3. Major reasons for estimated growth in the results for the period

Major reasons for substantial growth in the results of the Group in the first three quarters of 2016 compared to the corresponding period of the previous year are:

1. In the first three quarters of 2016, the decrease in prices of the Company's products was smaller when compared with the decrease in the costs of the raw materials it procured, which led to an increase in gross profit. Of which, in the first quarter of 2016, the floor price for domestic refined oil (please refer to Other information for details) provided support to the results of the Company. As international crude oil prices began to rebound from February 2016, due to the long procurement cycle for imported crude oil of the Group, the cost of crude oil in transit and in stock was relatively low, leading to an increase in profit in the second quarter. The results for July to September will be affected by the inspection and maintenance issues in the third quarter.
2. Shanghai Secco Petrochemical Company Limited, the Company's associate, recorded an increase in profit, thereby increasing the Company's investment income. The financial expenses of the Company decreased as it had ample funds of its own.
3. The Group strengthened its internal management and continued to reduce costs and enhance efficiency. The initiatives showed good progress.

4. Other information

On 13 January 2016, the National Development and Reform Commission announced the Notice of the National Development and Reform Commission on Further Improving the Pricing Mechanism of Refined Oil (Fa Gai Jia Ge [2016] No. 64) (the Notice), stating that when the price of crude oil in the international market, with which the domestic refined oil price is affiliated, is lower than US$40/barrel, the domestic refined oil price will not be adjusted downward further (the floor price). The Notice states that when the price of crude oil in the international market is lower than US$40/barrel, which is the regulatory lower limit, the amount of refined oil price that has not been adjusted will be put into a risk reserve fund. A specific account will be set up for the fund. Government approval is required before the fund is applied and it will mainly be used for energy conservation, emission reduction, oil product quality upgrading and oil supply security. Specific management measures will be announced separately. As at the date of this announcement, the specific management measures have not been announced yet, and the Company has not withdrawn any risk reserve.

The forecasts above represent preliminary estimates only. Specific and accurate financial information will be disclosed in the 2016 third quarterly report to be officially published by the Company. Investors are advised to pay attention to investment risks.
