Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers, Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 2, 2012, Amyris, Inc. (the Company) issued separation agreements to certain departing members of its management team, including the following former executive officers named in the Company's definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 2, 2012 (the Proxy Statement): Mario Portela, the Company's former President of Global Operations (principal operating officer) and Tamara Tompkins, the Company's former Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary. Under such separation agreements, Mr. Portela's employment separation date will be May 16, 2012 and Ms. Tompkins' employment separation date was May 2, 2012.

Each of such individuals is eligible to receive the severance payments (including base salary and COBRA benefits) contemplated in their offer letters as described in the Executive Compensation Potential Severance Payments upon Termination and upon Termination Following a Change in Control section of the Proxy Statement. In addition to such payments, under the separation agreements: (i) Mr. Portela will be eligible to receive reimbursement for up to $10,000 of relocation expenses, and 100% vesting of an award of 50,000 restricted stock units to be granted on May 7, 2012; and (ii) Ms. Tompkins will be eligible to receive acceleration of unvested restricted stock units subject to her outstanding restricted stock unit awards, and an extension of her exercise period for her outstanding stock options from three months to one year from her separation date. Under her separation agreement, Ms. Tompkins also received a retroactive base salary increase from $300,000 to $350,000 that was effective as of January 1, 2012, which increase will be reflected in the severance payments to her. As a condition of receiving such benefits, such individuals must execute a release in the Company's favor.
