SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED OCTOBER 22, 2012

PROSPECTUS

Customers Bancorp, Inc.

5,683,060 Shares of Voting Common Stock

2,413,603 Shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock

This prospectus relates to the offer for sale by the shareholders named in this prospectus of up to 5,683,060 shares of our Voting Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share, and 2,413,603 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share. These shareholders are referred to as selling shareholders throughout this prospectus. All references to Customers Bancorp, Customers, the Company, we, us, or our, similar references refer to Customers Bancorp, Inc., and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, except where the context otherwise requires or as otherwise indicated.

All of the shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock offered by this prospectus are being offered by the selling shareholders. We will not receive any proceeds from the sales of shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock by the selling shareholders. We have agreed to pay all fees and expenses incurred by us incident to the registration of the shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, including SEC filing fees. Each selling shareholder will be responsible for all costs and expenses in connection with the sale of its shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, including brokerage commissions or dealer discounts.

It is anticipated that the selling shareholders or their pledgees, assignees or successors-in-interest will sell these shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock from time to time in one or more transactions, in negotiated transactions or otherwise, at prevailing market prices or at prices otherwise negotiated. We do not know when or in what amounts the selling shareholders may offer the shares for sale. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the shares of common stock under this prospectus.

Our Voting Common Stock is currently traded in the over-the-counter market under the symbol CUUU. On October 16, 2012, the last reported sales price for our Voting Common Stock in the over-the-counter market was $14.00 per share. Our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock is not traded on any market. In this prospectus, unless the context otherwise requires, we refer to the shares of our Voting Common Stock and shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock collectively as the shares or the shares of common stock.

Investing in our securities involves substantial risks. You should carefully consider the matters discussed under the section entitled Risk Factors beginning on page 5 of this prospectus.

Customers Bancorp, Inc.

Customers Bancorp was incorporated in Pennsylvania in April 2010 to facilitate a reorganization into a bank holding company structure pursuant to which Customers Bank became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Customers Bancorp (the Reorganization) on September 17, 2011. Pursuant to the Reorganization, all of the issued and outstanding shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock of Customers Bank were exchanged on a three-to-one basis for shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, respectively, of Customers Bancorp (i.e., each three shares of Customers Bank being exchanged for one share of Customers Bancorp). In December 2010, Customers Bank changed its name from New Century Bank. New Century Bank was incorporated in 1994 and is a Pennsylvania state chartered bank and a member of the Federal Reserve System.

Customers Bancorp, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Customers Bank, provides financial products and services to small businesses, not-for-profits and consumers through its fourteen branches in Southeastern Pennsylvania (Bucks, Berks, Chester and Delaware Counties), Rye, New York (Westchester County) and Hamilton, New Jersey (Mercer County). Customers Bank also provides liquidity to the mortgage market nationwide through the operation of its mortgage warehouse business.

Our management team consists of experienced banking executives. The team is led by our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Jay Sidhu, who joined Customers Bank in June 2009. Mr. Sidhu brings 36 years of banking experience, including 17 years as the Chief Executive Officer of Sovereign Bancorp, Inc. and Sovereign Bank and 4 years as Chairman of Sovereign Bancorp, Inc. and Sovereign Bank. In addition to Mr. Sidhu, most of the members of our current management team joined us following Mr. Sidhu's arrival in 2009 and have extensive experience working together at Sovereign with Mr. Sidhu. This team has significant experience in building a banking organization, completing and integrating mergers and acquisitions, as well as developing existing valuable community and business relationships in our core markets.

Our principal executive offices are located at 1015 Penn Avenue, Suite 103, Wyomissing, Pennsylvania, 19610. Our telephone number is (610) 993-2000. Our Internet address is www.customersbank.com. Information on, or accessible through, our web site is not part of this prospectus.

Recent Developments

Subsequent to the September 17, 2011 acquisition date of Berkshire Bank, we received new information about the facts and circumstances surrounding other real estate owned (OREO) properties and a specific customer's loans acquired from Berkshire Bank. The acquisition method of accounting for business combinations under FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 805, Business Combinations (formerly FASB Statements No. 141(R)) requires us to use significant estimates and assumptions, including fair value estimates, as of the business combination date and to refine those estimates as necessary during the measurement period. We expect to adjust our acquisition date information during the third quarter of 2012 and will recognize these measurement period adjustments retrospectively to comparative information in our financial statements.

We elected the fair value option for warehouse lending transactions documented under a Master Repurchase Agreement originated after July 1, 2012 in order to more accurately represent the short term nature of the transaction and its inherent credit risk. This adoption is in accordance with the parameters established by FASB Statement No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities (ASC 825-10-25). As a result of this election, future warehouse lending transactions will be classified as Loans held for sale on the balance sheet. The interest income from the warehouse lending transactions will be classified as Interest income - Other, instead of Interest income - Loans receivable on the income statement. As Loans Receivable, the warehouse lending transactions were accounted for on an amortized cost basis less an allowance for loan losses. An allowance for loan losses is not recorded for the warehouse lending transactions measured at fair value since under ASC 825, the exit price (the repurchase price) for warehouse lending transactions considers the effect of expected credit losses. The impact of this election on our financial statements is not material.

In accordance with the guidance in ASC 310-30, Receivables - Loans and Debt Securities Acquired with Deteriorated Credit Quality (formerly SOP 03-3, Accounting for Certain Loans and Debt Securities, Acquired in a Transfer), interest income is based on an acquired loan's expected cash flows. Acquired loans are generally assessed to be within the scope of ASC 310-30 if: (1) the asset shows evidence of having deteriorated in credit quality since it was originated, and (2) it is probable that the acquirer will be unable to collect all contractually required payments receivable. Complex models are needed to calculate loan-level and/or pool-level expected cash flows in accordance with ASC 310-30. To model and process the expected cash flows for the purchased credit-impaired loans we hired a third party enterprise software company. The loan data analysis provided by the enterprise software company is a more precise quantification of future cash flows than the previous analysis that was manually calculated by Customers Bank. Conversion to the enterprise software company's system ended in September 2012, and as a result, we expect estimates of cash flows from purchased credit-impaired loans to be revised. The revisions will be accounted for prospectively as a change in accounting estimate in the third quarter of 2012.

The Offering

Voting Common Stock offered by selling shareholders 5,683,060 shares

Voting Common Stock outstanding as of September 30, 2012 13,767,605 shares⁽¹⁾

Class B Non-Voting Common Stock offered by selling 2,413,603 shares shareholders

Class B Non-Voting Common Stock outstanding as of September 30, 2012 4,691,897 shares⁽¹⁾

Use of Proceeds We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the shares of common stock under this prospectus.

Rights of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock The Voting Common Stock possesses all of the voting power for all matters requiring action by holders of our common stock, with certain limited exceptions. Our articles of incorporation provide that, except with respect to voting rights, the Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock are treated equally.

Regulatory ownership restrictions We are a bank holding company. A holder of shares of Voting Common Stock (or group of holders acting in concert) that (a) directly or indirectly owns, controls or has the power to vote more than 5% of the total voting power of the Company, (b) directly or indirectly owns, controls or has the power to vote 10% or more of any class of voting securities of the Company, (c) directly or indirectly owns, controls or has the power to vote 25% or more of the total equity of the Company, or (d) is otherwise deemed to control the Company under applicable regulatory standards, may be subject to important restrictions, such as prior regulatory notice or approval requirements and applicable provisions of the FDIC Statement of Policy on Qualifications for Failed Bank Acquisitions.

Dividend Policy We have never paid cash dividends to holders of our common stock. We do not expect to declare or pay dividends on our common stock in the foreseeable future.

Risk Factors

See Risk Factors and other information included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus for a discussion of certain factors that you should carefully consider before investing in our securities.

- (1) Unless otherwise indicated, information contained in this prospectus regarding the number of shares of our Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock outstanding as of September 30, 2012 does not include (i) shares underlying awards issuable under our Bonus Recognition and Retention Program (which does not provide for a specific number of shares to be reserved; by its terms, the award of restricted stock units under this plan is limited by the amount of the cash bonuses paid to the participants in the plan) and (ii) an aggregate of up to 4,345,545 shares of Voting Common Stock and 241,920 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock as of September 30, 2012, which includes:

552,012 shares of Voting Common Stock underlying restricted stock units awarded but not yet vested under the Amended and Restated 2004 Incentive Equity and Deferred Compensation Plan, as amended (the 2004 Plan);

Table of Contents

589,005 shares of Voting Common Stock and 81,036 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock issuable upon exercise of outstanding warrants with exercise prices from $10.50 to $73.01 per share of which all were vested as of September 30, 2012;

1,058,528 shares of Voting Common Stock and 160,884 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock issuable upon exercise of outstanding stock options under our 2010 Stock Option Plan (the 2010 Stock Option Plan) and 2004 Plan with a weighted average exercise price of $11.16 per share, of which 6,272 shares were vested as of September 30, 2012;

2,125,236 shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock reserved for future issuance under the 2004 Plan and 2010 Stock Option Plan (excluding (i) the 1,771,424 shares issuable upon exercise of outstanding stock options and vesting of restricted stock units as noted above and (ii) the 15% limitation currently in place on the number of shares that can be awarded under the 2010 Stock Option Plan at any point in time); and 20,764 shares of Voting Common Stock issuable to directors as compensation for service as a director.

Note: For purposes of calculating the 4,345,545 shares of Voting Common Stock and 241,920 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock disclosed above, it is assumed that all of the 2,125,236 shares reserved for future issuance under the 2004 Plan and 2010 Stock Option Plan are shares of Voting Common Stock.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our securities involves significant risks. Before making an investment decision, you should carefully consider the risks and other information we include or incorporate by reference in this prospectus and any prospectus supplement. In particular, you should consider the following risk factors and the risk factors set forth under the heading "Risk Factors" in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and in each subsequently filed Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, which are incorporated by reference in this prospectus, in each case as those risk factors are amended or supplemented by our subsequent filings with the SEC. If any of these risks actually occur, they may materially harm our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations and, as a result, the market price of our securities could decline and you could lose part or all of your investment. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also affect our business operations.

Risks Related to this Offering

The number of shares of our common stock outstanding has increased substantially as a result of our recent sales of shares in private placements. The shares that we issued in these private placements will be generally available for resale in the public market upon the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. However, the trading market for our Voting Common Stock is limited and may continue to be limited for the foreseeable future.

We have recently completed sales of an aggregate of 5,264,060 shares of our Voting Common Stock and 1,847,755 shares of our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock. The issuance of these shares substantially increased the number of shares of our issued and outstanding Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock. Pursuant to our agreements with the purchasers in these private placements, we agreed to file with the SEC the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part to register the resale of the shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock we issued and sold in the private placements. Upon such registration, these securities will become generally available for immediate resale in the public market. The market price of our Voting Common Stock could fall as a result of an increase in the number of shares available for sale in the public market.

Additionally, our Voting Common Stock is not listed on any stock exchange, and there is currently only a limited trading market on the over-the-counter market for our Voting Common Stock. There can be no assurance that our Voting Common Stock will be listed on a stock exchange. We cannot predict the extent to which investor interest will lead to a more active trading market in our Voting Common Stock or how liquid that market might become. To the extent that we do not list our Voting Common Stock on a stock exchange, a public trading market having the desired characteristics of depth, liquidity and orderliness will be dependent upon the presence in the marketplace of willing buyers and sellers of our Voting Common Stock, which presence will rely on the individual decisions of investors, over which we have no control.

We may issue additional shares of Voting Common Stock, Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, preferred stock or equity, debt or derivative securities, which could adversely affect the value or voting power of your shares of common stock.

We are able to offer shares of Voting Common Stock, Class B Non-Voting Common Stock or preferred stock by action of our board of directors without further shareholder approval. In addition, our board of directors has authority to issue senior and subordinated debt without further shareholder approval.

As of September 30, 2012, there were options outstanding to purchase 1,058,528 shares of our Voting Common Stock and 160,884 shares of our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, and restricted stock units awarded but not yet vested related to 552,012 unissued shares of our Voting Common Stock. As of September 30, 2012, there were also outstanding warrants for the purchase of an aggregate of 589,005 shares of our Voting Common Stock and 81,036 shares of our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock.

Table of Contents

We have also entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 20, 2012, with Acacia Life Insurance Company and Ameritas Life Insurance Corp., pursuant to which we will acquire all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Acacia Federal Savings Bank for a total purchase price of $65 million to be paid in Voting Common Stock (resulting in a 9.9% voting ownership interest in the Company), Class B Non-Voting Common Stock (resulting in up to a 19.9% total common ownership interest (voting and non-voting, taking into account outstanding securities convertible into common stock) in the Company), and Perpetual Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series C of the Company (with an aggregate liquidation value of $65 million minus the value of the Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock to be issued in the acquisition). We refer to this acquisition as the Acacia Transaction. The consummation of the Acacia Transaction is contingent upon a number of conditions including, but not limited to, receipt of various regulatory approvals.

Additionally, on August 10, 2012, we entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with CMS Bancorp, Inc. pursuant to which we will acquire all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of CMS Bank in exchange for Voting Common Stock of the Company at an exchange ratio to be determined prior to closing. We refer to this acquisition as the CMS Transaction. The amount of Voting Common Stock that we anticipate issuing in connection with the CMS Transaction is currently valued at approximately $20.8 million. The consummation of the CMS Transaction is contingent upon a number of conditions including, but not limited to, receipt of various regulatory approvals.

In addition to the securities that we expect to issue in the Acacia and CMS Transactions and upon the vesting of restricted stock units and exercise of the outstanding stock options and warrants, we may also issue shares in future offerings, acquisitions or other transactions, or may engage in recapitalizations or similar transactions in the future, the result of which could cause shareholders to suffer further dilution in book value, market value or voting rights. Our board of directors has authority to engage in some of these transactions particularly additional share offerings or issuances without shareholder approval. If our board decides to approve transactions that result in dilution, the value and voting power of shares of Voting Common Stock or Class B Non-Voting Common Stock issued could decrease.

There is no trading market for our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock and we cannot assure you that any active trading market will develop. If an active trading market for our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock does not develop, securityholders may be unable to sell shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock or to sell any such shares at prices they deem sufficient.

There currently is no trading market for our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock and it is unlikely that an active trading market will develop, or, if one should develop, that it will be maintained. We do not anticipate listing shares of our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock on any securities exchange and we are under no obligation to do so. Potential purchasers of shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock should consider carefully the limited liquidity of such shares. If an active trading market does not develop or is not maintained, the value and liquidity of the Class B Non-Voting Common Stock may be adversely affected.

If we do not obtain and maintain effectiveness of the registration statement, we will be required to pay certain liquidated damages, which could be material in amount.

In connection with certain of our obligations to register the resale of the shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, we have agreed to pay liquidated damages to certain of the purchasers in the private placements if (a) the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part is not declared effective within 120 days after September 20, 2012, if the SEC does not review the registration statement, (b) the registration statement is not declared effective within 150 days after September 20, 2012, if the SEC reviews the registration statement, (c) the registration statement is not declared effective within five trading days following the date on which we are notified by the SEC staff that the registration statement will not be reviewed or will not be subject to further review or (d) after effectiveness of the registration statement and subject to certain specified exceptions, we suspend the use of the registration statement or the registration statement ceases to remain continuously effective as to the securities with respect to which it is required to be effective (each of these events we refer to as a registration default). Subject to the specified exceptions, for each 30-day period or portion thereof during which a registration default remains uncured, we are obligated to pay to each purchaser who participated in our September 20, 2012 private placement liquidated damages in a cash amount equal to 1% of the aggregate purchase price paid by each such purchaser. These amounts could be material, and any liquidated damages we are required to pay could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition.

Our ability to integrate currently contemplated and future acquisition targets may be unsuccessful, or may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; and Material differences in the actual financial results of merger and acquisition activities compared with expectations. These forward-looking statements are subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control. Although the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are currently believed to be reasonable, future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements cannot be guaranteed. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that actual results will meet expectations or will not be materially lower than the results contemplated in this document and the attachments hereto. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this document or, in the case of documents referred to, the dates of those documents.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares of common stock by the selling shareholders.

We will pay all expenses of the registration of the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus, including, without limitation, all SEC filing fees, fees and expenses relating to compliance with state securities or blue sky laws and fees and expenses of our counsel and our independent registered public accounting firm. The selling shareholders will pay all underwriting discounts and selling commissions, if any, and any related legal expenses incurred by them in connection with the sale of the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

On September 20, 2012 we completed a private placement in which we sold and issued an aggregate of 4,223,674 shares of our Voting Common Stock and 1,847,755 shares of our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock to certain investors pursuant to a stock purchase agreement we refer to as the September 2012 Stock Purchase Agreement. During July and August, 2012, we completed sales and issuances of an aggregate of 1,040,386 shares of our Voting Common Stock to certain investors in private placements pursuant to stock purchase agreements we refer to as the August 2012 Stock Purchase Agreements. On September 30, 2011, we completed a private placement in which we sold and issued 419,000 shares of our Voting Common Stock and 565,848 shares of our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock to one investor pursuant to a stock purchase agreement we refer to as the September 2011 Stock Purchase Agreement.

Under the September 2012 Stock Purchase Agreement (and a related registration rights agreement), the August 2012 Stock Purchase Agreements and the September 2011 Stock Purchase Agreement, we agreed to register for resale the registrable securities of the investors in those private placements. We are registering the shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock in order to permit the selling shareholders and their pledgees, donees, transferees and other successors-in-interest that receive the shares after the date of this prospectus to resell or otherwise dispose of the shares in the manner contemplated under the caption Plan of Distribution below. Except as otherwise disclosed in the footnotes to the table below with respect to any selling shareholder, none of the selling shareholders has, or within the past three years has had, any position, office or other material relationship with us.

The table below sets forth the name of each selling shareholder and certain additional information regarding the ownership of each selling shareholder, including the number of shares beneficially owned by each of the respective selling shareholders, the number of shares that may be offered under this prospectus and the number of shares beneficially owned by the selling shareholders assuming all of the shares covered by this prospectus are sold. Certain of the selling shareholders are the beneficial owners of both Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC, and includes voting or investment power with respect to the shares identified. Generally, a person beneficially owns shares if the person has or shares with others the right to vote those shares or to dispose of them, or if the person has the right to acquire voting or disposition rights within 60 days. The percentages in the table are based on 13,767,605 shares of our Voting Common Stock and 4,691,897 shares of our Class B Non-Voting Common Stock being outstanding as of September 30, 2012. Shares of common stock subject to outstanding options, warrants or other rights to acquire shares that are exercisable within 60 days of September 30, 2012 are deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of ownership of the person holding such options, warrants or other rights to acquire shares, but are not deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of any other person.

We do not know when or in what amounts the selling shareholders may offer shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock for sale. The selling shareholders might not sell any or all of the shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock offered by this prospectus. Because the selling shareholders may offer all or some of the shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock pursuant to this offering and because there are currently no agreements or understandings with respect to the sale of any of those shares, we cannot estimate the number of shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock that will be held by the selling shareholders after completion of this offering. However, for purposes of this table, we have assumed that, after completion of this offering, none of the shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock covered by this prospectus will be held by the selling shareholders.

DESCRIPTION OF VOTING COMMON STOCK AND CLASS B NON-VOTING COMMON STOCK

The following description of our Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock is a summary. This summary is not complete and is subject to the complete text of our articles of incorporation, as amended, and bylaws, copies of which are incorporated by reference as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. We encourage you to read those documents carefully.

General

We are authorized to issue up to an aggregate amount of 300,000,000 shares of stock, which is divided into three equal classes: (i) 100,000,000 shares of Voting Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share, (ii) 100,000,000 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share and (iii) 100,000,000 shares of preferred stock. Our board of directors has the authority to establish and divide the authorized and unissued shares of Voting Common Stock and of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock into series or classes and to fix and determine, to the extent not already determined in our articles of incorporation, the designations, preferences, and other special rights, including conversion rights, and the qualifications, limitations, or restrictions on those rights attributable to the shares in a series or class. As of September 30, 2012, there are 13,767,605 shares of Voting Common Stock and 4,691,897 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock issued and outstanding.

Our board of directors also has the authority to establish and divide the authorized and unissued shares of preferred stock into series or classes or both and to determine whether or not shares in any series or class of preferred stock have par value and, if so, the par value, whether or not the shares in a series or class have voting rights and if so whether those voting rights are full, limited, multiple or fractional, and for each series or class of preferred stock, the designations, preferences, and other special rights, if any, including dividend rights, conversion rights, redemption rights and liquidation preferences, if any, and the qualifications, limitations, or restriction on those rights, and the number of shares of each series or class. There are no shares of preferred stock currently outstanding.

Our board of directors previously created two series of preferred stock, Fixed Rate Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A (the Series A Preferred) and Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series B (the Series B Preferred). All of the shares designated as Series A Preferred and all of the shares designated as Series B Preferred in their respective Certificates of Designations were issued on September 17, 2011 and all of these shares of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred were subsequently repurchased by us on December 28, 2011 and are no longer outstanding. The shares of Series A Preferred and Series B Preferred have been canceled, and the authorized number of shares of each series have reverted to authorized but unissued shares of preferred stock and may be issued as part of any series of preferred stock hereafter designated by the board of directors. Additionally, in connection with the consummation of the Acacia Transaction, which remains subject to a number of conditions including receipt of various regulatory approvals, the Company has agreed to designate a new series of preferred stock as Perpetual Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series C (the Series C Preferred). The Series C Preferred will have certain dividend and liquidation preferences, will be non-voting except in certain limited circumstances and as otherwise required by law, will be subject to optional redemption, and will not be subject to any preemptive rights.

Our board of directors, in its sole discretion, has authority to sell any treasury stock and/or unissued securities, options, warrants, or other rights to purchase any of our securities, upon such terms as it deems advisable. Our board of directors could issue preferred stock, or additional shares of Voting Common Stock or Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, with terms different from those of our existing common stock, at any time.

Voting rights

The holders of shares of Voting Common Stock have the right to elect our board of directors and to act on such other matters as are required to be presented to them. Each holder of Voting Common Stock is entitled to one vote per share. The holders of Voting Common Stock do not have the right to vote their shares cumulatively in the election of directors. This means that, for each director position to be elected, a shareholder may only cast a number of votes equal to the number of shares held by the shareholder.

Any action that would significantly and adversely affect the rights of the Class B Non-Voting Common Stock with respect to the modification of the terms of those securities or dissolution requires the approval of the holders of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock voting separately as a class. Otherwise, the holders of the Class B Non-Voting Common Stock have no voting power, and do not have the right to participate in or have notice of any meeting of shareholders.

Because our articles of incorporation permit the board of directors to set the voting rights of preferred stock, it is possible that holders of one or more series of preferred stock issued in the future could have voting rights of any sort, which could limit the effect of the voting rights of holders of Voting Common Stock.

Dividend rights

The holders of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock are entitled to receive an equal amount of dividends per share if, as and when declared from time to time by our board of directors. In no event shall any stock dividends or stock splits or combinations of stock be declared or made on Voting Common Stock or Class B Non-Voting Common Stock unless the shares of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock at the time outstanding are treated equally and identically, provided that, in the event of a dividend of common stock, shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock shall only be entitled to receive shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock and shares of Voting Common Stock shall only be entitled to receive shares of Voting Common Stock.

Because our articles of incorporation permit our board of directors to set the dividend rights of preferred shares, it is possible that holders of one or more series of preferred shares issued in the future could have dividend rights that differ from those of the holders of Voting Common Stock or Class B Non-Voting Common Stock, or could have no right to the payment of dividends. If the holders of a class or series of preferred stock is given dividend rights, the right of holders of preferred shares to receive dividends could have priority over the right of holders of Voting Common Stock or Class B Non-Voting Common Stock to receive dividends.

Authority Under Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law. Our board of directors has the authority to declare dividends on its common and preferred stock, subject to statutory and regulatory requirements. Pennsylvania law permits a business corporation such as us to pay dividends if, after giving effect to the dividend, it is able to pay its debts as they come due in the usual course of business, and its assets exceed its liabilities plus any amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the dividend, to satisfy any preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights rank higher than the rights of the shareholders receiving the dividend. However, our ability to pay dividends will be restricted by banking laws and Customers Bank's ability to pay dividends to Customers Bancorp.

Federal Bank Holding Company Act Policies Applicable to Cash Dividends. The Federal Reserve Board, which is the federal banking regulator, considers adequate capital to be critical to the health of individual banking organizations and to the safety and stability of the banking system. A major determinant of a bank's or bank holding company's capital adequacy is the strength of its earnings and the extent to which its earnings are retained and added to capital or paid out to shareholders in the form of cash dividends.

The Federal Reserve Board believes that a bank or bank holding company generally should not maintain its existing rate of cash dividends on Voting Common Stock unless (1) the organization's net income available to common shareholders over the past year has been sufficient to fully fund the dividends and (2) the prospective rate of earnings retention appears consistent with the organization's capital needs, asset quality, and overall financial condition. The Federal Reserve may strongly encourage, or require, a banking organization whose cash dividends are inconsistent with either of these criteria to cut or eliminate its dividends.

The Federal Reserve Board also believes it is inappropriate for a banking organization that is experiencing serious financial problems or that has inadequate capital to borrow in order to pay dividends since this can result in increased leverage at the very time the organization needs to reduce its debt or increase its capital. Similarly, the payment of dividends based solely or largely upon gains resulting from unusual or nonrecurring events, such as the sale of the organization's building or the disposition of other assets, may not be prudent or warranted, especially if the funds derived from such transactions could be better employed to strengthen the organization's financial resources. Furthermore, a fundamental principle underlying the Federal Reserve's supervision and regulation of bank holding companies is that bank holding companies should serve as a source of managerial and financial strength to their subsidiary banks. The Federal Reserve believes, therefore, that a bank holding company should not maintain a level of cash dividends to its shareholders that places undue pressure on the capital of bank subsidiaries, or that can be funded only through additional borrowings or other arrangements that may undermine the bank holding company's ability to serve as a source of strength. Thus, for example, if a major subsidiary bank is unable to pay dividends to its parent company as a consequence of statutory limitations, intervention by the primary supervisor, or noncompliance with regulatory capital requirements the Federal Reserve may encourage or require a bank holding company to reduce or eliminate its dividends in order to conserve its capital base and provide capital assistance to the subsidiary bank.

The Federal Reserve Board has further stated that a bank holding company should pay cash dividends only out of income over the past year and only if prospective earnings retention is consistent with the organization's expected future needs and financial condition, and only if, after paying the dividend, the bank holding company is not in danger of falling below its required regulatory capital adequacy ratios. It has also indicated that a small bank holding company, such as Customers Bancorp, is not expected to pay corporate dividends until such time as its debt to equity ratio (determined separately and not on a consolidated basis with its bank subsidiary) is 1:1 or less and its bank subsidiaries are otherwise well-managed, well-capitalized, and not under any supervisory order.

Pennsylvania Banking Code Requirements Applicable to Cash Dividends. Because Customers Bank is currently and for the foreseeable future, the primary source of cash for payment of dividends by Customers Bancorp, requirements of the Pennsylvania Banking Code setting conditions on payments of dividends by banks will constrain Customers Bank's ability to provide funds to us to pay dividends to our shareholders. The Pennsylvania Banking Code permits a bank to pay cash dividends only out of accumulated net earnings. Furthermore, if any transfer of net earnings to surplus is required by the Pennsylvania Banking Code to cause our surplus to meet minimum statutory requirements at the time the dividend is to be declared or paid, the transfer must be made prior to the declaration of the dividend, and our surplus cannot be reduced by the payment of the dividend.

For the foregoing reasons, and because a decision by our board of directors to declare and pay cash dividends will depend upon the future financial performance and condition of Customers Bank and Customers Bancorp, no assurances can be given that any dividends will in fact be paid on any class of stock, or that, if dividends are paid, they will not be reduced or discontinued in the future.

Dividend Policy. The Company has been and intends to continue following a policy of retaining earnings, if any, to increase our net worth and reserves over the next few years. As discussed above, we have not historically declared or paid dividends on our Voting Common Stock, and we do not expect to do so in the near future. Any future determination relating to our dividend policy will be made at the discretion of our board of directors and will depend on a number of factors, including our earnings and financial condition, liquidity and capital requirements, the general economic and regulatory climate, our ability to service any equity or debt obligations senior our Voting Common Stock, and other factors deemed relevant by our board of directors.

Redemption, Preemptive Rights and Repurchase Provisions

Our Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock have no preemptive rights or redemption or repurchase provisions. The shares are non-assessable and require no sinking fund. Voting

Table of Contents

Common Stock repurchases are subject to Federal Reserve Board regulations and policy, which generally require that no more than ten percent of the outstanding shares of a bank holding company's Voting Common Stock may be repurchased in any 12-month period unless the bank holding company is deemed well-managed and well-capitalized under applicable regulations. Repurchases of our stock will also be constrained by federal and state bank regulatory capital requirements. Repurchases of stock by bank holding companies may also be subject to prior notice to and approval by the Federal Reserve in some cases.

Liquidation Rights

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Customers Bancorp, the holders of Voting Common Stock and Class B Non-Voting Common Stock will be entitled to share ratably in all of our assets remaining after payment of all liabilities, subject, however, to any preferential liquidation rights of holders of any preferred stock outstanding at that time. If our only asset is our ownership of Customers Bank, it is likely that, if Customers Bank is then in liquidation or receivership, our shareholders will not receive anything on account of their shares.

Potential Anti-Takeover Effect of Governing Documents and Applicable Law

Provisions of Governing Documents. Our articles of incorporation and bylaws contain certain provisions which may have the effect of deterring or discouraging, among other things, a non-negotiated tender or exchange offer for our Voting Common Stock, a proxy contest for control of the company, the assumption of control of the company by a holder of a large block of Voting Common Stock or the removal of our board of directors. These provisions:

Empower our board of directors, without shareholder approval, to issue preferred stock, the terms of which, including voting power, are set by our board of directors;

Divide our board of directors into three classes serving staggered three-year terms;

Restrict the ability of shareholders to remove directors;

Require that shares with at least 80% of total voting power approve mergers and other similar transactions with a person or entity holding stock with more than 5% of our voting power, if a reorganization is not approved, in advance, by two-thirds of the members of our board of directors;

Prohibit action by the shareholders without a shareholder meeting;

Require that shares representing at least 80% of total voting power approve the repeal or amendment of certain provisions of our articles of incorporation;

Require any person who acquires our stock with voting power of 25% or more to offer to purchase for cash all remaining shares of our voting stock at the highest price paid by such person for shares of our voting stock during the preceding year;

Eliminate cumulative voting in elections of directors;

Require that shares representing at least two-thirds of the total voting power approve any amendment to or repeal of our bylaws;

Edgar Filing: Customers Bancorp, Inc. - Form S-3

Require that our board of directors give due consideration to the effect of a proposed transaction on the depositors, employees, suppliers, customers and other of our and our subsidiaries constituents and on the communities in which we and they operate or are located, and to the business reputation of the other party and our value in a freely negotiated sale and of our future prospects as an independent entity;

Require advance notice of nominations for the election of directors and the presentation of shareholder proposals at meetings of shareholders; and

Provide that officers, directors, employees, agents and persons who own 5% or more of the voting securities of any other corporation or other entity that owns 66 2/3% or more of our outstanding voting stock cannot constitute a majority of the members of our board of directors.

Provisions of Applicable Law. The Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law also contains certain provisions applicable to Customers Bancorp which may have the effect of impeding a change in control of Customers Bancorp. These provisions, among other things, prohibit (under Subchapter 25F) for five years, subject to certain exceptions, a business combination, which includes a merger or consolidation of the corporation or a sale, lease or exchange of assets with a shareholder or group of shareholders beneficially owning 20% or more of the corporation's voting power in an election of directors.

In 1990, Pennsylvania adopted legislation amending the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law. The 1990 amendments:

Expand the factors and groups (including shareholders) which a corporation's board of directors can consider in determining whether a certain action is in the best interests of the corporation;

Provide that a corporation's board of directors need not consider the interests of any particular group as dominant or controlling;

Provide that a corporation's directors, in order to satisfy the presumption that they have acted in the best interests of the corporation, need not satisfy any greater obligation or higher burden of proof for actions relating to an acquisition or potential acquisition of control;

Provide that actions relating to acquisitions of control that are approved by a majority of disinterested directors are presumed to satisfy the directors' standard of care, unless it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the directors did not assent to such action in good faith after reasonable investigation; and

Provide that the fiduciary duty of a corporation's directors is solely to the corporation and may be enforced by the corporation or by a shareholder in a derivative action, but not by a shareholder directly.

The 1990 amendments provide that the fiduciary duty of directors does not require directors to:

Redeem any rights under, or to modify or render inapplicable, any shareholder rights plan;

Render inapplicable, or make determinations under, provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, relating to control transactions, business combinations, control-share acquisitions or disgorgement by certain controlling shareholders following attempts to acquire control; or Take action as the board of directors, a committee of the board or an individual director solely because of the effect such action might have on an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control of Customers Bancorp or the consideration that might be offered or paid to shareholders in such an acquisition.

One of the effects of the 1990 amendments may be to make it more difficult for a shareholder to successfully challenge the actions of our board of directors in a potential change in control context. Pennsylvania case law appears to provide that the fiduciary duty standard under the 1990 amendments grants directors the statutory authority to reject or refuse to consider any potential or proposed acquisition of the company.

Pursuant to provisions of our articles of incorporation, and in accordance with Pennsylvania law, we have opted out of coverage by the disgorgement, control transactions, control-share acquisitions, severance compensation, and labor contracts statutes included in the 1990 amendments. As a result of our opting-out from coverage by these statutes, none of the disgorgement, control transactions, control-share acquisitions, severance compensation, nor labor contracts statutes would apply to a non-negotiated attempt to acquire control of us, although such an attempt would still be subject to the special provisions of our governing documents.

Table of Contents

The overall effect of these provisions may be to deter a future offer or other merger or acquisition proposal that a majority of the shareholders might view to be in their best interests as the offer might include a substantial premium over the market price of our Voting Common Stock at that time. In addition, these provisions may have the effect of assisting our management and board of directors in retaining their positions and placing them in a better position to resist changes that the shareholders may want to make if dissatisfied with the conduct of our business.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the shares of common stock, including the shares of Voting Common Stock and Series B Non-Voting Common Stock issued to the selling shareholders to permit the resale of these shares by the holders of the common stock from time to time after the date of this prospectus. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale by the selling shareholders of the shares of common stock. We will bear all fees and expenses incident to our obligation to register the shares of common stock.

The selling shareholders may sell all or a portion of the shares of common stock beneficially owned by them and offered hereby from time to time directly or through one or more underwriters, broker-dealers or agents. If the shares of common stock are sold through underwriters or broker-dealers, the selling shareholders will be responsible for underwriting discounts or commissions or agent's commissions. The shares of common stock may be sold on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the securities may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, in the over-the-counter market or in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or systems or in the over-the-counter market and in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of the sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices. These sales may be effected in transactions, which may involve crosses or block transactions. The selling shareholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

settlement of short sales entered into after the effective date of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part;

broker-dealers may agree with the selling shareholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether such options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;

a combination of any such methods of sale; and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling shareholders also may resell all or a portion of the shares in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as permitted by that rule, or Section 4(1) under the Securities Act, if available, rather than under this prospectus, provided that they meet the criteria and conform to the requirements of those provisions.

Edgar Filing: Customers Bancorp, Inc. - Form S-3

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling shareholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in sales. If the selling shareholders effect such transactions by selling shares of common stock to or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholders or commissions from purchasers of the shares of common stock for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal. Such commissions will be in amounts to be negotiated, but, except as set forth in a supplement to this prospectus, in the case of an agency transaction will not be in excess of a customary brokerage commission in compliance with NASD Rule 2440; and in the case of a principal transaction a markup or markdown in compliance with NASD IM-2440.

In connection with sales of the shares of common stock or otherwise, the selling shareholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the shares of common stock in the course of hedging in positions they assume. The selling shareholders may also sell common stock short and if such short sale shall take place after the date that this registration statement is declared effective by the SEC, the selling shareholders may deliver shares of common stock covered by this prospectus to close out short positions and to return borrowed shares in connection with such short sales. The selling shareholders may also loan or pledge shares of common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell such shares, to the extent permitted by applicable law. The selling shareholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or the creation of one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the selling shareholders have been advised that they may not use shares registered on this registration statement to cover short sales of our common stock made prior to the date the registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part, has been declared effective by the SEC.

The selling shareholders may, from time to time, pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of common stock owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the common stock from time to time pursuant to this prospectus or any amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act, amending, if necessary, the list of selling shareholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling shareholders under this prospectus. The selling shareholders also may transfer and donate the shares of common stock in other circumstances in which case the transferees, donees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

The selling shareholders and any broker-dealer or agents participating in the distribution of the shares of common stock may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions paid, or any discounts or concessions allowed to, any such broker-dealer or agent and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. Selling shareholders who are underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the applicable prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act and may be subject to certain statutory liabilities of, including but not limited to, Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 under the Exchange Act.

Each selling shareholder has informed us that it is not a registered broker-dealer and does not have any written or oral agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the shares of common stock. Upon our being notified in writing by a selling shareholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of shares of common stock through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed, if required, pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act, disclosing (i) the name of each such selling shareholder and of the participating broker-dealer(s), (ii) the number of shares involved, (iii) the price at which such shares of common stock were sold, (iv) the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealer(s), where applicable, (v) that such broker-dealer(s) did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, and (vi) other facts material to the transaction. In no event shall any broker-dealer receive fees, commissions and markups, which, in the aggregate, would exceed eight percent (8%).

Under the securities laws of some states, the shares of common stock may be sold in such states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the shares of common stock may not be sold unless such shares have been registered or qualified for sale in such state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is complied with.

There can be no assurance that any selling shareholder will sell any or all of the shares of common stock registered pursuant to this registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part.

Each selling shareholder and any other person participating in such distribution will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including, without limitation, to the extent applicable, Regulation M of the Exchange Act, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares of common stock by the selling shareholder and any other participating person. To the extent applicable, Regulation M may also restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the shares of common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to the common stock. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the common stock.

We will pay all expenses of the registration of the shares of common stock pursuant to the registration rights agreements between us and certain purchasers of our securities, including, without limitation, SEC filing fees and expenses of compliance with state securities or blue sky laws; provided, however, that each selling shareholder will pay all underwriting discounts and selling commissions, if any and any related legal expenses incurred by it. We will indemnify the selling shareholders against certain liabilities, including some liabilities under the Securities Act, in accordance with the registration rights agreement, or the selling shareholders will be entitled to contribution. We may be indemnified by the selling shareholders against civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, that may arise from any written information furnished to us by the selling shareholders specifically for use in this prospectus, in accordance with the related registration rights agreements, or we may be entitled to contribution.

ITEM 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Subchapter D of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law (PBCL) provides for indemnification of, and insurance for any person who is or was a representative of Customers Bancorp and specifically empowers us to indemnify, subject to the standards therein prescribed, any person who is or was a representative of Customers Bancorp in connection with any action, suit or proceeding brought or threatened by reason of the fact that he is or was a representative of Customers Bancorp. Article 8.02 of Customers Bancorp's Bylaws requires us to indemnify each of our directors and officers in such capacity in which any such director or officer acts for or on behalf of Customers Bancorp including as an employee or agent.

Article Eight of our bylaws limits the personal liability of directors for monetary damages and provides for indemnification of officers and directors, as described below. These provisions may not be amended to increase the directors' exposure to liability or to decrease the indemnification to directors, officers or others except by the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the entire board of directors or 80% of the votes which all shareholders are entitled to cast.

Section 8.01 provides that, to the fullest extent permitted under Subchapter B of Chapter 17 of the PBCL, our directors shall not be personally liable to us or our shareholders or others for monetary damages for any action taken or any failure to take any action unless the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of his or her office and such breach or failure constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. This section does not apply to the responsibility or liability of such director under any criminal statute or with respect to the payment of taxes pursuant to local, state or federal law.

Section 8.02(a) requires Customers Bancorp to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact such person was a director or officer of Customers Bancorp or its bank subsidiaries, or any other direct or indirect subsidiary of Customers Bancorp, or is or was serving at the request of Customers Bancorp as a director or officer of another corporation or entity, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Table of Contents

Section 8.02(b) requires us to pay the expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding in advance of the final disposition of any action, suit or proceeding upon the receipt of (i) an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized under the bylaws and (ii) if requested at the discretion of the board of directors, adequate security or a bond to cover such amounts for which it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to such indemnity.

Section 8.02(c) provides that the right to indemnification and advancement of expenses is not exclusive of any other right to which such persons seeking indemnification and advancement of expenses may be entitled under any agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

Section 8.02(d) provides that we may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person, may enter into contracts of indemnification with any person and may create a fund of any nature for the benefit of any person and may otherwise secure in any manner our obligations with respect to indemnification and advancement of expenses regardless of the source of the indemnification right and without respect to whether or not we would have the power to indemnify such person under the bylaws.

Under current Pennsylvania law we do not have the power to indemnify any person for his or her willful misconduct or recklessness.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

ITEM 16. Exhibits.

The exhibits listed on the Index to Exhibits of this Registration Statement are filed herewith or are incorporated herein by reference to other filings.

ITEM 17. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424 (b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
