Meetings, Compensation and Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board held 7 meetings during the fiscal year ended 31st December, 2005 and acted by unanimous written consent on 5 occasions.

The Board has determined, based on written inquiries, that its incumbent directors, Messrs. Allen Perl, Douglas Van and Jack W. Flader, Jr. have no relationship with the Company whatsoever other than in their respective capacities as directors and de minimis holdings of Grand ADSs and, accordingly, have no material relationship with the Company that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment and are otherwise independent under Rule 10A-3 of the Securities Exchange Act and Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4200(a)(15).

Audit Committee

The Board has a standing Audit Committee that is currently chaired by Mr. Perl and also includes Messrs. Van and Flader. The Board determined that Mr. Perl qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K of the Exchange Act. The current Audit Committee Charter adopted by the Board is filed as an exhibit to the Company's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Audit Committee met three times in the fiscal year ended 31st December, 2005.

The Audit Committee oversees the performance of independent accountants and internal auditors, monitors the financial reporting process and makes reports and recommendations to the Board. The Audit Committee also conducts an annual review of its charter and responsibilities.

Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee

The Company does not currently maintain a corporate governance and nominating committee. The Board terminated the charter of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee at a meeting held on 23rd March, 2005, after determining that, as a Controlled Company within the meaning of Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4350(c)(5), it was exempt from the requirement of maintaining the committee. HSIEH AND VAN AS DIRECTORS

APPROVAL OF PAYMENT OF DIRECTORS FEES

(PROPOSAL 3)

At a meeting of the directors held on 13th August, 2004, the Board authorised the payment to each director of an annual director's fee of US$25,000, payable quarterly in advance on the first day of each of January, April, July and October.

In addition, each director of the Company automatically receives quarterly grants of options to purchase 1,250 Grand ADSs at an exercise price equal to the average trading price of Grand ADSs on the date of grant; and each director who is not an employee of the Company receives additional quarterly grants of options to purchase 6,250 Grand ADSs at an exercise price equal to the average trading price of Grand ADSs on the date of grant.

Such payments and grants are typically made by companies such as the Company and the Board believes that such payments and grants were reasonable. A vote in favor of Proposal 3 will ratify the payments made to the directors during the year ended 31st December, 2005 and the grant of options to the directors.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE FEES PAID AND SHARE OPTIONS GRANTED TO THE DIRECTORS IN 2005

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

(PROPOSAL 4)

The Audit Committee and the Company's management are currently reviewing the Company's relationship with Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, its independent public accountants. Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu has acted as independent public accountant for the Company since 16th August, 2004. This review may result in a determination by the Company to appoint a new firm to audit and report on the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ending 31st December, 2006. There is no certainty that a determination will be made before the meeting. However, if a determination is made the Board will submit the firm to the Members for approval at the meeting.

Principal Accountant Fees and Services

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements and services provided in connection with statutory or regulatory filings or engagements were $676,400 and $523,300 in the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Audit-Related Fees. There were no fees billed by Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu for assurance and related services that were reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Tax Fees. The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu for professional services rendered for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning were $nil and $26,000 for the fiscal years ended December, 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The nature of the services performed for these fees was tax planning and advice.

All Other Fees. The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu for other fees were $48,616 and $26,518 for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The nature of the services performed for those fees was related to acquisitions and Sarbanes Oxley consulting. There were no other fees billed by Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy

The Audit Committee has established policies and procedures regarding pre-approval of all services provided by independent auditors. It is the policy of the Company that all services provided by the independent auditors shall be pre-approved by the Audit Committee and that the Company only engage the independent auditors to perform permissible non-audit services proscribed by law or regulation. Pre-approval must be detailed as to the particular services to be provided. The Audit Committee may give pre-approval of audit and permitted non-audit services at any time up to one year before the commencement of such services. The Chairman of the Audit Committee shall have, and the Audit Committee may delegate to any other member of the Audit Committee, the authority to grant pre-approval of permitted non-audit services between Audit Committee meetings, in which case, such decisions shall be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

ISSUANCE OF ORDINARY SHARES

(PROPOSAL 5)

Pursuant to the Company's Articles, the share capital of the Company is divided into 100,000,000 shares and the Company has power to issue any part of its capital with or without preference, priority or special privileges. As of November 21, 2006, of the 100,000,000 shares presently authorised, 17,494,140 Ordinary Shares, 2,000,000 Series A Shares, 10,840,598 Series B Shares and two non-voting deferred shares were issued and outstanding.

Under Hong Kong law, the Board is not permitted to issue shares without the approval of the Members. This is unlike the procedure in the United States where the board of directors of a corporation has the authority to issue shares without shareholder approval. However, it is customary for the members of a Hong Kong company to grant to the board of directors at each annual general meeting the authority to issue shares so that a company will be free to conduct business in the ordinary course.

The Board believes that the passing of an ordinary resolution to renew a general mandate authorizing the Board to exercise during the Relevant Period all the power of the Company to allot and issue all or any of the authorised but unissued Ordinary Shares to such persons and on such terms and conditions as they think fit is in the best interests of the Company. Relevant Period shall mean the period from the passing of the relevant resolution until the earlier of:

(i)

the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Company;

(ii)

the expiration of the period within which the next annual general meeting of the Company is required by the Articles or the Companies Ordinance (Cap. 32 of the Laws of Hong Kong) to be held; and the date on which the authority set out in the relevant resolution is revoked or varied by an ordinary resolution of the Members.

(iii)

The authorization will allow the Company to carry out the Company's obligations under the Grand Toys International, Inc. Amended and Restated Stock Option Plan, the Grand Toys International Limited 2004 Stock Option Plan, the outstanding options and warrants which have been granted outside of the two option plans and the Company's obligations to pay dividends on its Series A Shares and Series B Shares. It will also allow the Company to issue Ordinary Shares for other legitimate business functions, including for the purpose of raising capital or for completing acquisitions.

In deciding whether to approve Proposal 5, Members should consider that authorizing the Board to issue Ordinary Shares during the Relevant Period may be disadvantageous to the Members. The issuance of Ordinary Shares will dilute the relative interests of the Members. The Board may also authorize the issuance of Ordinary Shares at an offering price which may be below the then current market price of the Grand ADSs. In addition, although the Board's mandate is to make acquisitions which are accretive to the Company, there can be no assurances that an acquisition will perform as management may expect. By giving the Board discretion to issue Ordinary Shares during the Relevant Period, the Members are, therefore, also relinquishing their right to approve the specific transactions in respect of which Ordinary Shares are issued, except as may otherwise be required by the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO RENEW A GENERAL MANDATE AUTHORIZING THE BOARD TO ISSUE ORDINARY SHARES OF THE COMPANY DURING THE RELEVANT PERIOD.

In addition, CBIL, a company wholly beneficially owned by Mr. Hsieh, sold the entire issued share capitals of Hua Yang and Kord to the Company in December 2005 for a net purchase price of US$41,601,000. Such net purchase price was satisfied by issuing to CBIL 10,840,598 Series B Convertible Preference Shares. Since the Company, Hua Yang and Kord were under common-control by Mr. Hsieh prior to the Company's acquisition of Hua Yang and Kord, a deemed dividend of US$12,751,758 resulted for the year ended 31st December, 2005. Such deemed dividend was determined as being the market value of the Series B Convertible Preference Shares on the date of the public announcement of the transaction (November 30, 2005), net of US$2,399,000, representing intercompany indebtedness between the Company and its subsidiaries on the one hand and Hua Yang and Kord and their respective subsidiaries on the other hand, and CBIL's original aggregate acquisition cost for Hua Yang and Kord of US$31,247,000.

In conjunction with Cornerstone's acquisition of Kord Holdings, Inc. from Li San Tung in June 2004, Cornerstone issued a promissory note to Mr. Li in the principal amount of HK$23.3 million (US$3.0 million) which is convertible into 746,795 Grand ADSs that are owned by a Cornerstone subsidiary. Subsequent to the acquisition of Kord, on March 14, 2005, audited accounts revealed a purchase price adjustment which resulted in Cornerstone issuing an additional promissory note to Mr. Li in the principal amount of HK$2,243,941 (US$288,000) which is convertible into 71,921 Grand ADSs owned by a Cornerstone subsidiary. These promissory notes have a maturity date of July 30, 2006. As of November 15, 2006, Mr. Li has not exercised the notes and converted them into Grand ADSs.

Other than the transactions noted above, no contract of significance to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries was a party and in which a director of the Company had a material interest, whether directly or indirectly, subsisted at the end of the year or at any time during the year.

The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Grand Toys International Limited and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2005, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

GRAND TOYS INTERNATIONAL LIMITED

Notes to audited Consolidated Financial Statements

Grand Toys International Limited (the Company), a Nasdaq SmallCap listed company, is organized under the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China (Hong Kong). The Company's main operating subsidiaries are Hua Yang Holdings Co., Ltd. (Hua Yang), Kord Holdings, Inc. (Kord), and Playwell International Limited (Playwell), which are organized under the laws of Hong Kong, and Grand Toys International, Inc. (Grand US), which is organized under the laws of Nevada, United States of America (US). The Company, through its Hong Kong, US and Canadian operating subsidiaries, develops, manufactures and distributes toy and toy related products, prints and assembles books and specialty packaging and manufactures, distributes paper party goods and other licensed products throughout the world.

The Company was formerly a subsidiary of Grand US. It became the parent of Grand US on August 16, 2004, pursuant to a reorganization merger. Immediately after the reorganization merger, the Company acquired Playwell. For accounting purposes, the acquisition has been accounted for as a reverse acquisition, in which Playwell was the acquirer.

On March 1, 2005, Grand US acquired International Playthings Inc. (IPI), a New Jersey, US toy distributor (see note 22(b)). The operating results for IPI have been included in the consolidated results of the Company since March 1, 2005.

On December 23, 2005, the Company purchased the shares of Hua Yang and Kord, which were owned by Cornerstone Beststep International Limited (Cornerstone Beststep), a subsidiary of Cornerstone Overseas Investments Limited (Cornerstone). Hua Yang and Kord were acquired by Cornerstone on May 24, 2004 and June 18, 2004, respectively, and were subsequently transferred to Cornerstone Beststep. The Company, Hua Yang and Kord were under the common control of the Company's main shareholder, Jeff Hsieh, who owned beneficially 62% of the Company's outstanding shares and was the sole beneficial owner of Hua Yang and Kord. The purchase method of accounting for the business combination was used; however, due to the common control of the entities, the Company has restated its financial statements back to the date of common control as if Hua Yang and Kord were part of the Company on the dates that they were acquired by Cornerstone (see note 22(c)). Under this method of accounting, the excess of the value paid to Cornerstone Beststep over the original cost of Hua Yang and Kord is reflected as a non-recurring deemed dividend in the 2005 financial statements. Further, the Company's acquisition costs are treated as restructuring costs and recorded as an expense in the 2005 financial statements.

Through Hua Yang, on February 1, 2005 the Company acquired Eastern Raiser, a PRC company which engages in the printing and assembling of books and specialty packaging (see note 22(a)).

Significant accounting policies:

Principles of consolidation:

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and all its majority-owned subsidiaries and the variable interest entities in which the Company is deemed to be the primary beneficiary. All significant intercompany accounts, transactions and cash flows have been eliminated on consolidation.

b)

Revenue recognition:

Sales are recognized at the time of transfer of ownership, which is generally upon the shipment of products. The Company estimates liabilities and records provisions for customer allowances as a reduction of revenue when such revenue is recognized.

Net sales include gross revenues, freight charged to customers and FOB commissions, net of allowances and discounts such as defectives, returns, volume rebates, cooperative advertising, cash discounts, customer fines, new store allowances, markdowns, freight and warehouse allowances.

Cooperative advertising expense for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 were $420,215, $60,146 and $nil, respectively, and are shown as a reduction of gross sales in the financial statements.

Slotting fees are recorded as a deduction of gross sales. These fees are determined annually on a customer by customer basis.

c)

Cost of goods sold:

Cost of goods sold includes cost of merchandise, royalties, duties, brokerage fees, inbound freight, packaging, product development, provision on slow-moving inventory, mould amortization and depreciation on manufacturing equipment.

General and administrative costs:

General and administrative costs include rent, insurance costs, administrative salaries and related costs, travel and entertainment, utilities, courier, repairs and maintenance, communications expenses, office supplies, professional fees, dues and memberships, bank charges and property taxes.

e)

Selling and distribution expenses:

Selling and distribution expenses include sales salaries and fringe benefits, sales commissions, advertising and promotion and outbound shipping and handling costs.

For the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003, freight out was $4,337,258, $2,217,339 and $304,610, respectively.

Edgar Filing: GRAND TOYS INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 6-K

Media advertising expense for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 were $478,877, $48,265 and $7,992, respectively.

f)

Earnings per American depositary share (ADS):

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement (SFAS) No. 128, the weighted average shares outstanding, for purposes of presenting comparative earnings per ADS, is retroactively restated to January 1, 2002 in order to reflect the recapitalization that occurred on August 16, 2004. Each ADS represents beneficial ownership interest in one ordinary share of the Company.

i)

Basic earnings per ADS are determined by dividing the weighted average number of ADSs outstanding during the period into net earnings.

ii)

Diluted earnings per ADS give effect to all potentially dilutive ADSs that exist at the balance sheet date. The weighted average number of ADS outstanding is adjusted to include the number of additional ADS that would have been outstanding if the dilutive potential ADS had been issued.

g)

Trade receivables:

Trade accounts receivable are recorded at the invoiced amount and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts is the Company's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the Company's existing accounts receivable. The Company determines the allowance based on historical write-off experience. The Company reviews its allowance for doubtful accounts monthly. Past due balances over 90 days and over a specified amount are reviewed individually for collectibility. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote. The Company does not have any off-balance sheet credit exposure related to its customers.

h)

Inventory:

Inventory, consisting of raw materials, work in progress and finished goods, is valued at the lower of cost, determined by the first in, first out method or market value.

	December 31,
	2005	2004
		(as restated)
Raw materials	$ 6,893,270	$ 6,929,000

Work in Progress	5,718,946	5,254,338
Finished goods	11,631,375	2,757,349
Less provision	(3,908,524)	(3,932,637)
	$ 20,335,067	$ 11,008,050

i)

Prepaid expenses:

Prepaid expenses primarily include insurance, advances on inventory purchases, current portion of royalties and real estate taxes. Insurance costs are written off over the term of the respective policies.

Prepaid royalties relate to licensing agreements for properties licensed from third parties, including character licenses. Some of these contracts extend for up to four years. Total expense for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 was $2,625,226 $309,578 and $166,178, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003, in the consolidated statements of operations, $1,277,222, $247,430 and $166,178, respectively, is shown as part of cost of goods sold, and $1,348,004, $62,148 and $nil, respectively, is shown as part of general and administrative expenses. The amounts expected to be recognized in the statement of operations during the fiscal years ending December 31, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 are $964,406, $436,024, $366,703 and $257,860, respectively.

Prepaid property taxes are amortized on a straight-line basis over the period to which they relate. The amount expected to be recognized in the statement of operations during 2006 is $5,374.

Prepaid land lease payments are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is provided over the term of the lease on a straight- line basis.

j)

Fixed assets:

Fixed assets are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization are calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. If an item is discontinued, the unamortized portion is written off immediately. During 2005, approximately $969,546 of unamortized moulds for discontinued products were written off. The maximum estimated useful lives of the assets are as follows:

Asset	Useful Lives (in years)
Building	50
Leasehold improvements	3 - 10
Plant & machinery	10
Motor vehicles	3-4
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	3 - 5
Moulds and loose tools	2 - 5

During 2005, the Company revised the estimated useful life of the moulds in order to properly approximate the remaining useful life of these assets, which was based on the revised license term. The additional depreciation resulting from this change is approximately $52,020.

k)

Leased assets:

Leases are classified as finance leases when the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the assets concerned to the Company. Assets held under finance leases are capitalized at their fair values at the date of acquisition. The corresponding liability to the lessor, net of interest charges, is included in the balance sheet as a finance lease obligation. Finance costs, which represent the difference between the total leasing commitments and the fair value of the assets acquired, are charged to the income statement over the period of the relevant lease so as to produce a constant periodic rate of charge on the remaining balance of the obligations for each accounting period.

All other leases are classified as operating leases and the annual rentals are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the relevant lease term.

Investment securities:

Investment securities represented investment in listed securities, which the Company has classified as trading securities. Securities classified as trading securities are stated at fair value with unrealized gains and losses credited or charged to the consolidated statement of operations. Realized gains and losses on the sale of the trading securities are determined using the specific-identification method and are reflected in other income (expenses).

	December 31,
	2005	2004
		(as restated)
Equity securities listed in United states	$ 6,387	$ 31,859

Investment securities in 2004 represented 634,921 ordinary shares of a company incorporated in the United States whose shares are listed on The NASDAQ National Market in the United States of America. At 31 December 2005 and 2004, the fair value of this investment, as determined based on the quoted market price which was approximately $6,387 and $31,859, respectively. In the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, an impairment loss of approximately $25,477 and $31,785, respectively was recognized.

m)

Goodwill:

Goodwill represents the excess of costs over fair value of assets of businesses acquired. The Company adopted the provisions of SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. Goodwill and intangible assets acquired in a purchase business combination and determined to have an indefinite useful life are not amortized, but instead tested for impairment at least annually in accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 142. SFAS No. 142 also requires that intangible assets with finite useful lives be amortized over their respective estimated useful lives to their estimated residual values, and reviewed for impairment in accordance with SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-lived Assets.

The management evaluated the impairment of goodwill in two steps: (1) the identification of potential impairment by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount, including goodwill and (2) the measurement of the amount of goodwill impaired by comparing the implied fair value of the reporting unit goodwill with the carrying amount of that goodwill and recognizing a loss by the excess of the latter over the former. For assessment of impairment loss, the Company will measure fair value based either on internal models or independent valuations.

The annual test performed under SFAS No. 142 during 2005 resulted in $10,526,000 of impairment of goodwill relating to the goodwill attributable to the North America distribution due to a reduction in sales forecast for certain product lines held by this reporting unit.

n)

Intangibles:

Intangibles are carried at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The maximum estimated useful lives of the assets are as follows:

Asset

Useful Lives (in years)

License	5
Distribution network	10
Customer relationship	7-15
Trade name for IPI	4-10
Trade name for Grand US	Indefinite
Trademark	6-7
Other acquired rights	0-15

o)

Impairment of long-lived assets:

The Company evaluates the recoverability of long-lived assets with finite lives in accordance with SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. SFAS No. 144 requires long-lived assets, such as property, plant and equipment, and purchased intangibles subject to amortization, to be reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the asset. During 2005, approximately $2,727,579 of assets was impaired, consisting of:

Asset		Amount
License	$	1,961,867
Moulds		765,712
Total	$	2,727,579

Goodwill and intangible assets not subject to amortization are tested annually for impairment, and are tested for impairment more frequently if events and circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired. An impairment loss is recognized to the extent that the carrying amount exceeds the asset's fair value.

p)

Incomes taxes:

The Company follows the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under the asset and liability method, the change in the net deferred tax asset or liability is included in the computation of net income. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted or substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Deferred tax assets are evaluated and, if realization is not considered to be more likely than not, a valuation allowance is provided.

Foreign currency translation:

All transactions in currencies other than functional currencies during the year are translated at the exchange rates prevailing on the respective transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities existing at the balance sheet date denominated in currencies other than functional currencies are measured at the exchange rates existing on that date. Exchange differences are recorded in the consolidated statement of operations.

The functional currencies of the Company and its subsidiaries and variable interest entities include Renminbi, Canadian dollars, United States dollars or Hong Kong dollars. The consolidated financial statements of the Company are presented in United States dollars. The financial statements of the Company and all of its subsidiaries and variable interest entities with functional currencies other than the United States dollars, the reporting currency, are translated in accordance with SFAS No. 52, Foreign Currency Translation . All assets and liabilities are translated at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date and all income and expense items are translated at the average rates of exchange over the year. All exchange differences arising from the translation of financial statements are recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income

Employee stock option plan:

The Company accounts for its employee stock option plans in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. As such, compensation expense is recorded on the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeds the exercise price. SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, allows entities to continue to apply the provisions of APB Opinion No. 25 and requires pro-forma net earnings and pro-forma earnings per share disclosures for employee stock option grants as if the fair-value-based method defined in SFAS No. 123 had been applied.

The disclosure under SFAS No. 123 (as amended by SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure) are as follows:

Comprehensive income:

Comprehensive income consists of net income and cumulative currency translation adjustments and is presented in the consolidated statements of shareholders' equity and comprehensive income.

Variable interest entities:

Under US GAAP, when an entity holds a variable interest in another entity and that entity does not have sufficient equity or the equity security lacks decision-making authority or the rights to expected residual returns or exposure to expected losses, the entity is required to consolidate this variable interest entity (VIE) under FASB Interpretation No. 46 Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (FIN46R). Consolidation under the variable interest model does not consider voting rights or governance provisions and does not require the ownership of any common stock. Where FIN46R is applicable, the holder of a variable interest(s) that shares in the majority of the economic risks and rewards (measured using the expected losses and expected residual returns of the VIE) must consolidate the VIE.

On December 23, 2005, the Company acquired Kord which together with its subsidiaries is principally engaged in trading and manufacturing of party products and accessories. As Kord does not directly own resources to perform the manufacturing process of the party products and accessories, it subcontracts the manufacturing process to five entities which were established in the PRC and are beneficially owned by the related companies of the Company. During the manufacturing process, Kord will provide the machinery and inventories to these entities and also reimburse the direct overhead costs incurred by these PRC entities by means of subcontracting fee. Hence, the losses incurred by these entities are expected to be absorbed by Kord as a result of the sub-contracting arrangement. In view that Kord is the primary beneficiary of these entities and also will absorb the expected losses incurred by these entities, the Company has consolidated these entities since the date that Cornerstone acquired Kord, i.e. July 1, 2004.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts of certain assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of and during the reporting periods. Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the carrying amount of goodwill, fixed assets, intangibles, valuation allowances for receivables, inventories and reserves for warranties and product returns. Actual results may differ from such estimates. Differences from those estimates are recorded in the period they become known.

v)

Cash and cash equivalents:

The Company considers all liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when acquired to be cash equivalents.

w)

Recent accounting pronouncements:

In November 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 151, Inventory Costs - an amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4. SFAS No. 151 clarifies the accounting that requires abnormal amounts of idle facility expenses, freight, handling costs, and spoilage costs to be recognized as current-period charges. It also requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. SFAS No. 151 is effective for inventory costs incurred on or after July 1, 2005. The Company adopted SFAS No. 151 effective July 1, 2005 and there were no material impacts on the results presented.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 123R, Share-Based Payment. This statement is a revision to SFAS No. 123 and supersedes APB Opinion No. 25. This statement establishes standards for the accounting for transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services, primarily focusing on the accounting for transactions in which an entity obtains employee services in share-based payment transactions. Entities will be required to measure the cost of employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments based on the grant-date fair value of the award (with limited exceptions). That cost will be recognized over the period during which an employee is required to provide service, the requisite service period (usually the vesting period), in exchange for the award. The grant-date fair value of employee share options and similar instruments will be estimated using option-pricing models. If an equity award is modified after the grant date, incremental compensation cost will be recognized in an amount equal to the excess of the fair value of the modified award over the fair value of the original award immediately before the modification. This statement is effective as of the beginning of the first fiscal year that begins after June 15, 2005. In accordance with the standard, the Company will adopt SFAS No. 123R effective January 1, 2006.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, Exchanges of Non-Monetary Assets – an Amendment of APB Opinion No. 29. SFAS No. 153 amends APB Opinion No. 29, Accounting for Non-Monetary Transactions. The amendments made by SFAS No. 153 are based on the principle that exchanges of non-monetary assets should be measured based on the fair value of the assets exchanged. Further, the amendments eliminate the exception for non-monetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replace it with a general exception for exchanges of non-monetary asset exchanges that do not have commercial substance. The provisions in SFAS No. 153 are effective for non-monetary assets exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2005. Early application of the SFAS No. 153 is permitted. The provisions of this Statement shall be applied prospectively. The Company adopted SFAS No. 153 effective July 1, 2005 and there were no material impacts on the results presented.

In May 2005, the FASB issues SFAS No. 154, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections – a replacement of APB Opinion No. 20 and FASB Statement No. 3. This statement supersedes APB Opinion No. 20, Accounting changes and SFAS No. 3, Reporting Accounting changes in Interim Financial Statements. SFAS No. 154 requires retrospective application to prior periods – financial statements of changes in accounting principles, unless it is impracticable to determine the period-specific effects or the cumulative effect of the change. APB Opinion No. 20 previously required that most voluntary changes in accounting principle be recognized by including in net income of the period of the change the cumulative effect of changing to the new accounting principle. SFAS No. 154 will be effective for accounting changes and corrections of errors made in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2005.

In June 2006, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109", or FIN 48. FIN 48 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. The interpretation prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. FIN 48 also provides accounting guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company will adopt the provisions of FIN 48 on January 1, 2007. The Company is currently in the process of assessing the impact of FIN 48 on its results of operations and financial condition.

The recourse provision provides that if customer banks do not make the required payments, Playwell's and Hua Yang's banks would have recourse to Playwell and Hua Yang for the full amount. In the opinion of management, the likelihood of such occurrence is remote.

North America:

The Company finances its North American operations through a \$15.0 million revolving credit facility agreement with Citibank N.A., expiring on June 30, 2006. The borrower on this facility is IPI and the facility includes a \$2.0 million sub-limit for Grand Toys Ltd., Grand US's Canadian subsidiary. The facility is uncommitted and Citibank has the right to refuse to make advances in its sole discretion. The interest rate on the revolving loan payable is London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 175 basis points or U.S. prime $\frac{1}{2}$ %, at the Company's election. The loan is collateralized by all of IPI's assets and a \$4.3 million (CA\$ 5.0 million) guarantee from Grand Toys Ltd. and there are covenants and cross defaults attached to the facility. Borrowing is limited based on a borrowing base formula consisting of eligible receivables and inventory. As of December 31, 2005, the amount outstanding was approximately \$5.7 million.

Prior to October 2005, IPI had a $10.0 million limit on its revolving facility and Grand Canada had a line of credit with Montcap Financial to finance its inventory and accounts receivable for advances of up to $3.0 million (CA$3.5 million). The Grand Canada receivable line had a discount fee of 2.0% of invoice amount purchased and the inventory line bore interest at Canadian prime plus 7.5%. The line of credit was secured by a lien on the assets of Grand Toys Ltd. and had no debt covenants or cross-default provisions. As of December 31, 2004, the amount outstanding with Montcap was approximately $352,000.

IPI failed to satisfy certain covenants of the credit facility on December 31, 2005 and received a waiver from Citibank through May 15, 2006. As of May 15, 2006, the covenants were not satisfied and on June 30, 2006 Citibank stated that they will not extend the revolving credit facility and Citibank issued a reservation of rights letter on July 21, 2006. In the reservation of rights letter, Citibank stated that at this time, they will not demand immediate repayment of all sums owing under the credit facility. The balance of $10,484,000 was all converted to a prime rate loan with a maturity date of September 30, 2006 and remains outstanding as of November 15, 2006 as the Company seeks alternative financing for its North American operations. The Company has identified several alternative financing options for its North American facility and expects to replace the Citibank facility in the near future. The terms of the replacement facility have not yet been finalized.

Hong Kong and China:

The Company finances its Hong Kong and China operations through facilities at Industrial and Commercial Bank of China (Asia) Limited, (ICBC), KBC Bank N.V. (KBC), DBS Bank (Hong Kong) Limited (DBS), Hang Seng Bank Limited and East Asia GE Commercial Finance.

Bank borrowings of the Hong Kong subsidiaries are secured by guarantees by each of their respective subsidiaries, as well as guarantees by the Company, Cornerstone and Mr. Hsieh, certain inventories acquired and released under the trust receipt loans, pledge of bank deposits of $27,048 (2004 - $597,464), and monies debentures over certain assets and certain properties. As of December 31, 2005, the Hong Kong-based subsidiaries had approximately $16.7 million of short-term bank indebtedness outstanding and approximately $5.1 million of long-term debt. As of December 31, 2004, the Hong Kong-based subsidiaries had approximately $11.8 million of short-term bank indebtedness outstanding and approximately $789,000 of long-term debt.

Hua Yang:

As at December 31, 2005, Hua Yang has short term indebtedness including bank overdraft, secured trust receipt loans, export loans and unsecured bank loan amount to an aggregate of $19.2 million. The borrowings carry variable-rate interest at Hong Kong Interbank offered Rate (HIBOR) or LIBOR or prime rate plus certain basis points. Interest is re-priced every three months with the range of interest rates at 1.8% to 7% (01.04.2004 to 31.12.2004: 1.3% to 5%). Bank borrowings were secured by the following:

- (a) corporate guarantees from the ultimate holding Company, Cornerstone Overseas Investments Limited;
- (b) personal guarantees from Jeff Hsieh;
- (c) certain inventories acquired and released under the trust receipt loans; and
- (d) in the case of certain bank loans, corporate guarantees from Zindart Limited, the previous owner of Hua Yang.

During the year, ICBC ceased extending credit to Hua Yang at the time of the Company's acquisition of Hua Yang, but ICBC agreed to allow Grand to gradually pay down the existing balances by October 2006. These amounts are being repaid through cash generated from operations and through replacement facilities at other banking institutions.

Accordingly, the total outstanding balance under such credit facility amounted to $5.5 million. As of October 31, 2006, the $2.6 million outstanding balance on an overdraft facility with ICBC was linked with availability on another facility at ICBC used by Jeff Hsieh with the understanding that this would be paid down by the end of 2006.

However, as of November 6, 2006, the $4.5 million balance on the ICBC tem loan was assumed by Jeff Hsieh for a loan to be repaid in monthly installments beginning January 2007 and ending June 2008 at an interest rate of prime plus 1%. Accordingly, $3.1 million and $1.4 million of such loan from Jeff Hsieh will be repayable in 2007 and 2008, respectively. As a result of the refinancing, the obligation has been reclassified as long term.

Kord:

As at December 31, 2005, Kord has short term indebtedness including bank overdraft, secured trust receipt loans and unsecured term loan. The unsecured term loan bears interest rate of 5.75% per annum and repayable by 60 monthly installments commencing from October, 2004. The aggregate annual repayments of the term loan as at the balance sheet dates are as follows:

		2005	2004
2005	$	-	191,989
2006		194,649	193,995
2007		206,141	205,637
2008		218,312	217,778
2009		172,003	171,582
Total	$	791,105	980,981

The trust receipt loans of $1.4 million as at December 31, 2005 were secured by the following:

- (a) an unlimited personal guarantee executed by Jeff Hsieh
- (b) pledged deposits in the name of Jeff Hsieh; and

(c) a corporate guarantee executed by the ultimate holding company, Cornerstone Overseas Investments Limited

The above variable-rate borrowings carry interest at HIBOR + 1% per annum. The effective interest rate is equal to contracted interest rate.

Warrants issued in 2005 have a weighted average fair value of $0.87, which is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with a weighted average expected life of 2 years, risk-free interest rate of 3.90%, and a volatility factor of 77.7%.

For the options and other warrants, the weighted average fair value of options granted in 2005 was $0.87, which is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions used:

For the year ended December 31, 2005

Weighted average expected life (years)	3
Risk-free interest rate, average of grant dates	3.97%
Volatility factor of expected market price of Company's ADSs	62.8%
Dividend rate	-

Pro-forma information regarding net earnings and earnings per ADS is required by SFAS No. 123, and has been determined as if the Company had accounted for its employee stock options under the fair value method of that statement (note 2(r)).

The Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options which have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Because the Company's stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect their fair value estimate, in management's opinion, the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of its stock options.

Compensation income of $4,336 was recorded for the year ended December 31, 2005, as a result of the application of variable accounting to modified awards.

Weighted average number of ADS shares for the purposes of diluted earnings (loss) per ADS share	18,191,015	12,807,160	10,000,000

The Series A and Series B Shares are included in the calculation of the diluted weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding as each holder of Series A and Series B Shares are entitled to convert at any time and from time to time, subject to the automatic conversion terms, any or all of such holder's Series A Shares and Series B Shares.

There is no dilutive effect as the conversion of Company's outstanding Series A and Series B Shares would result in an increase in earnings per share.

For the year ended December 31, 2005, options and warrants to purchase 2,567,475 ADSs (December 31, 2004 - 316,250) were not included in the diluted earnings per ADS calculation as the options exercise price was greater than the average market price of the ADS..

The settlement was recorded in the December 31, 2004 results. In the opinion of management, it is difficult to ascertain or estimate the value of a settlement, if any, of the remaining claim.

On May 21, 2003, Grand US was named in a lawsuit for an alleged defective product causing personal injury. Grand US was acting as an agent for the vendor of the alleged defective product. This case was settled in February 2005 and the settlement was covered by insurance.

On March 3, 2006, Grand Toys International Limited was named in a lawsuit for an alleged breach of a business advisory agreement. This suit is expected to be settled for a payment of $67,500 and this expense will be reflected in the 2006 financial statements.

In July 2006, two Hong Kong based employees were terminated for cause and the Company sued the employees for misconduct. The employees sued the Company for the balance of payments on their contracts. One employee subsequently withdrew his claim and the remaining employment claim is for approximately $150,000. Both cases are still pending. If the employees are found guilty of misconduct, the claim for unpaid salary is invalid.

The Company does not believe that the ultimate resolution of the unresolved claims will have a material adverse effect on the Company's liquidity, financial condition or results of operations.

Acquisition:

(a) On February 1, 2005, Hua Yang acquired Eastern Raiser, a PRC printing company.

Pursuant to the purchase agreement, the purchase price for the assets was approximately $7.6 million, of which approximately $6.4 million was paid in cash at closing with the remainder to be paid in cash in 3 equal installments on the first, second and third anniversary of the closing date. Acquisition costs relating to this acquisition were approximately $60,000.

The following table summarizes the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities:

	(Amounts reported in thousands)
Fixed assets	$	5,156
Intangible assets		476
Goodwill		5,185
Current liabilities		(2,653)

The acquired intangible assets consist of:

Customer relationship	$	458

Total intangible assets	$	476

The Company engaged American Appraisal Consultants, an independent valuator, to perform a purchase price allocation review of this transaction.

(b) On March 1, 2005, the Company acquired the assets of New Jersey based IPI, a distributor of a broad range of toys primarily to the consumer specialty markets in the US and Canada.

Pursuant to the asset purchase agreement, the purchase price for the assets was $8,862,000, of which $7,262,000 was paid in cash and $1,600,000 was paid by the delivery of 582,730 ADSs. Acquisition costs relating to this acquisition were approximately $853,000. In order to finance the cash portion of the purchase price and to provide ongoing working capital for IPI, the Company sold to Centralink the Exchangeable Note in the principal amount of US$7,675,000 for proceeds of US$7,400,000. The Exchangeable Note was sold at a US$275,000 discount in order to compensate the ultimate beneficial owner of Centralink, who is also the controlling shareholder of the Company, for providing the sellers of IPI with the option to require Centralink to purchase the portion of the purchase price paid in ADSs after the first anniversary of the closing of the IPI acquisition. The Exchangeable Note bore interest at 15% per annum and was exchanged for 2,000,000 Series A Shares of the Company when the issuance of the Series A Shares was approved by the Company's shareholders at the Company's 2005 Annual General Meeting on April 15, 2005.

The conversion feature relating to the preferential conversion price of the Series A Shares has been valued at $991,426, based on the difference between the effective conversion price and the market price of the ADSs at the March 1, 2005 issuance date of the Exchangeable Note. This value is considered to be deemed dividends to the holder of the Series A Shares and reduces earnings available to the ADS shareholders.

The total amount recorded in additional paid in capital as of December 31, 2005 was as follows:

	(Amounts reported in thousands)
Exchangeable Note	$	7,415
ADSs issued to IPI sellers on Acquisition		1,701

(c) Pursuant to the agreement under which the Company acquired Kord and Hua Yang on December 23, 2005, the purchase price for the shares was $44,000,000, net of the settlement of inter-company balances of $2,399,000 for a net purchase price of $41,601,000. The net purchase price was satisfied by issuing 10,840,598 Series B Shares. The Company's acquisition costs relating to this acquisition were approximately $500,000. Since Hua Yang and Kord were under common-control prior to the Company's acquisition, a deemed dividend of $12,751,758 resulted for the year 2005. The deemed dividend was determined as the fair value of the Series B Shares on the date of the public announcement of the transaction (November 30, 2005), net of the intercompany debt forgiveness and Cornerstone's basis in Hua Yang and Kord.

The following table summarizes the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed:

Subsequent events:

In June 2006, the Company terminated the operations of Playwell's subsidiary, Gatelink. Gatelink manufactured moulds for products developed by Playwell and on an OEM basis for third parties. Historically, a significant portion of Gatelink's operations involved making moulds for Marvel product lines licensed by Toy Biz Worldwide Limited (Toy Biz). During the year ended December 31, 2004 and 2005, Gatelink s operations generated income of $857,088 and $581,301, respectively. The lower net income resulted from a decrease in the number of Marvel products introduced in 2005. Toy Biz no longer has the rights to develop and distribute the Marvel line of products which eliminated Gatelink s primary source of revenue. In order to develop new business required to operate Gatelink profitably, the Company would have had to invest significant capital in new tooling equipment for Gatelink. Management concluded that such an investment is not in the best interests of the Company as future profitability was uncertain and even if profits were generated from future operations, they might not be sufficient to offset the investment costs. The termination of Gatelink s operations will result in approximately $100,000 of charges for fiscal 2006 and this will be funded with cash generated from operations..

In July 2006, the Company decided not to renew an existing license agreement with Binney & Smith for the Crayola dough product line beyond December 2006. The Crayola dough line was a key element of the Company s plan to enter the US mass market for toys. The product line has been unprofitable, and the Company could not foresee this changing in the near future. The Company is also discontinuing certain other product lines targeted towards the US mass market and, in the future, the Company may de-emphasize its efforts to enter the US mass market for toys. The termination of the Binney & Smith license as well as the other product lines has resulted in a write-off of goodwill of approximately $10.5 million and an acceleration of amortization of intangibles relating to the Binney & Smith license of approximately $2.0 million in 2005. The Company estimates that this discontinuance of business will result in additional charges in 2006; however, these charges are not yet quantifiable as the Company continues to negotiate certain settlements on outstanding minimum royalty obligations for certain licenses for which the Company may not reach the minimum guarantees. The Company expects to be able to fund these settlements with cash generated from operations and the existing or future working capital facilities.

In October 2006, the Company decided to discontinue distributing toy and toy-related products to the mass market in Canada and cease the operations of its Canadian subsidiary, Grand Toys Ltd. (Grand Canada), which conducted the Company s Canadian mass market sales efforts, at the end of 2006. For the year ended December 31, 2005, Grand Canada s sales were approximately $7.7 million and the operations resulted in a loss of $334,000. Management determined that future profitability of its Canadian mass market operations was uncertain. The Company expects that the costs to close this operation, which include employee severance costs, and amounts relating to the lease in Montreal, could be as high as $1.2 million in 2006 and 2007. The Company expects that funds received from selling existing inventory and collecting all receivables will be sufficient to cover the closing costs indicated above.

On July 18, 2006, the Company received a Nasdaq Staff Determination stating that as a result of its failure to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F by July 15, 2006, the Company was not in compliance with the requirements for continued listing on Nasdaq as set forth in Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4320(e)(12). As a result, Grand s ADSs would be delisted from the Nasdaq SmallCap Stock Market on July 27, 2006 unless the Company requested a hearing to appeal the delisting determination. The delay was a result of the acquisitions in December 2005 of Hua Yang Holdings Company Limited and Kord Holdings, Inc., which were under common control with the Company, requiring the Company to restate its financial statements back to the date of common control as if Hua Yang and Kord were part of the Company on May 24, 2004 and June 18, 2004, the respective dates that ownership of Hua Yang and Kord was acquired by the Company s controlling shareholder. Due to the complexity of the restatement, the Company has not completed the restated financial statements. The Company appealed the delisting determination and on October 20, 2006 received notification that the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel has determined to grant the Company s request for continued listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market subject to the Company s filing the Form 20-F Annual Report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and all applicable restatements, on or before November 15, 2006.

On November 6, 2006, the unpaid balance of approximately $4.5 million on the Hua Yang term loan from the ICBC was assumed by Jeff Hsieh. The new term loan between Hua Yang and Jeff Hsieh will be repaid in monthly installments beginning January 2007 and ending June 2008 and at an interest rate of prime plus 1%. The Company believes that Hua Yang can support the loan repayment with cash generated from operations and existing and future working capital facilities.
