On December 15, 2015, Dicerna Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) filed a Current Report on Form 8-K (the Original Form 8-K) and, together with this amendment, the Form 8-K) reporting that on December 15, 2015 (the Separation Date) James Dentzer departed from his position as Chief Financial Officer of the Company. On December 29, 2015, the Company and Mr. Dentzer entered into a Separation Agreement (the Separation Agreement). The Separation Agreement provides, among other things, that Mr. Dentzer will receive a payment equivalent to 52 weeks of his base salary immediately prior to the Separation Date, that Mr. Dentzer will remain eligible for a pro-rated annual bonus for calendar year 2015 based on (i) his personal performance, as determined by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company in such Chief Executive Officer's discretion, and (ii) the corporate bonus funding level, as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors after the conclusion of the 2015 bonus year, and that Mr. Dentzer will receive payment for premiums under the Company's group health insurance for up to 12 months and will remain eligible for the Company's current group insurance benefits to the extent provided by federal or state laws and the Company's current group health insurance policies. Mr. Dentzer has generally and completely released the Company and its affiliates of and from any and all claims, liabilities and obligations that arise out of or are related to events, acts, conduct or omissions occurring prior to the Separation Date. Mr. Dentzer has also agreed to a customary non-disparagement provision and has continuing obligations under the Company's nondisclosure, non-competition and non-solicitation and inventions agreement.

The foregoing description of the Separation Agreement is a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Separation Agreement, which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015.
