PART III -- NARRATIVE

Transax International Limited, a Colorado corporation (the "Company") recently consummated the acquisition of Transax Limited in accordance with the terms and conditions of a Merger Agreement (the "Merger"). The consummation of the Merger has been reported in prior 8-K, 10-QSB, and 10-KSB filings made by the Company. The consummation of the Merger has raised certain complex accounting issues, including those associated with new business operations consisting of providing information network solutions specifically designed for the healthcare providers and health insurance companies and a change in fiscal year end to December 31. Management of the Company deems that additional time is necessary in order for the Company to compile the comparative data for the three months ended March 31, 2003, and properly prepare its reviewed financial statements and footnotes for the quarter ended March 31, 2004, and to ensure complete and thorough and accurate disclosure of all material facts in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB. Management of the Company anticipates completion of the reviewed financial statements and the filing of its Quarterly Report by May 20, 2004.
