Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

$3,000,000,000 5-Year Revolving Credit Agreement

On April 22, 2013, Oracle Corporation (Oracle) entered into a $3,000,000,000 Revolving Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement) among Oracle; the lenders named therein; Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent; Bank of America, N.A., BNP Paribas and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as syndication agents; and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, BNP Paribas Securities Corp., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunners.

The Credit Agreement provides for an unsecured $3,000,000,000 5-year revolving credit facility (the Facility) to Oracle for general corporate purposes, including backstopping any commercial paper that Oracle may issue. Subject to certain conditions stated in the Credit Agreement, Oracle may borrow, prepay and reborrow amounts under the Facility during the term of the Credit Agreement. All amounts under the Credit Agreement are due on April 20, 2018, unless the commitments are terminated earlier either at the request of Oracle or, if an event of default occurs, by the lenders (or automatically in the case of certain bankruptcy-related events). Interest is based on either (a) a LIBOR-based formula or (b) the Base Rate formula, each as set forth in the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement contains certain customary representations and warranties, covenants and events of default, including the requirement that the total net debt to total capitalization ratio of Oracle and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis not exceed 45%. If any of the events of default occur and are not cured within applicable grace periods or waived, any unpaid amounts under the Credit Agreement may be declared immediately due and payable and the commitments may be terminated.

At this time, Oracle has not borrowed any funds under the Credit Agreement.

The description above is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by the Credit Agreement which is filed as Exhibit 10.14 to this report.

Update to Commercial Paper Program

On April 23, 2013, Oracle, pursuant to its existing $3,000,000,000 commercial paper program (the CP Program), entered into new dealer agreements (the Dealer Agreements) with various banks (collectively, the Dealers) and a new Issuing and Paying Agency Agreement (the Agency Agreement) with JP Morgan Chase Bank, National Association (the Agent). The Agency Agreement and certain of the Dealer Agreements replace earlier agreements previously entered into by the parties under the CP Program. The terms and conditions of the Dealer Agreements and Agency Agreement are substantially the same as the earlier agreements described in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by Oracle with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on February 9, 2006 and a copy of the form of Dealer Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to that report. A copy of the Agency Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.09 hereto.

No commercial paper notes are currently outstanding under the CP Program.

Certain lenders under the Credit Agreement, and certain Dealers under the Dealer Agreements and the Agent under the Agency Agreement, or, in each case, one or more of their affiliates or branches, have provided investment banking and trustee/paying agency services to Oracle, are lenders or agents under other credit facilities of Oracle or provide Oracle and its subsidiaries with cash management services, foreign exchange services, global custody agent services and fixed income brokerage services.
