Item 8.01 Other Events

On September 29, 2016, G&K Services, Inc. (the Company) filed a definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A (the Definitive Proxy Statement) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the annual meeting of the Company's shareholders scheduled to be held on November 15, 2016 (the meeting), where, among other things, shareholders will vote on a proposal to approve the merger (the Merger) of Bravo Merger Sub, Inc. (Merger Sub), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cintas Corporation (Cintas), with and into the Company, and other transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 16, 2016, by and among the Company, Cintas and Merger Sub. The Company is electing to make the supplemental disclosures set forth below.

SUPPLEMENT TO PROXY STATEMENT

This supplemental information should be read in conjunction with the Definitive Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety. Page references in the below disclosures are to the Definitive Proxy Statement, and defined terms used but not defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Definitive Proxy Statement. Without admitting in any way that the disclosures below are material or otherwise required by law, the Company makes the following amended and supplemental disclosures:

The section of the Definitive Proxy Statement entitled THE MERGER (PROPOSAL 1) Background of the Merger is amended and supplemented as follows:

The disclosure on page 32 of the Definitive Proxy Statement is amended and supplemented by adding the following new sentence after the last sentence of the second full paragraph on such page:

The $100.00 per share price was determined by a consensus of the Company Board, with input from its advisors, to be an appropriate counterproposal to present to Cintas as part of the ongoing negotiations in order to increase the price per share of Company common stock to be paid by Cintas.

The section of the Definitive Proxy Statement entitled THE MERGER (PROPOSAL 1) Certain G&K Unaudited Prospective Financial Information is amended and supplemented as follows:

The disclosure on page 39 of the Definitive Proxy Statement is amended and supplemented by replacing the third footnote to the first and only table on such page with the following:

As described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 2, 2016, certain restricted stock awards granted under G&K's equity plans are considered participating securities as these awards receive non-forfeitable dividends at the same rate as common stock. Under the two-class method (an earnings allocation formula), earnings for a given period are allocated between common shareholders and other shareholders, based on their respective rights to receive dividends. Income allocable to participating securities is therefore deducted from net income when calculating net income available to common shareholders. Adjusted Net Income and Adjusted Earnings Per Share exclude income allocable to participating securities at an assumed allocation rate of 1.5% of net income from continued operations based on historical trends.

Consistent with G&K's regular practices, stock-based compensation is treated as a cash expense for the purposes of calculating Unlevered Free Cash Flow for the G&K Projections. Earnings before interest and taxes reflect a stock-based compensation expense of $6.5 million in 2016, $6.8 million in 2017, $7.0 million in 2018, $7.2 million in 2019, $7.4 million in 2020 and $7.6 million in 2021.

The disclosure on page 40 of the Definitive Proxy Statement is amended and supplemented by adding the following new section immediately before the section entitled "Opinion of BofA Merrill Lynch":

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a safe harbor from civil litigation for forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain, such as statements about the potential timing or consummation of the proposed transaction or the anticipated benefits thereof, including, without limitation, future financial and operating results. Forward-looking statements may be identified by words such as estimates, anticipates, projects, plans, expects, intends, believes, could, should, may and will or the negative versions thereof and similar expressions and by the context in which they are used. Such statements are based upon our current expectations and speak only as of the date made. These statements are subject to various risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in or implied by this Form 8-K. Factors that may cause such a difference include, but are not limited to, risks and uncertainties related to (i) the ability to obtain shareholder and regulatory approvals, or the possibility that they may delay the transaction or that such regulatory approval may result in the imposition of conditions that could cause the parties to abandon the transaction, (ii) the risk that a condition to closing of the merger may not be satisfied, (iii) the ability of the Company and Cintas to integrate their businesses successfully and to achieve anticipated cost savings and other synergies, (iv) the possibility that other anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction will not be realized, including without limitation, anticipated revenues, expenses, earnings and other financial results, and growth and expansion of the new combined company's operations, and the anticipated tax treatment, (v) potential litigation relating to the proposed transaction that could be instituted against the Company or Cintas or their respective directors, (vi) possible disruptions from the proposed transaction that could harm the Company's or Cintas' business, including current plans and operations, (vii) the ability of the Company or Cintas to retain, attract and hire key personnel, (viii) potential adverse reactions or changes to relationships with clients, employees, suppliers or other parties resulting from the announcement or completion of the merger, (ix) potential business uncertainty, including changes to existing business relationships, during the pendency of the merger that could affect the Company's and/or Cintas' financial performance, (x) certain restrictions during the pendency of the merger that may impact the Company's and/or Cintas' ability to pursue certain business opportunities or strategic transactions, (xi) continued availability of capital and financing and rating agency actions, (xii) legislative, regulatory and economic developments and (xiii) unpredictability and severity of catastrophic events, including, but not limited to, acts of terrorism or outbreak of war or hostilities, as well as management's response to any of the aforementioned factors. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed transaction, are more fully discussed in the Definitive Proxy Statement. While the list of factors presented here is, and the list of factors presented in the Definitive Proxy Statement are, considered representative, no such list should be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward-looking statements. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's or Cintas' consolidated financial condition, results of operations, credit rating or liquidity. Neither the Company nor Cintas undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances arising after the date on which they are made, except as required by law.
