Frans van Houten, CEO:

This was another solid quarter for Philips, especially in light of the challenging global economic environment. I am pleased with the 33% increase in our operational results, clearly reflecting the continuing benefits of our Accelerate! program. At Healthcare, EBITA improved while sales were flat and order intake declined by 2%. Consumer Lifestyle continued its strong sales performance with a comparable sales growth of 9%, driven by our focus on locally relevant products. At Lighting, LED-based sales grew 33% over the previous year, leading to an overall growth of 3%.

We continued to make good progress on the Accelerate! journey. Our overhead cost reduction program has resulted in EUR 856 million in total gross savings to date, including EUR 183 million realized in Q3 2013. Our End2End programs are delivering strong results. The leaning-out of the supply chain has led to a reduction of inventory. Our Design for Excellence (DfX) program is building a strong funnel of opportunities to lower cost of goods sold in the coming years. End2End also enables us to deliver more locally relevant innovations faster to our customers. We see strong positive engagement from our employees, making us more agile and entrepreneurial.

Our strategic focus on value-accretive innovations and new business models is resulting in encouraging successes across our markets. As the leader in the growing image-guided interventions and therapy market, Philips was the first company to install an advanced hybrid operating room in a leading medical institute in Moscow, which will serve as an example for other hospitals in Russia. Building on our leadership in digital innovation, we recently unveiled a range of higher-value connected consumer products, such as a smart air purifier, baby monitor and a digital grooming guide. As the global leader in energy-efficient lighting, we have been selected to transform Dubai Municipality's buildings with intelligent LED solutions. Our lighting solutions are saving 50% in electricity usage and will advance Dubai's mission to become the most sustainable city in the world.

We remain committed to reaching our financial targets this year. However, ongoing headwinds in the global economy are expected to continue to affect sales growth in the coming quarters.

Q3 financials: Operational results improve significantly across all sectors.

Healthcare currency-comparable equipment order intake declined by 2% year-on-year, with lower order intake at Patient Care & Clinical Informatics, while Imaging Systems recorded a slight increase. Comparable sales were flat year-on-year. Growth at Customer Services, Home Healthcare Solutions and Patient Care & Clinical Informatics was offset by a decline at Imaging Systems. In growth geographies, comparable sales increased by 3%, with strong growth in China, Central & Eastern Europe and Latin America. EBITA margin excluding restructuring and acquisition-related charges increased by 2.0 percentage points year-on-year to 14.6%.

Consumer Lifestyle comparable sales increased by 9%, with all businesses, i.e. Health & Wellness, Domestic Appliances and Personal Care, recording good growth. In the growth geographies, comparable sales registered a strong double-digit increase. EBITA margin excluding restructuring and acquisition-related charges increased to 11.1%, a year-on-year improvement of 3.0 percentage points.

Lighting comparable sales increased by 3%, led by Lumileds, Automotive and Light Sources & Electronics. Comparable sales at Professional Lighting Solutions and Consumer Luminaires declined in the quarter. LED-based sales grew by 33% and now represent 30% of total Lighting sales. In the growth geographies, comparable sales showed a double-digit increase. EBITA margin excluding restructuring and acquisition-related charges was 10.2%, a year-on-year improvement of 3.9 percentage points.

The new EUR 1.5 billion share buy-back program starts on October 21.

Business highlights

Philips improved its brand ranking by one position to become the 40th most valuable brand in the top-100 global brands by Interbrand. The brand value of Philips increased by 8% to close to USD 10 billion.

Philips received 510(k) clearance from the US Food and Drug Administration to bring to the US market its first Digital Pathology product for a digital manual read of HER2 status for patients with invasive breast cancer. Assessment of HER2 is a standard test to evaluate treatment options.

Philips was recognized as a leader in the Carbon Disclosure Project for the third consecutive year on both performance and disclosure.

Philips received a total of eight Successful Design Awards China 2013. Five of the winners were for Philips health care solutions, with the highest honor of the Diamond Award going to the Philips Ambient Experience Electro Physiology Lab.

Underscoring its innovation in lighting technology, Philips has collaborated with Audi, Merck KGaA, Automotive Lighting and the University of Cologne in a research consortium to create the world's first large-area, 3D organic light-emitting diodes (OLEDs); these OLEDs have now been applied in the rear lighting of a vehicle for the first time.

Financial performance

Sales decreased marginally from EUR 188 million in Q3 2012 to EUR 185 million in Q3 2013.

EBITA amounted to a net cost of EUR 60 million, including a EUR 31 million settlement loss arising from a lump-sum offering to terminated vested employees in our US pension plan. Net restructuring charges in Q3 2013 amounted to a release of EUR 1 million (Q3 2012: a net release of EUR 2 million).

EBITA, excluding restructuring charges and the EUR 31 million pension settlement loss, improved by EUR 21 million compared to Q3 2012, mainly due to lower litigation and patent filing costs in IP Royalties.

EBITA of Service Units and Other included EUR 19 million of net costs formerly reported in discontinued businesses (Q3 2012 included EUR 9 million related to the Audio, Video, Multimedia and Accessories business and EUR 3 million related to the Television business).

Compared to Q3 2012, the number of employees increased by 434, primarily due to the centralization of Human Resource and Research activities, partly offset by restructuring activities in the Service Units.

Net operating capital, excluding a currency translation effect of EUR 101 million, increased by EUR 498 million year-on-year, mainly due to an increase in the value of currency hedges.

Miscellaneous

Restructuring charges in Q4 2013 are expected to total approximately EUR 5 million.

Since Q1 2013, the applicable net operating capital of this business is reported under Assets and Liabilities classified as held for sale in the Consolidated balance sheet.

The EBITA of Consumer Lifestyle includes net costs of EUR 7 million formerly reported as part of the results of this business. The EBITA of Innovation, Group & Services includes net costs of EUR 19 million formerly reported as part of this business.

Other information

Share repurchase program

Philips will start a share repurchase program of up to EUR 1.5 billion to be executed during the next 2-3 years. The maximum number of shares that will be repurchased under this program depends on the development in the share price during the course of the program. All shares repurchased under this program will be cancelled, resulting in a reduction of Philips' outstanding share capital.

Philips will start this repurchase program as of October 21 and will enter into subsequent discretionary management agreements with one or more banks to repurchase Philips shares within the limits of relevant laws and regulations (in particular EC Regulation 2273/2003) and Philips' articles of association. All transactions under this program will be published on Philips' website (www.philips.com/investor) on a weekly basis.

Forward-looking statements

Forward-looking statements

This document and the related oral presentation, including responses to questions following the presentation, contain certain forward-looking statements with respect to the financial condition, results of operations and business of Philips and certain of the plans and objectives of Philips with respect to these items. Examples of forward-looking statements include statements made about our strategy, estimates of sales growth, future EBITA and future developments in our organic business. By their nature, these statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances and there are many factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these statements.

These factors include but are not limited to domestic and global economic and business conditions, developments within the euro zone, the successful implementation of our strategy and our ability to realize the benefits of this strategy, our ability to develop and market new products, changes in legislation, legal claims, changes in exchange and interest rates, changes in tax rates, pension costs and actuarial assumptions, raw materials and employee costs, our ability to identify and complete successful acquisitions and to integrate those acquisitions into our business, our ability to successfully exit certain businesses or restructure our operations, the rate of technological changes, political, economic and other developments in countries where Philips operates, industry consolidation and competition. As a result, Philips' actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals and expectations set forth in such forward-looking statements. For a discussion of factors that could cause future results to differ from such forward-looking statements, see the Risk management chapter included in our Annual Report 2012.

Third-party market share data

Statements regarding market share, including those regarding Philips' competitive position, contained in this document are based on outside sources such as research institutes, industry and dealer panels in combination with management estimates. Where information is not yet available to Philips, those statements may also be based on estimates and projections prepared by outside sources or management. Rankings are based on sales unless otherwise stated.

Use of non-GAAP information

In presenting and discussing the Philips Group financial position, operating results and cash flows, management uses certain non-GAAP financial measures. These non-GAAP financial measures should not be viewed in isolation as alternatives to the equivalent IFRS measures and should be used in conjunction with the most directly comparable IFRS measures. A reconciliation of these non-GAAP measures to the most directly comparable IFRS measures is contained in this document. Further information on non-GAAP measures can be found in our Annual Report 2012.

Use of fair-value measurements

In presenting the Philips Group financial position, fair values are used for the measurement of various items in accordance with the applicable accounting standards. These fair values are based on market prices, where available, and are obtained from sources that are deemed to be reliable. Readers are cautioned that these values are subject to changes over time and are only valid at the balance sheet date. When quoted prices or observable market data are not readily available, fair values are estimated using appropriate valuation models and unobservable inputs. Such fair value estimates require management to make significant assumptions with respect to future developments, which are inherently uncertain and may therefore deviate from actual developments. Critical assumptions used are disclosed in our Annual Report 2012. Independent valuations may have been obtained to support management's determination of fair values.

All amounts are in millions of euros unless otherwise stated. All reported data is unaudited. Financial reporting is in accordance with the accounting policies as stated in the Annual Report 2012, unless otherwise stated.

Prior-period financials have been restated for the treatment of Audio, Video, Multimedia and Accessories as discontinued operations, the adoption of IAS 19R, which mainly relates to pension reporting, and adjustments to the quarterly figures of 2012, which have already been included in the Annual Report 2012 (for an explanation refer to Annual Report 2012 section 12.10 Significant Accounting Policies).
