Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 15, 2011 Popular, Inc., (the "Corporation") announced today that it and the plaintiffs and named defendants have entered into a memorandum of understanding in connection with the settlement of two shareholder derivative actions, one filed in the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico and one filed in the Puerto Rico Court of First Instance, San Juan Part.

Under the terms of the memorandum of understanding, subject to certain customary conditions, including court approval of a final settlement agreement, in consideration for the full and final settlement and release of all defendants, the Corporation has agreed, for a period of three years, to maintain or implement certain corporate governance practices, measures and policies, as set forth in the memorandum of understanding. Aside from the payment by or on behalf of the Corporation of approximately $2.1 million of attorneys' fees and expenses of counsel for the plaintiffs, the settlement does not require any cash payments by or on behalf of the Corporation or the defendants. The parties intend to file a joint request to approve the settlement.

The Corporation made no admission of liability in connection with the settlement.

At this point, the settlement agreement is not final and is subject to a number of future events, including approval of the settlement by the relevant court. There can be no assurances that the settlement will be finalized.

The Corporation has issued a press release in connection with the settlements a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
