The Committee selects and appoints the Company's independent auditors.

The Committee has reviewed and discussed with management and the auditors the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ending August 31, 2004. Management has confirmed that the financial statements have been prepared with integrity, objectivity, and in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. The Committee has discussed with Moss Adams LLP the matters as required by Statement on Auditing Standard No. 61. This statement requires our independent auditors to provide us with additional information regarding the scope and results of their audit of the fiscal year end financial statements with respect to their responsibility under generally accepted auditing standards, significant accounting principles, management judgements and estimates, any significant audit adjustments, any disagreements with management, and any difficulties encountered in performing the audit.

The Committee has received from Moss Adams LLP a letter providing the disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 with respect to any relationships between them and the Company that in their judgement may reasonably be thought to bear on independence. The Committee has concluded that since there were no services other than audit and tax preparation, that their independence is maintained. Cumulative Voting. The proxy process does not permit shareholders to cumulate votes. No shareholder can cumulate votes unless the candidate or candidates' names for which such votes are to be cast have been placed in nomination prior to voting and a shareholder has given notice of the shareholder's intention to cumulate the shareholder's votes at the meeting and prior to the voting. If any shareholder has given such notice, all shareholders may cumulate their votes for candidates in nomination. The candidates receiving the highest number of votes of the shares entitled to be voted for them, up to the number of directors to be elected by such shares, are elected.

Proxies. The shares represented by proxies that are returned properly signed will be voted in accordance with the shareholders' directions. If the proxy card is signed and returned without direction as to how they are to be voted, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Board of Directors. Shareholders may revoke any proxy before it is voted by attendance at the meeting and voting in person, by executing a new proxy with a later date or by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company.
