Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 19, 2006, Callisto Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”) was informed by The University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center (“UTMDACC”) that it had executed a Patent and Technology License Agreement dated as of January 10, 2006 with the Company. Pursuant to the license agreement, the Company was granted the exclusive right to manufacture, have manufactured, use, import, offer to sell and/or sell anti-cancer compounds called tyrphostins (renamed Degrasyns). The Company is obligated to pay a nonrefundable license fee and annual license maintenance fees to UTMDACC.

The Company also agreed to pay UTMDACC royalties based on net sales from any licensed products, plus aggregate milestone payments of up to $1,750,000 based upon achieving certain regulatory submissions and approvals. The term of the agreement is from January 10, 2006 until the end of the term for which the patent rights associated with the licensed technology have expired. In addition, at any time after 2 years from January 10, 2006, UTMDACC has the right to terminate the license if the Company fails to provide evidence within 90 days of written notice that it has commercialized or is actively and effectively attempting to commercialize the licensed technology.

Attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference is a press release announcing the execution of the license agreement with UTMDACC.
