PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

BBX Capital (BBX or the Company) was unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2015 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense because management of BBX is in the process of re-evaluating its internal controls governing the interim measurement of impairments related to two real estate properties in Tallahassee, Florida which were held-for-investment. We have concluded that this issue did not result in the material misstatement of any previously issued financial statements, and such financial statements can still be relied upon, but it is possible that following this re-evaluation we may conclude that a material weakness existed in our internal controls over financial reporting.

The need to re-evaluate our controls relating to the measurement of impairments on these two held-for-investment properties arose after a routine inspection by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC), our predecessor auditor, which included a review by the PCAOB of PwC's independent audit of our 2014 annual financial statements and our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2014.
