Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 29, 2005, the Company entered into a Loan and Security Agreement for a revolving line of credit led by Bank of America, N. A. and Wachovia Bank, National Association (the "Agreement"). The new credit facility is a revolving line of credit in an amount equal to the lesser of $75,000,000 or twenty percent of the Company's estimated remaining collections of all its eligible asset pools. The new line of credit replaces the Company's previous $25,000,000 credit facility with RBC Centura Bank. Borrowings under the new revolving credit facility will bear interest at a floating rate equal to the LIBOR Market Index Rate plus 1.75%, which will be calculated monthly and will accrue daily. The obligations under the Agreement are unconditionally guaranteed by the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries, and are secured by a security interest in substantially all of the tangible and intangible assets of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Agreement contains customary covenants that will limit or place restrictions on the ability of the Company to, among other things, incur additional indebtedness, create certain liens, make certain types of investments, enter into certain types of transactions, make certain expenditures, sell certain assets, merge with other companies or enter into certain other transactions outside the ordinary course of business. The Agreement also requires the Company's compliance with several financial covenants. The Agreement contains customary events of default, including, but not limited to: (a) non-payment of amounts due; (b) material breach of representations, warranties or covenants under the Agreement or the documents pertaining thereto; (c) bankruptcy or similar proceedings; (d) dissolution; (e) certain changes in management; or (f) other certain material adverse changes. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, the amounts due and outstanding under the credit facility may be accelerated and may become immediately due and payable. The Agreement provides that advances under the revolving credit facility can be used only for working capital purposes and to finance certain permitted acquisitions. The foregoing summary of the Agreement does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement itself, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
