Businesses Performance - Consolidated

Gross sales totaled R$ 15.720 billion, up 15.0%, benefited by the 132 stores opened in the last 12 months, of which 20 were opened in 3Q13. Same-store sales increased 10.8%, as detailed below:

ü Food Categories: up 7.9%, mainly due to perishables sales performance: meat, fruits and vegetables. The growth above inflation (IPCA consumer price index) represents an acceleration over 1H13.

ü Non-food Categories: up 13.1%, mainly due to technology-related products sales performance: mobile phones, tablets and TVs, posting growth in all formats operated by the Company. Both specialized stores (Pontofrio and Casas Bahia) and e-commerce accelerated sales growth compared to previous quarters, while hypermarkets continue to improve sales in these categories.

GPA Food Highlights

ü Gross sales increased 12.9%, highlight to Assaí banner that continued posting double-digit growth (37.4%). In a same-store sales basis, the growth was 7.1%. In the quarter, 12 Minimercado, 2 Assaí and 1 Pão de Açúcar were opened, totaling 15 stores.

ii Assaí's main strategy in 2H13 is to enter in States which already holds its stores. In the last 9 months, 8 new stores were opened - in five in new states - posting growth above expectation. At least five new stores will be delivered until the end of 2013.

ii The Company is investing in price competitiveness in the retail segment, to increase store traffic and gain market share. This strategy should be continued over the next quarters. Sales of non-food categories in the hypermarkets improved mainly due to the successful marketing campaigns of electronics.

Viavarejo Highlights

ü Gross revenue totaled R$ 7.3 billion, up 17.6% over 3Q12. Sales continued to accelerate in all businesses (bricks and mortar and e-commerce). The Company believes that sales growth were higher than the competitors, leading to market share gains in the period. In 3Q13, five new stores were opened. Same-store sales increased 15.4%;

ü Bricks and mortar: same-store sales growth was 10.8%, mainly driven by technology-related categories, highlighting the mobile phones, tablets and TVs sales performance;

ü Nova Pontocom: gross sales increased 43.9%, the highest quarterly growth over the past 12 quarters, due to more competitive pricing. The result was driven by the increase of customers' traffic in the websites and higher conversion rate.

The information presented is preliminary, unaudited and subject to review. It is based on consolidated figures and denominated in Reais, in accordance with Brazilian Corporate Law.

The change and growth calculations are based on the same period in the previous year, except where otherwise indicated.

The basis for calculating same-store sales is defined by the sales registered in stores that have been operating for at least 12 consecutive months and have not been closed for seven

About GPA and Viavarejo: GPA is Brazil's largest retailer, with a distribution network comprising approximately 1,800 points of sale and electronic channels. The Group's multiformat structure consists of the GPA Food and Viavarejo operations. GPA Food's operations comprise supermarkets (Pão de Açúcar and Extra Supermercado), hypermarkets (Extra), neighborhood convenience stores (Minimercado Extra), cash-and-carry stores (Assaí), gas stations and drugstores. GPA Food's business is divided into Food and Non-Food consecutive days or more in this period. Acquisitions are not included in the same-store calculation basis in the first 12 months of operation.

GPA adopts the IPCA consumer price index as its benchmark inflation index, which is also used by the Brazilian Supermarkets Association (ABRAS), since it more accurately reflects the mix of products and brands sold by the Company.

(electronics/home appliances, clothing, general merchandise, drugstore and gas station). Viavarejo's operations consist of bricks-and-mortar stores selling electronics/home appliances (Ponto Frio and Casas Bahia) and online stores (Nova Pontocom: Extra.com.br, PontoFrio.com.br, Casasbahia.com.br). Founded in 1948 in São Paulo, the Group is present in 20 of the 27 Brazilian states, which jointly account for 94.1% of the country's GDP.

Disclaimer: Statements contained in this release relating to the business outlook of the Group, projections of operating and financial results, growth potential of the Group and market and macroeconomic estimates, constitute mere forecasts and were based on beliefs, intentions and expectations of Management in relation to the future of the Company. These expectations are highly dependent on changes in the market, on Brazil's general economic performance, on the industry and on international markets, and are therefore subject to change.
