FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS: NO ASSURANCES INTENDED

This Report contains certain forward-looking statements regarding Dongxing International Inc., its business and financial prospects. These statements represent Management's best estimate of what will happen. Nevertheless, there are numerous risks and uncertainties that could cause our actual results to differ dramatically from the results suggested in this Report. Among the more significant risks are:

We have no business operations and have no assets. Unless the Company obtains additional capital or acquires an operating company, the Company will not be able to undertake significant business activities.

The Company's business plan contemplates that it will acquire an operating company in exchange for the majority of its common stock. If that occurs, management will determine the nature of the company that is acquired, which is likely to be a company with which management has a pre-existing relationship. Investors in the Company will have to rely on the business acumen of management in determining that the acquisition is in the best interest of the Company. If management lacks sufficient skill to operate successfully, the Company's shares may lose value.

Because these and other risks may cause the Company's actual results to differ from those anticipated by Management, the reader should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements that appear in this Report.

Item 1. Business

Dongxing International Inc. was incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware on June 21, 2010 and has been inactive since inception. The Company intends to serve as a vehicle to effect an asset acquisition, merger, exchange of capital stock or other business combination with a domestic or foreign business. On April 21, 2011, the Company underwent a change of ownership when Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. (an Oklahoma corporation) purchased 100% of the Company's common stock from the Company's then sole shareholder. Shortly thereafter, the Company changed its name to that of its new parent entity; but later changed its name back to Apex 1, Inc.

On September 21, 2015, Cheng Zhao purchased 100% of the Company's outstanding common stock from its parent company, Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. On November 19, 2015 the Company changed its name to Dongxing International Inc.

For some period of time the Company has been exploring business opportunities that would involve the use of the Company as a shell in a reverse merger transaction, in which an operating company would be merged into Dongxing International Inc. in exchange for a majority of our capital stock. We expect that we will eventually complete such a transaction with a business with which our Chairman, Cheng Zhao, has experience. The business that we ultimately pursue will be determined by Mr. Cheng, who is the sole member of our board of directors. His decision will be based on the prospects for the business, the availability of capital to fund the business, and the potential benefits of the business to the shareholders of Dongxing International Inc.

Employees

We currently have no employees. The need for employees and their availability will be addressed in connection with the decision whether or not to acquire or participate in specific business opportunities.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Not applicable.

Item 1B. Unresolved Staff Comments

Not Applicable.

Item 2. Properties

We have no property, because we have no assets or employees. Our executive offices are maintained in the offices of Cheng Zhao. We do not compensate Cheng Zhao for this concession.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

None.

Item 4. Mine Safety Disclosures.

PART II

Item 5. Market For Registrant's Common Equity, Related Stockholder Matters And Issuer Purchases Of Equity Securities.

(a) Market Information

There has never been more than one shareholder of the Company. Accordingly, there has never been a market for the Company's common stock.

(b) Shareholders

Our shareholders list contains the name of one stockholder of record of the Company's Common Stock.

(c) Dividends

The Company has not, within the past decade, paid or declared any cash dividends on its Common Stock and does not foresee doing so in the foreseeable future. The Company intends to retain any future earnings for the operation and expansion of the business. Any decision as to future payment of dividends will depend on the available earnings, the capital requirements of the Company, its general financial condition and other factors deemed pertinent by the Board of Directors.

(d) Securities Authorized for Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans

The Company had no securities authorized for issuance under equity compensation plans as of December 31, 2015.

(e) Sale of Unregistered Securities

The Company did not issue any unregistered equity securities during the 4th quarter of fiscal 2015.

(f) Repurchase of Equity Securities

The Company did not repurchase any shares of its common stock during the 4th quarter of 2015.

Item 6. Selected Financial Data

Not applicable.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis

Results of Operations

We currently have no assets and no operations. During the year ended December 31, 2015, we realized no revenue and incurred $18,446 in operating expenses, resulting in a loss from operations and net loss in that amount. During the year ended December 31, 2014, we realized no revenue and incurred $23,151 in operating expenses, resulting in a loss from operations in that amount. The reduction in annual expenses was primarily attributable to the efficiencies implemented by new management in September 2015.

Control of the Company was transferred to Cheng Zhao in September 2015. Since that time, Mr. Cheng has financed our operations by making capital contributions to cover our expenses. We expect that Cheng Zhao will continue to fund our operations until we have completed an acquisition of an operating company, and that we will, therefore, have sufficient cash to maintain our existence as a shell company for the next twelve months, if necessary. Our management is not required to fund our operations, however, by any contract or other obligation.

Our major expenses consisted of fees to lawyers, accountants and other professionals necessary to maintain our standing as a fully-reporting public company. We do not expect the level of our operating expenses to change in the future until we undertake to implement a business plan or effect an acquisition.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Prior to September 21, 2015, when majority ownership of our company was transferred to Cheng Zhao, we had $135,721 in accounts payable due to our sole shareholder. That shareholder contributed the full amount of that obligation to the capital of the Company in connection with the transfer of control to Cheng Zhao. Subsequently, Mr. Cheng has financed the Company's operations by making capital contributions. Therefore at December 31, 2015 we had only $454 in liabilities, representing expenses not yet reimbursed by Mr. Cheng.

At December 31, 2015 we had a working capital deficit of $454, as we had no assets and $454 in liabilities. This represented an improvement from December 31, 2014, when we had a working capital deficit of $122,621, primarily as a result of the amounts then payable to Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. We expect our working capital to be nil or a small deficit for the indefinite future, as long as Cheng Zhao continues to contribute the sums necessary to pay our expenses.

Our operations used $19,235 in cash during the year ended December 31, 2015, as we incurred a loss of $18,446 and reduced our accounts payable and accrued expenses by $789 during that period. The cash used in operations was financed by the capital contributions of our shareholders. Our operations consumed $22,440 in cash during the year ended December 31, 2014, but Oz Saferooms loaned us that amount, resulting in no change in our cash balance. In the future, unless we achieve the financial and/or operational wherewithal to sustain our operations, it is likely that we will continue to rely on loans and capital contributions to sustain our operations.

To date we have supplied our cash needs by obtaining loans and capital contributions from shareholders. We expect that our President will fund our operations until we have completed an acquisition of an operating company and that we will, therefore, have sufficient cash to maintain our existence as a shell company for the next twelve months, if necessary.

Application of Critical Accounting Policies

Our financial statements and related public financial information are based on the application of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"). GAAP requires the use of estimates; assumptions, judgments and subjective interpretations of accounting principles that have an impact on the assets, liabilities, revenue, and expense amounts reported. These estimates can also affect supplemental information contained in our external disclosures including information regarding contingencies, risk and financial condition. We believe our use of estimates and underlying accounting assumptions adhere to GAAP and are consistently and conservatively applied. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ materially from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. We continue to monitor significant estimates made during the preparation of our financial statements.

Our significant accounting policies are summarized in Note 3 to our financial statements. While all these significant accounting policies impact its financial condition and results of operations, the Company views certain of these policies as critical. Policies determined to be critical are those policies that have the most significant impact on the Company's financial statements and require management to use a greater degree of judgment and estimates. Among our critical policies is the determination, described in Note 6 to our financial statements that the Company should record a valuation allowance for the full value of the deferred tax asset created by the net operating loss carryforward. The primary reason for the determination was the lack of assurance that it is more likely than not that the Company will carry on profitable operations in the future.

Actual results may differ from those estimates. Our management believes that given current facts and circumstances, it is unlikely that applying any other reasonable judgments or estimate methodologies would cause any effects on our results of operations, financial position or liquidity for the periods presented in this report.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition or results of operations.

Impact of Accounting Pronouncements

There have been no recent accounting pronouncements that have had, or are expected to have, a material effect on our financial statements.

Item 7a. Quantitative And Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders' of Dongxing International, Inc. (f/k/a Apex 1, Inc.)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Dongxing International, Inc., (f/k/a Apex 1, Inc.) as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the two years then ended. Dongxing International, Inc.'s management is responsible for these financial statements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Dongxing International, Inc. as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 4 to the financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses from operations, net capital deficiencies, and negative cash flows from operations that raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 4. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Dongxing International Inc. was incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware on June 21, 2010 and has been inactive since inception. The Company intends to serve as a vehicle to effect an asset acquisition, merger, exchange of capital stock or other business combination with a domestic or foreign business. On April 21, 2011, the Company underwent a change of ownership when Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. (an Oklahoma corporation) purchased 100% of the Company's common stock from the Company's then sole shareholder. Shortly thereafter, the Company changed its name to that of its new parent entity; but later changed its name back to Apex 1, Inc.

On September 21, 2015, Cheng Zhao purchased 100% of the Company's outstanding common stock from its parent company, Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. On November 19, 2015 the Company changed its name to Dongxing International Inc.

The Company currently has no business assets and no business operations.

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. In the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary in order to make the financial statements not misleading have been included. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method as stipulated by ASC 740, "Accounting for Income Taxes". Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss and tax credit carry forwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under ASC 740, the effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rate is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Deferred tax assets are reduced to estimated amounts to be realized by the use of the valuation allowance. A valuation allowance is applied when in management's view it is more likely than not that such deferred tax will not be utilized.

DONGXING INTERNATIONAL INC.

(formerly Apex 1, Inc.)

In the event that an uncertain tax position exists in which the Company could incur income taxes, the Company would evaluate whether there is a probability that the uncertain tax position taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities. Reserve for uncertain tax positions would then be recorded if the Company determined it is probable that a position would be sustained upon examination or if a payment would have to be made to a taxing authority and the amount is reasonably estimable. As of December 31, 2015, the Company does not believe it has any uncertain tax positions that would result in the Company having a liability to the taxing authorities. The Company's tax returns are subject to examination by the regulatory tax authorities for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011, and 2010.

Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Basic Earnings (Loss) Per Share

The Company follows ASC 260-10, "Earnings Per Share" in calculating the basic and diluted loss per share. The Company computes basic loss per share by dividing net loss and net loss attributable to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted loss per share considers the effect of common equivalent shares. There were no common share equivalents at December 31, 2015 or 2014.

Financial Instruments

The Company has adopted the provisions of ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures", ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value under generally accepted accounting principles and enhances disclosures about fair value measurements.

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Valuation techniques used to measure fair value, as required by ASC 820, must maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The standard describes a fair value hierarchy based on three levels of inputs, of which the first two are considered observable and the last unobservable, that may be used to measure fair value. The Company's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurements requires judgment, and may affect the valuation of the assets and liabilities being measured and their placement within the fair value hierarchy.

(formerly Apex 1, Inc.)

- Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 - Inputs other than Level 1 that are observable, either directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.
- Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

Impact of New Accounting Standards

The Company does not expect the adoption of recently issued accounting pronouncements to have a significant impact on the Company's results of operations, financial position, or cash flow.

NOTE 3. GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements are prepared using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America applicable to a going concern that contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company currently has no revenue source and has incurred an accumulated deficit of $142,067. These factors raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, and do not reflect any adjustments related to the uncertainty surrounding our recurring losses or accumulated deficit. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to secure sources of financing and attain profitable operations. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 4. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Edgar Filing: Dongxing International Inc. - Form 10-K

On April 21, 2011, Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc., an Oklahoma corporation, purchased 100% of the Company's outstanding common stock. Between that date and September 21, 2015, Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. loaned a total of $135,721 to the Company to pay its expenses. On September 21, 2015 Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. contributed that sum to the paid-in capital of the Company.

On September 21, 2015 Cheng Zhao purchased the outstanding shares of the Company from Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. Between that date and December 31, 2015, Mr. Cheng contributed $4,892 to the capital of the Company, which was used to pay its expenses.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTSNOTE 5. INCOME TAXES

Management believes that an “ownership change” as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 382 occurred in September 2015 upon the change of ownership control. Management is in the process of quantifying the effect of said ownership change. Accordingly, as of December 31, 2015, and the date of the Auditor’s Report, the effect on the financial statements of such change has not been determined. A summary of the limitations on the income tax utilization of Net Operating Losses (NOLs) is explained below.

Limitation on Utilization of NOLs due to Change in Control – Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code Section 382 (“Section 382”), certain ownership changes may subject the NOL’s to annual limitation which could reduce or defer the NOL. Section 382 imposes limitations on a corporation’s ability to utilize NOLs if it experiences an “ownership change.” In general terms, an ownership change may result from transactions increasing the ownership of certain stockholders in the stock of a corporation by more than 50 percentage points over a three-year period. In the event of an ownership change, utilization of the NOLs would be subject to an annual limitation under Section 382 determined by multiplying the value of its stock at the time of the ownership change by the applicable long-term tax-exempt rate. Any unused limitation may be carried over to later years. The imposition of the limitation on its ability to use the NOLs to offset future taxable income could cause the Company to pay U.S. federal income taxes earlier than if such limitation were not in effect and could cause such NOLs to expire unused, reducing or eliminating the benefit of such NOLs.

The financial statements do not include the effect of the limitation or loss of the NOLs due to a change in ownership.

A reconciliation of the differences between the effective income tax rate and the statutory federal tax rate for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 follows:

	2015		2014
Tax benefit at U.S. statutory rate	34.00	%	34.00	%
State taxes, net of federal benefit	—		—
Change in valuation allowance	(34.00)		(34.00)

The tax effect of temporary differences that give rise to the deferred tax asset and liabilities at December 31, 2015 and 2014 consisted of the following:

As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company had a net operating loss carry forward $142,067 and $123,621, respectively, for income tax reporting purposes that may be offset against future taxable income through 2035. Current tax laws limit the amount of loss available to be offset against future taxable income when a substantial change in ownership occurs. Therefore, the NOL amount available to offset future taxable income will be limited. No tax asset has been reported in the financial statements, because the Company believes there is a 50% or greater chance the carry forwards will expire unused.

Accordingly, the potential tax benefits of the loss carry-forwards are offset by a valuation allowance of the same amount.

NOTE 6. SHAREHOLDER'S EQUITY

The capital stock of the Company consists of :

- Common stock, $ 0.0001 par value: 250,000,000 shares authorized; 10,000,000 shares issued and outstanding.
- Preferred stock, $ 0.0001 par value: 5,000,000 shares authorized; no shares issued and outstanding.

Edgar Filing: Dongxing International Inc. - Form 10-K

Simultaneous with the sale by Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. of its 100% common stock interest in the Company to Cheng Zhao, Oz Saferooms Technologies, Inc. agreed to convert to equity 100% of the debt owed to it by the Company, resulting in a non-cash capital contribution of $135,721.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures. As of December 31, 2015, Cheng Zhao, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Based upon that evaluation, our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures have the following material weaknesses:

- Lack of a formal accounting department – We do not have an accounting department. We engage an independent bookkeeper to prepare our books and records and financial statements on a quarterly and annual basis. Due to the relative lack of activity, the accounting transactions are only recorded quarterly and annually and not when the transactions occur.
- Lack of segregation of duties – The chief executive officer also serves as the Company's chief financial officer. He approves all financial transactions including vendor invoices and payment of said invoices without any concurrent external review.

Based on his evaluation, Mr. Cheng concluded that the Company's system of disclosure controls and procedures was not effective as of December 31, 2015 for the purposes described in this paragraph.

Changes in Internal Controls. There was no change in internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act or 1934) identified in connection with the evaluation described in the preceding paragraph that occurred during Dongxing International Inc.'s fourth fiscal quarter that has materially affected or is reasonably likely to materially affect Dongxing International Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting.

Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. We have assessed the effectiveness of those internal controls as of December 31, 2015, using the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO") Internal Control – Integrated Framework (1992) as a basis for our assessment.

Because of inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies and procedures may deteriorate. All internal control systems, no matter how well designed, have inherent limitations. Therefore, even those systems determined to be effective can provide only reasonable assurance with respect to financial statement preparation and presentation.

A material weakness in internal controls is a deficiency in internal control, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the Company's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report external financial data reliably in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the Company's annual or interim financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected. In the course of making our assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls over financial reporting, we identified three material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting. These material weaknesses consisted of:

- Lack of a formal accounting department – We do not have an accounting department. We engage an independent bookkeeper to prepare our books and records and financial statements on a quarterly and annual basis. Due to the relative lack of activity, the accounting transactions are only recorded quarterly and annually and not when the transactions occur.
- Lack of segregation of duties – The chief executive officer also serves as the Company's chief financial officer. He approves all financial transactions including vendor invoices and payment of said invoices without any concurrent external review.

Management does not believe that the current level of the Company's operations warrants a remediation of the weaknesses identified in this assessment. However, because of the above condition, management's assessment is that the Company's internal controls over financial reporting were not effective as of December 31, 2015.

This annual report does not include an attestation report of the Company's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the Company's registered public accounting firm pursuant to rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission that permit the Company to provide only management's report in this annual report.
