INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

This Amendment No. 1 (this Amendment No. 1) amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO filed on March 13, 2014 (the Schedule TO) by Malibu Boats, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company) and Malibu Boats Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the LLC). Amendment No. 1 revises the Schedule TO to clarify that the Company is the only entity offering to purchase securities and it is offering to purchase (the Offer) only shares of its Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (Class A Common Stock), including shares of Class A Common Stock issued upon exchange of limited liability company interests of the LLC (the LLC Units). The shares of Class A Common Stock, including shares of Class A Common Stock issued upon exchange for LLC Units are referred to herein as Shares or Securities. The Company had previously included the LLC as an offeror out of an abundance of caution because the definition of offeror in General Instruction K(1) to Schedule TO includes any person on whose behalf a tender offer is made. However, upon further consideration, the Company does not believe it is making the tender offer on behalf of the LLC or that the LLC is a bidder (as defined in Rule 14d-1(c)(1)). Accordingly, the Company has removed the LLC as an offeror under the Schedule TO. To the extent naming the LLC as an offeror in the initial Schedule TO may have been deemed an offer by the LLC, this Amendment No. 1 clarifies that the LLC has withdrawn and terminated any offer previously deemed to be made for its LLC Units because, in the Company's and LLC's reasonable judgment, it would be materially adverse to the Company and LLC and otherwise make it inadvisable for the Company and LLC to proceed with an offer by or on behalf of the LLC, which is a stated condition for the Offer to Purchase, dated March 13, 2015 (the Offer to Purchase), a copy of which was filed as Exhibit (a)(1)(A) to the Schedule TO, and in the related Letter of Transmittal (the Letter of Transmittal), a copy of which was filed as Exhibit (a)(1)(B) to the Schedule TO.

The purpose of this Amendment No. 1 is to amend and supplement the Schedule TO. Only those items amended are reported in this Amendment No. 1. Except as specifically provided herein, the information contained in the Schedule TO, the Offer to Purchase and the Letter of Transmittal remains unchanged. This Amendment No. 1 should be read in conjunction with the Schedule TO, the Offer to Purchase and the Letter of Transmittal.

In order to clarify that the Offer is made only for shares of Class A Common Stock, the Offer to Purchase and Letter of Transmittal are hereby amended by deleting all references to the offer to purchase LLC Units and is also amended by replacing all references to (i) Share or LLC Unit, (ii) Shares or LLC Units, (iii) Share and LLC Unit, (iv) Shares and LLC Units, (v) Shares and LLC Units, respectively and (vi) Shares or LLC Units, as the case may be, with (A) Share, (B) Shares, (C) Share, (D) Shares, (E) Shares, and (F) Shares, respectively.

Item 1. Summary Term Sheet.

The section of the Offer to Purchase titled Summary Term Sheet on page i of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by deleting the section subheading Who is offering to purchase the LLC Units? and the sentence under such subheading in their entirety.

The first paragraph under What will be the Purchase Price for the Securities and what will be the form of payment? under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled Summary Term Sheet on page i of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by deleting the fifth sentence in its entirety.

The first paragraph under How many Securities are we offering to purchase? under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled Summary Term Sheet on page ii of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by deleting the fifth sentence in its entirety.

The section of the Offer to Purchase titled Summary Term Sheet on page ii of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by replacing the section subheading Will the Purchase Price be the same for both the Shares and LLC Units?

and the following two paragraphs under such subheading in their entirety with the following:

How do I tender the Shares underlying my LLC Units?

If you are a holder of LLC Units, you may participate in the Offer by submitting a Letter of Transmittal. By submitting a Letter of Transmittal, a holder of LLC Units will be deemed to have exchanged its LLC Units into Class A Common Stock, subject to acceptance by the Company of such Shares in the Offer, immediately prior to the Expiration Time and pursuant to the terms of the Exchange Agreement and the LLC Agreement. The Company will purchase Shares from you. The Company will return LLC Units to you if the underlying Shares are not accepted by the Company in the Offer.

The second sentence of the first paragraph under "What is the purpose of the Offer?" under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled "Summary Term Sheet" on page iv of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by deleting "and the LLC s unitholders."

The section of the Offer to Purchase titled "Summary Term Sheet" on pages vi-vii of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by replacing the section subheading "How will the Offer affect the number of Securities outstanding and the number of record holders?" and the following nine paragraphs under such subheading in their entirety with the following:

How will the Offer affect the number of Shares outstanding and the number of record holders?

As of March 12, 2015, there were 15,608,650 Shares issued and outstanding and 7,001,844 LLC Units not held by the Company issued and outstanding. Of the outstanding LLC Units, 288,136 LLC Units are not vested and therefore not eligible to participate in the Offer, resulting in a total of 22,322,358 Securities eligible for this Offer. The Company also owns 15,608,650 LLC Units. As of March 12, 2015 there were also 43 shares of Class B Common Stock outstanding, which provided holders of LLC Units with voting rights equivalent to 7,001,844 Shares. See Section 1.

Assuming that the Offer is fully subscribed, the maximum of 3,333,333 Securities that the Company is offering to purchase under the Offer represents approximately 14.74% of the total number of Shares (including Shares underlying the LLC Units) not held by the Company issued and outstanding as of March 12, 2015. Assuming that the Offer is fully subscribed, the minimum of 2,978,723 Securities that the Company is offering to purchase under the Offer represents approximately 13.17% of the total number of Shares (including Shares underlying the LLC Units) not held by the Company issued and outstanding as of March 12, 2015.

If LLC Units are exchanged for Shares that are validly tendered and accepted in this Offer, the voting power afforded to the tendering unitholders by their shares of Class B Common Stock will be automatically and correspondingly reduced. If a unitholder exchanges all of its LLC Units for Shares, the share of Class B Common Stock issued to that unitholder will be automatically canceled. As of March 12, 2015, the outstanding Securities carried an aggregate of 22,610,494 votes. The aggregate votes will be reduced by one for each Share that is validly tendered and accepted in this Offer. See Section 11.

The actual number of Securities outstanding immediately following completion of the Offer will depend on the number of Shares tendered and purchased in the Offer as well as the Purchase Price for such Securities. See Section 2.

If any of the Company s stockholders:

who hold Shares in their own name as holders of record; or who are registered holders as participants in the DTC s system whose names appear on a security position listing, tender their Shares in full and that tender is accepted in full, then the number of our record holders would be reduced. See Section 2.

If any of the LLC Unit holders who hold LLC Units in their own name as holders of record exchange their LLC Units for Shares and tender those Shares and that tender is accepted in full, then the number of stockholders and LLC Unit holders would be reduced and the number and holders of Class B Common Stock would also be reduced. See Section 2.

Stockholders who do not have their Shares purchased in the Offer will realize a proportionate increase in (i) their relative ownership interest in the Company following the purchase of Shares pursuant to the Offer and (ii) their relative economic interest in the LLC following the purchase of Shares pursuant to the Offer. Unitholders who do not exchange their LLC Units for Shares and tender those Shares in the Offer will realize a proportionate increase in (i) their relative economic interest in the LLC following the exchange of other LLC Units into Shares purchased pursuant to the Offer and (ii) their voting interest in the Company following the exchange of other LLC Units into Shares purchased pursuant to the Offer. See Section 2.

The fourth bullet point in the first paragraph under How do I tender my Securities? under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled Summary Term Sheet on page vii of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by adding the following sentence to the end of the language in the fourth bullet point:

By submitting a Letter of Transmittal, a holder of LLC Units will be deemed to have exchanged its LLC Units into Class A Common Stock, subject to acceptance by the Company of such Shares in the Offer, immediately prior to the Expiration Time and pursuant to the terms of the Exchange Agreement and the LLC Agreement.

The first and second sentences in the first paragraph under May holders of unvested LLC Units participate in the Offer? under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled Summary Term Sheet on page viii of the Offer to Purchase are hereby amended and restated in their entirety as follows:

Holders of unvested LLC Units may not exchange their unvested LLC Units into Shares to be tendered in the Offer. If the unvested LLC Units vest prior to the Expiration Time, you may exchange some or all of such LLC Units into Shares to be tendered in the Offer.

The section of the Offer to Purchase titled Summary Term Sheet on page x of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by replacing the section subheading Have Malibu, its Board of Directors or the LLC adopted a position on the Offer? and the first sentence under such subheading in their entirety with the following:

Have Malibu or its Board of Directors adopted a position on the Offer?

While the Board of Directors of the Company has authorized the Offer, it has not, nor has the Dealer Manager, the Information Agent or the Depositary or any of their affiliates made, and they are not making, any recommendation to you as to whether you should tender or refrain from tendering your Securities or as to the price or prices at which you may choose to tender your Securities.

The second, third and fourth sentences of the first paragraph under Do the Company's or the LLC's directors or executive officers or affiliates intend to tender their Securities in the Offer? under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled Summary Term Sheet on page x of the Offer to Purchase are hereby amended and restated in their entirety as follows:

Black Canyon Capital LLC has indicated that it intends to tender all of the Shares and the Shares underlying its LLC Units that it beneficially owns at the minimum purchase price per Share in the Offer. Entities affiliated with Black Canyon Capital LLC beneficially own 1,692,438 Shares and 2,640,806 Shares underlying LLC Units. If Black Canyon Capital LLC tenders all of its Shares and Shares underlying its LLC Units as indicated and we do not increase the Aggregate Purchase Price for the Offer (which the Company currently has no intention to do), then the Purchase Price for the Offer will be $21.00 per Share.

The second sentence of the first paragraph under What will happen if I do not tender my Securities? under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled Summary Term Sheet on page xi of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Unitholders who do not have the Shares underlying their LLC Units purchased in the Offer will realize a proportionate increase in (i) their relative economic interest in the LLC and (ii) their voting interest in the Company following the purchase of Shares issued upon exchange for other LLC Units pursuant to the Offer.

The second and third sentences of the first paragraph under "What is the accounting treatment of the Offer?" under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled "Summary Term Sheet" on page xi of the Offer to Purchase are hereby amended and restated in their entirety as follows:

In addition, any purchase of Shares issued upon exchange for LLC Units in the Offer will result in an increase in our deferred tax asset in the amount of the Purchase Price paid for each Share underlying the LLC Unit less the underlying tax basis for the applicable LLC Unit exchanged into Shares purchased in the Offer multiplied by our effective tax rate. Any purchase of Shares issued upon exchange for LLC Units will also correspondingly increase our payable pursuant to our tax receivable agreement in an amount that is 85% of the recognized deferred tax asset, with the remaining 15% recognized in our stockholders' equity.

The section of the Offer to Purchase titled "Summary Term Sheet" on page xii of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by replacing the section subheading "I am a United States stockholder or a unitholder. What are the United States federal income tax consequences if I tender my Securities?" and the following two paragraphs under such subheading in their entirety with the following:

I am a United States stockholder. What are the United States federal income tax consequences if I tender my Shares?

Generally, if you are a United States Holder (as defined in Section 14) of Shares, you will be subject to United States federal income taxation when you receive cash from us in exchange for the Shares you tender. Your receipt of cash for your tendered Shares will generally be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as either (A) consideration received in a sale or exchange of tendered Shares or (B) a distribution with respect to such Shares. See Sections 3 and 14.

I am a United States unitholder. What are the United States federal income tax consequences if I exchange my LLC Units for Shares that are purchased in the Offer?

Generally, if you are a United States Holder (as defined in Section 14) of LLC Units, the deemed exchange of LLC Units for Shares that are subsequently accepted for purchase in the Offer will be a taxable transaction in which you will be treated as receiving consideration equal to the fair market value of the Shares (which should be the same as the Purchase Price for the Shares) at the time of the exchange as well as future payments to be made under the tax receivables agreement. The value of the Shares will also be your tax basis in the Shares. The subsequent sale of the Shares pursuant to the Offer will be subject to either the sale or exchange or distribution tax treatment described in the preceding paragraph.

The Company intends to take the position that the deemed exchange of LLC Units for Shares should be ignored for tax purposes when the LLC Units are subsequently returned to the unitholder because the Shares for which they are deemed to have been exchanged are not purchased in the Offer. There is a risk, however, that the Internal Revenue Service may assert that the deemed exchange of LLC Units for Shares should nevertheless be treated as a taxable transaction as described in the preceding paragraph. Each unitholder should consult its own tax advisor as to the risk of such taxable treatment.

EACH STOCKHOLDER AND UNITHOLDER IS ADVISED TO CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR TO DETERMINE THE UNITED STATES FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES TO SUCH STOCKHOLDER OR UNITHOLDER WITH RESPECT TO THE OFFER.

As described in Section 14, the number of Shares, including Shares issued upon exchange for LLC Units, that we will purchase from a stockholder pursuant to the Offer may affect the United States federal income tax consequences of the purchase to the stockholder and, therefore, may be relevant to a stockholder's decisions whether or not to tender Securities and whether or not to condition any tender upon our purchase of a stated number of Securities held by such stockholder.

A United States Holder's deemed sale or exchange of LLC Units for Shares that are purchased in the Offer will be a taxable transaction. The amount realized by such holder upon the exchange will be equal to the fair market value of such Shares (which should be the same as their Purchase Price in the Offer) and the subsequent payments to be made under the tax receivables agreement. The holder's tax basis in the Shares will also equal their fair market value at the time of the exchange. The United States Holder will generally recognize capital gain or capital loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized by the United States Holder for such LLC Units as described above and such United States Holder's adjusted tax basis in such LLC Units at the time of the exchange.

The sixth sentence of the first paragraph under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled Section 14 Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences to Tendering Holders Consequences of the Offer to United States Holders Consequences of the Purchase of Units on page 37 of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by replacing the word sale with exchange.

In addition, both the tax basis in a United States Holder's LLC Units and the amount received upon an exchange of such LLC Units for Shares will include the holder's share of the LLC's liabilities.

The section of the Offer to Purchase titled Section 14 Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences to Tendering Holders Consequences of the Offer to United States Holders Consequences of the Purchase of Units on page 37 of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following to the end thereof:

The tax treatment of the United States Holder's subsequent sale of the Shares for cash pursuant to the Offer is described under Characterization of the Purchase of Shares below. Since the holder's tax basis in the Shares will be equal to their fair market value at the time of the exchange (which should be the same as the cash paid for the Shares in the Offer), no additional gain or loss should be recognized on the sale, assuming it is treated as a sale or exchange and not a distribution for United States federal income tax purposes.

The Company intends to take the position that the deemed exchange of LLC Units for Shares should be ignored for tax purposes when the LLC Units are subsequently returned to the unitholder because the Shares for which they are deemed to have been exchanged are not purchased in the Offer. There is a risk, however, that the IRS may assert that the deemed exchange of LLC Units for Shares should nevertheless be treated as a taxable transaction as described in the preceding paragraphs. Each unitholder should consult its own tax advisor as to the risk of such taxable treatment.

Item 6. Purposes of the Transaction and Plans or Proposals

(a) The second sentence of the first paragraph under "What is the purpose of the Offer?" under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled "Summary Term Sheet" on page iv of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended by deleting "and the LLC's" and the LLC's unitholders.

The first paragraph under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled "Section 2 Purpose of the Offer; Certain Effects of the Offer Purpose of the Offer" on page 6 of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Purpose of the Offer. The Board of Directors believes that the Offer represents a prudent use of the Company's financial resources in light of its business profile, assets, current indebtedness and debt capacity. The primary purpose of the Offer is to return cash to the Company's stockholders by providing them with the opportunity to tender all or a portion of their Securities and, thereby, receive a return of some or all of their investment if they so elect. In addition, if we complete the Offer, stockholders who do not participate in the Offer will automatically increase their relative percentage interest in us and our future operations.

The second sentence of the fourth paragraph under the section of the Offer to Purchase titled "Section 2 Purpose of the Offer; Certain Effects of the Offer Purpose of the Offer" on page 7 of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Unitholders who do not have the Shares underlying their LLC Units purchased in the Offer will realize a proportionate increase in (i) their relative economic interest in the LLC and (ii) their voting interest in the Company following the purchase of Shares issued upon exchange for other LLC Units pursuant to the Offer.
