Second Installment of the Class Action Agreement in the United States

Rio de Janeiro, July 3, 2018 Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. Petrobras, in connection with the Material Facts of 03/1/2018 and 06/25/2018, announces that the deposit of the second installment related to the Class Action settlement agreement in the United States was made yesterday, in the amount of US$ 983 million.

The company had already deposited the first installment of US$ 983 million on March 1, 2018, as disclosed in explanatory notes of the financial statements for the year 2017 and 1st quarter of 2018, and is expected to deposit the last installment of US$ 984 million by January 15, 2019.

The company reiterates that the agreement does not constitute admission of guilt or irregular conduct by Petrobras, recognized by the Brazilian authorities as a victim of the facts revealed by Operation Car Wash.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are subject to risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements, which address the Company's expected business and financial performance, among other matters, contain words such as believe, expect, estimate, anticipate, optimistic, intend, plan, aim, will, may, should, could, would, likely, and similar expressions cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. There is no assurance that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.

The Company's actual results could differ materially from those expressed or forecast in any forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of assumptions and factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) failure to comply with laws or regulations, including fraudulent activity, corruption, and bribery; (ii) the outcome of ongoing corruption investigations and any new facts or information that may arise in relation to the Lava Jato Operation; (iii) the effectiveness of the Company's risk management policies and procedures, including operational risk; and (iv) litigation, such as class actions or proceedings brought by governmental and regulatory agencies. A description of other factors can be found in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2017, and the Company's other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
