F.N.B. Corporation Merger

Frequently Asked Questions and Answers

January 10, 2013 Round 2-Final

General

1. How many hours constitute full-time?

Standard work hours for non-exempt employees equal 37.5 hours per week and standard work hours for exempt employees equal 40 hours per week. You must work at least 35 hours per week to be considered full-time.

2. Will we receive an employee handbook?

Annapolis Bancorp employees will have access to the F.N.B. handbook upon the merger date.

3. Does F.N.B. have a dress code?

F.N.B. has a personal appearance policy that provides guidelines for professional dress, business casual dress (every Friday) and dress that is not appropriate for the office. The F.N.B. personal appearance policy is in the Employee Handbook. Also, F.N.B. will periodically designate charity campaign days where employees can dress down and wear jeans if they make a charity contribution. Additionally, F.N.B. logo wear is encouraged for business casual days.

4. Does F.N.B. require employees to make sales calls? If so, how often and how many?

F.N.B. does require both internal and external customer contact initiatives to support: (1) our exceptional commitment towards staying in touch with our customer's needs and (2) our desire to grow the business in each of the individual community locations we serve.

Internally, each branch will receive well-developed customer contact lists for telephone follow-up. From an external perspective, each Branch Manager will be coached and supported in the development of targeted calling opportunities as existing customers, prospective customers, and centers of influence. F.N.B.'s strong reputation as a trusted advisor is a by-product of our Managers reaching out to various customer groups.

Please be assured that comprehensive sales and service training is forthcoming as a specific step in this conversion piece.

General - continued

5. Does F.N.B. provide employees with no service charge checking and savings accounts?

F.N.B. offers one free employee account. Employees can choose either an interest bearing checking account or a regular savings account tied to their automatic payroll deposit.

6. What Core operating system does F.N.B. use?

Fiserv Premier (ITI) core processing.

7. What are the specifics of F.N.B.'s Tuition Reimbursement Program?

F.N.B. Corporation does provide education assistance for eligible part-time and full-time employees interested in furthering their education.

In order to be considered for assistance, employees must have completed their introductory period, and must have a satisfactory performance rating on their last appraisal. An employee would not be eligible if there has been any corrective action within the past six months.

An application is submitted two weeks prior to the course start date. Course curriculum should be directly related to the employee's present job or should enhance the potential for advancement within the company.

Non-business courses or courses that management does consider eligible will not be reimbursed. Not all courses related to a business degree program are necessarily eligible.

Employees are not paid for their time to attend the course.

Once approved, the maximum of $1,500 for each undergraduate course will be paid and $2,000 will be paid for each graduate course. The maximum reimbursement per employee per year would be $6,000 for undergraduate courses and $10,000 for graduate courses.

Employment

1. If we are employed with F.N.B., will our length of service be carried over?

Upon merger date, length of service does carry over for purposes of vacation and short-term disability programs. It also carries over for the vesting of the 401(k) plan.

2. If the merger impacts my job, can I file for unemployment?

The State of Maryland determines individual eligibility for unemployment benefits. Eligibility for unemployment can be determined by contacting your local unemployment office for additional information.

3. What criteria will be used to determine who will remain employed?

One of the reasons for the strength and success of F.N.B. is having exceptional employees who are passionate about meeting the needs of our customers. Our employee selection process is based upon this principle and the recognition that employees must possess the skills and capabilities that are required to adequately serve customer needs. We will assess this on an individual employee/position basis.

4. How will my personal employment information transition over to F.N.B.?

We will be asking that all employees complete an application so that we can include the level of education, previous experience, training and any certifications in the F.N.B. Human Resources Information System.

5. What training will be offered to branch personnel on F.N.B. products and marketing of them, and what venue will be used to accomplish that training?

We do have a formal Training Department with skilled trainers who will provide hands-on process and skills training for Tellers, Head Tellers, Managers, New Account Opening Processes, Loan Processes, and Product/Service training to name a few. Training will be conducted in the Annapolis Bancorp footprint. The training schedule has not been finalized at this point in time.

6. Will F.N.B. interview all BankAnnapolis employees?

Representatives from the F.N.B. Human Resources department will be meeting with each employee to review documents and can at that time gather any additional experience and position interest information that the employee would like to share.

Paid Time Off (Vacation, Sick, Personal) - continued

7. Does F.N.B. have a buy-back provision for employees to purchase additional vacation days?

F.N.B. does not have a policy for buying back vacation days. The vacation policy does allow for some carry-over of days.

8. Does F.N.B. operate the vacation schedule on a calendar year, or on each employee's anniversary date? If my service anniversary occurs in the middle of the year, and in a particular year I move up a level on the vacation schedule, do I get the extra (5) days of vacation in that year, or in the next year?

F.N.B.'s vacation policy is based on a calendar year. If during the year you cross over an anniversary date that qualifies you for the next level of benefit, it is applied to the following calendar year.

Payroll

1. How are full-time employees paid at F.N.B.?

All full-time employees are paid a semi-monthly salary on the 15th and the last day of the month, and are paid on a current basis (i.e., payment on the 15th of the month represents payment for the 1st through the 15th of the month, and payment on the last day of the month represents payment for the 16th through the last day of the month). If a pay day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or bank holiday, employees will be paid on the preceding business day.

Severance

1. How will severance pay be determined? Will severance packages be offered? If so, will they be based on years of service?

Severance pay is based upon the classification (Exempt or Non-Exempt) and length of service of the individual who is displaced.

Exempt 2 weeks pay per full year of service; minimum 4 weeks; with a maximum of 52 weeks.

Non-exempt 1 week pay per full year of service; minimum 2 weeks; with a maximum of 52 weeks.

2. How will I be paid severance (i.e., lump sum or over time)?

Severance pay will be paid over time, on each pay period until the total amount of severance due to the employee has been paid.
