"Liberty Disaster Relief Fund"

Tampa, FL -- A nationwide coalition of restaurants, including some of the country's largest casual chains, has designated Thursday, October 11, 2001 as an industry-wide fund-raising event, Dine Out for America, to raise monies to aid victims and their families affected by the attacks in New York City, Washington, D.C. and Pennsylvania.

This unprecedented initiative involves over 5,000 restaurants that have committed their resources in designating anywhere from a percentage of proceeds to 100% of daily sales for that day, which comes one month after the tragedy occurred. The fund-raising effort will directly benefit the American Red Cross and its Liberty Disaster Relief Fund.

Dine Out for America participants include a variety of America's favorite restaurants including Outback Steakhouse, Inc. (Outback Steakhouse, Carrabba's Italian Grill, Roy's, Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar, Lee Roy Selmon's), Brinker International (Chili's Grill & Bar, On the Border Mexican Grill & Cantina, Romano's Macaroni Grill), Carlson Restaurants Worldwide (T.G.I.Friday's, Pick Up Stix, Samba Room and other CRW brands), Darden (Red Lobster, The Oliver Garden), Lone Star Steakhouse & Saloon, Inc. (Lone Star Steakhouse & Saloon, Sullivan's Steakhouse, Del Frisco's Double Eagle Steak House), Restaurants Unlimited (Kincaid's, Palomino), Claim Jumper Restaurants and Friendly Ice Cream Corp.

The Dine Out for America idea was initially generated by several employees of Restaurants Unlimited. "People are truly interested in helping in whatever way possible," said CEO Steve Stoddard. "As the momentum continues to build within the restaurant industry, we will unite to show our support and solidarity during this difficult period and ultimately, raise millions of dollars."

According to Chris Sullivan, CEO of Outback Steakhouse, Inc., the company will contribute 100% of sales for all five of its concepts on October 11. This includes Outback Steakhouse, Carrabba's Italian Grill, Roy's, Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar and Lee Roy Selmon's.

"It is wonderful to see all of our key restaurant groups coming together to help in the aftermath of September 11 to make a significant contribution to victims and their families," says Sullivan. "Our restaurants have collectively been perceived as gathering places for family and friends, and our dining patrons will now have an opportunity to take an active role in reaching out to those in need during this tragic moment in world history."

Endorsed by the National Restaurant Association, the Dine Out for America coalition is encouraging all restaurant owners, operators, employees and patrons to get involved as well as foodservice suppliers, by donating time, effort and products. Restaurant employees can participate by volunteering to work on October 11 or donating a portion of their tips.
