Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

January 20, 2015, Starboard Value LP delivered a letter (the Letter) to the Issuer's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Paul J. Sarvadi, and its Board of Directors (the Board). In the Letter, Starboard Value LP stated its view that the Issuer is deeply undervalued and that a number of opportunities exist to create significant value for shareholders based on actions within the control of management and the Board. Starboard Value LP in the Letter outlines a broad plan to improve the Issuer's performance, detailing action that management should take to improve execution, reduce operating expenses, improve capital allocation, improve corporate governance, and explore all available alternatives to maximize shareholder value. The Letter states that Starboard Value LP believes that the Issuer can improve its operating margins through a combination of reducing excessive corporate overhead expenses (including selling its two large corporate jets), and more efficiently allocating advertising expenses (including shifting advertising away from expensive television advertising, golf tournaments, and other golf and sports-related marketing). Further, Starboard Value LP suggests in the Letter that the Issuer should consider share repurchases and explore a potential sale of the Issuer to either a financial or strategic buyer. In addition, the Letter details several corporate governance policies of the Issuer that Starboard Value LP believes are in need of improvement, including excessive executive compensation, numerous related-party transactions, the lack of an independent chairman, a staggered Board, and the existence of a Poison Pill. Starboard Value LP states in the Letter that it looks forward to discussing all of the points outlined in the Letter in more detail with Mr. Sarvadi and the Board.

The foregoing description of the Letter does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Letter, which is filed as Exhibit 99.1, and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Reporting Persons purchased the Shares based on the Reporting Persons' belief that the Shares, when purchased, were undervalued and represented an attractive investment opportunity. Depending upon overall market conditions, other investment opportunities available to the Reporting Persons, and the availability of Shares at prices that would make the purchase or sale of Shares desirable, the Reporting Persons may endeavor to increase or decrease their position in the Issuer through, among other things, the purchase or sale of Shares on the open market or in private transactions or otherwise, on such terms and at such times as the Reporting Persons may deem advisable.

The Reporting Persons intend to review their investment in the Issuer on a continuing basis. Depending on various factors including, without limitation, the Issuer's financial position and investment strategy, the price levels of the Shares, conditions in the securities markets and general economic and industry conditions, the Reporting Persons may in the future take such actions with respect to their investment in the Issuer as they deem appropriate including, without limitation, engaging in communications with management and the Board, engaging in discussions with stockholders of the Issuer and others about the Issuer and the Reporting Persons' investment, making proposals to the Issuer concerning changes to the capitalization, ownership structure, board structure (including board composition) or operations of the Issuer, purchasing additional Shares, selling some or all of their Shares, engaging in short selling of or any hedging or similar transaction with respect to the Shares, or changing their intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in subparagraphs (a) - (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.
