In the first half of 2009, the Chinese government implemented stimulus package to promote economic growth, and adopted proactive fiscal policy and relatively easy monetary policy to overcome the negative impact of the international financial crisis on the global economy. As a result, Chinese economy maintained sound growth with a GDP growth rate of 7.1%.

In 2009, international crude oil prices rose sharply from its lows and domestic demands for oil products stopped falling and gradually went up, demands and prices of chemical products gradually bounced from the bottom of the fourth quarter last year. Looking into the second half of this year, the State will continue implementing the proactive fiscal policy and relatively easy monetary policy, further improving and materialising the integrated economic stimulus package, and increasing domestic demand. The Chinese economy is expected to maintain relatively fast growth. International crude oil price in the second half is expected to be higher than the first half, fluctuating within a narrow range. While domestic demand for refined oil products will maintain steady growth, the demand for chemical products will continue to recover. Domestic ethylene production capacity is expected to grow significantly.

In the second half of this year, the Company will make more efforts in market development, strengthen the coordination between production, marketing and R&D. Throughout intensified and refined management and cost saving, the Company shall make optimal arrangement for various production and operation activities.

In Exploration and Production Segment, the Company will enhance wild cat exploration activities, and try to make break through in newly explored regions, and enhance integrated management over both exploration and development in key regions, as well as proactively tap the potentials of existing oil fields, and further improve their recovery rate. In terms of natural gas development, the Sichuan-East China Gas Project is expected to start-up in the fourth quarter of this year. In the second half of this year, the Company plans to produce 21.40 million tonnes of crude oil and 4.963 billion cubic meters of natural gas.

In Refining Segment, the Company will try to operate at high utilisation rate, optimise the purchase and allocation of crude oil resources, make efforts to reduce the cost of crude oil procurement. In line with market changes, the Company will timely adjust the product mix, and increase the output of high value-added products. The Company will start-up the newly built refining projects such as Fujian and Tianjin, and prepare for the production of GB III standard gasoline. In the second half of this year, the Company plans to 97.10 million tonnes of crude oil.

- 5.10 Caution and explanation as to the anticipated loss of accumulated net profits from the beginning of the year to the end of the next reporting period or significant changes over the same period of last year

During January to September of 2008, the international price of crude oil increased significantly. The domestic price of refined oil products was under tight control and prices of crude oil and oil products were reverted at some times. In order to ensure stable supply of refined oil products in the market, the Company took various measures to increase refinery throughput and outsourcing of oil products, increased oil products imports and optimized oil products deployment. However, this also led to huge losses of refining business and deterioration of financial performance of the Company in 2008.

Since 2009, domestic oil product pricing mechanism reform has turned refining business from loss to profit. Sinopec Corp. fully exerted its scale and cost strength in oil refining business and the integration and management strength, which becomes significant pillars to support the Company's profits. Demand to chemical products is continuously recovering. It is anticipated that the result of first three quarters of 2009 will be over 50% higher compared with the same period of last year.

7.3 Changes in accounting policies

√ Applicable

Not applicable

7.3.1 Change in accounting policies in the financial statements prepared under ASBE

In accordance with China Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises Bulletin No.3 (“Bulletin No.3”), which was issued during the six-month period ended 30 June 2009 and China Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises Bulletin No.2 (“Bulletin No.2”), which was issued by the Ministry of Finance in 2008, the Group changed the following significant accounting policies:

(1) Presentation of income statement

Bulletin No. 3 requires additional account captions, other comprehensive income and total comprehensive income, to be presented in the income statement. Other comprehensive income represents the after tax effect of total gains and losses, which have not been recognised in the net profit according to ASBE (2006). Total comprehensive income represents the aggregate amount of net profit and other comprehensive income. The above changes have also been applied to the Group’s consolidated income statement with account captions, total comprehensive income attributable to the equity shareholders of the Company and total comprehensive income attributable to minority interests, presented below the total comprehensive income.

Comparative figures have been restated to conform with the above new change of presentation in the income statement. Please see the income statement for details.

(2) Segment reporting

Bulletin No.3 requires segment disclosure to be based on the way that the Group's chief operating decision maker manages the Group, with the amounts reported for each reportable segment being the measures reported to the Group's chief operating decision maker for the purposes of assessing segment performance and making decisions about operating matters. This contrasts with the presentation of segment information in prior years which was based on a disaggregation of the Group's financial statements into segments based on related products and services and on geographical areas. However, the adoption of Bulletin No.3 has not resulted in any significant changes to the presentation of segment information since the identification and presentation of reportable segments in prior periods were consistent with Bulletin No.3.

(3) Oil and gas properties

Prior to 30 June 2008, oil and gas properties were depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Pursuant to the requirements of Bulletin No.2, the Group changed the depreciation method of oil and gas properties from straight-line method to unit-of-production method and made retrospective adjustments to the financial statements during the year ended 31 December 2008. The effects of the change in accounting policies on the Group and the Company's net profits for the six-month period ended 30 June 2008 are as follows:

	The Group Six-month period ended 30 June 2008 RMB millions	The Company Six-month period ended 30 June 2008 RMB millions
Net profit before adjustment	9,415	5,952
Oil and gas properties	(1,093)	(1,093)
Net profit after adjustment	8,322	4,859

7.3.2 Change in accounting policies in the financial statements prepared under IFRS

The International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) has issued certain new and revised IFRS that are first effective for the current accounting period of the Group. The new accounting policies and new disclosures resulting from the initial application of these standards or developments to the extent that they are relevant to the Group are summarised as follows:

- (i) As a result of the adoption of revised IAS 1 “Presentation of Financial Statements” (“revised IAS 1”), details of changes in equity during the period arising from transactions with equity shareholders in their capacity as such have been presented separately from all other income and expenses in a revised consolidated statement of changes in equity. All other items of income and expense are presented in the consolidated income statement, if they are recognised as part of profit or loss for the period, or otherwise in a new primary statement, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income. Corresponding amounts have been restated to conform to the new presentation.

- (ii) IFRS 8, Operating segments (“IFRS 8”), requires segment disclosure to be based on the way that the Group’s chief operating decision maker manages the Group, with the amounts reported for each reportable segment being the measures reported to the Group’s chief operating decision maker for the purposes of assessing segment performance and making decisions about operating matters. The adoption of IFRS 8 has not resulted in any significant changes to the presentation of segment information since the identification and presentation of reportable segments in prior periods were consistent with IFRS 8.

Both revised IAS 1 and IFRS 8 do not have any impact on the classification, recognition and measurement of the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

7.4 Reasons, contents and amounts of material accounting errors and relevant effects

The Group has no material accounting errors during the reporting period.

7.5 Notes on the financial statements prepared under IFRS

- (ii) The tax effect of non-taxable income for the six-month period ended 30 June 2008 primarily related to the grant income.

SUMMARY OF KEY INFORMATION

1. Transaction Risks

The Acquisition is conducted based on the principles of equality, fairness and openness, without concealing and deception, however, in consideration of the market system risk, market fluctuation risk and policy risk, the information below is hereby presented, and investors are requested to take into full consideration.

(1) Consideration fairness risk

In the Acquisition, the consideration of the assets and equity interests is determined by reference to the valuation value as determined in the valuation reports, and the final consideration is determined by both parties through negotiation on the basis of equality and fairness.

Due to the existence of time difference between valuation date, execution date of transaction agreements and the Date of Completion, and market fluctuation from time to time, fluctuation in the value of assets and equity to be acquired constitute the risks of fairness of considerations.

(2) Asset valuation increment risk

Valuers apply a fair appraisal approach with fair and objective attitude, with valuation result recorded with the management department. Similar to the consideration fairness risk, there are same risk factors, asset value (including asset increment) will fluctuate in accordance with fluctuation of market price, which constitutes the asset valuation increment risk.

(3) Profitability fluctuation risk

Although as anticipated, the assets to be acquired will have little effect on the financial indicators of Sinopec Corp., its major contribution to Sinopec Corp. is synergistic effect and business support. However, as change of market environment may result in fluctuation in profitability, there is certain effect on profitability fluctuation.

(4) Approval risk

As the consideration for the Acquisition is lower than 5% of the net value of Sinopec Corp. as latest audited, the Acquisition is only subject to the approval of the Board and not subject to the approval of the general meeting of shareholders under the Shanghai Listing Rules. As each of the percentage ratios (as defined in Rule 14.07 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules) applicable to the Acquisition is below 2.5%, the Acquisition shall comply with reporting and announcement requirement under Rule 14A.45 and Rule 14A.47 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules and is not subject to the approval of the independent shareholders of Sinopec Corp.

In addition, pursuant to Interim Measures on Administration of Transfer of State-owned Property Right of Enterprise and Notice on Relevant Matters in relation to Transfer of State-owned Property Right of Enterprise, the Acquisition shall be approved by SASAC, and the Asset Valuation Reports in respect of the acquisitions of equity interests in five companies shall be filed with the SASAC. If the approval or filing of Acquisition and the Asset Valuation Reports is not granted by SASAC, five Equity Transfer Agreements and six Asset Transfer Agreements shall be terminated. Therefore, the Acquisition is uncertain before the approval by and filing with SASAC.

(5) Asset ownership risk

The assets and equity interests to be acquired are the assets of Asset Management Company, the titles are clear and there are no third party interests.

Asset-liability ratio of Sinopec Corp. will increase from 53.09% to 53.12%, liquidity ratio and quick ratio will drop a little, and overall debt paying ability will slightly decline, but liabilities will still be within a reasonable level.

Therefore, after completion of the Acquisition, financial indicators of Sinopec Corp. are affected relatively little.

(2) Effects on continuing connected transactions between Sinopec Corp. and its parent company

The assets and equity interests involved in the Acquisition are the surviving part of China Petrochemical Corporation, which mainly provide supports in business, technology and logistic service. In practical operation, there are some connected transactions. Therefore, through the Acquisition, such surviving part will be incorporated to Sinopec Corp., which will significantly reduce the connected transactions, and is more beneficial to exert the synergistic effect of Sinopec Corp.

(3) Positive effects on corporate governance

Firstly, continuing connected transactions will be reduced; secondly, it will perfect and improve the whole level and ability of Sinopec Corp.'s scientific research system and material equipment supply system, reduce management layers, and enhance the management efficiency of Sinopec Corp.; lastly, the Acquisition will not result in new continuing connected transactions and competitions.

3. Whether Transaction Occurred with the Same Connected Person in the Last 24 Months

There were three connected transactions between the same connected person and Sinopec Corp. in the last 24 months, on 28 December 2007, 27 June 2008 and 27 March 2009, respectively; transaction amount is RMB 3,659.79 million, RMB 1,564.48 million, and RMB 1,839.39 million, respectively, for acquisitions (simultaneously RMB 157.47 million for disposal).

(2) The financial data relating to the Acquisition, including the balance sheets and the income statements of the Target Assets were prepared in accordance with the China Enterprise Accounting Rules. In the financial reports of the Target Assets for Acquisition, there is no material inconsistency in the values of the net asset and net profits whether prepared in accordance with China Enterprise Accounting Rules or prepared in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Rules.

(3) Six Asset Transfer Agreements and five Equity Transfer Agreements entered into between Sinopec Corp. and Asset Management Company are independent of each other. Any failure to perform one agreement shall not in any way affect the validity and performance of other agreements.

2. Special Statements

- (1) Special statements on the whole appraisal increment of the assets to be acquired above and over 20% of book value

In accordance with the appraisal result of Beijing United Assets Appraisal Co., Ltd. and Beijing Zhongzheng Appraisal Co., Ltd., appraisal value of the assets and equity to be acquired exceeds more than 20% of the book value, with increment up to 81.71%.

Asset increment centers at land increment, representing 95.04% of net asset increment. Reasons for large land increment proportion in the whole increment:

In recent years, due to development of real estate market, land price goes up drastically. Six research institutes are located at the high-quality land lot of the city, especially three research institutes in Beijing and Shanghai Research Institute of Petrochemical Technology are located at the golden land lot of two cities, and land price of these two cities is the highest in the nationwide, so land increment rate is large.

- (2) Special statements on the appraisal increment of the Material Equipment Company above and over 20% of book value

Appraisal value increment rate of Material Equipment Company is 23.95%, less than six research institutes, but it is also above and over 20% of book value. Increment is concentrated on lands and real estate of Material Equipment Company and its subsidiaries, with an increment of RMB 110 million, and secondly, financial assets held by Material Equipment Company, including treasury bonds, enterprise bonds and entrusted loans, increases by RMB 20 million based on respective market value.

V. REASONS FOR THE CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS AND THE EFFECT OF THE CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS ON SINOPEC

1. Reasons for the Connected Transactions

(1) To improve the technology ability of Sinopec Corp., and promote the prosperous development of Sinopec Corp.

Six scientific research institutes in the Target Assets are integral part of the scientific research system of Sinopec Corp. For example, Xingpu Company to be acquired in the Acquisition is the core unit of Research Institute of Petroleum Processing, undertaking the important task of pilot test of scientific research achievements.

After completion of the Acquisition, scientific research system of Sinopec Corp. will be more complete, and form a complete scientific research chain for scientific research, pilot test, business support. A complete, efficient and powerful scientific research system is of great significance to improvement of the business of Sinopec Corp.

(2) To perfect the material equipment supply system of Sinopec Corp

After completion of the Acquisition, the material equipment supply system of Sinopec Corp. will be integrated again, not only eliminating their continuing connected transaction, but also achieving integrated operation in the business and geographic distribution.

(3) To reduce continuing connected transactions

In the process of reorganization of Sinopec Corp. for preparation for listing, main core assets of China Petrochemical Corporation were injected into Sinopec Corp., and a lot of matching businesses are retained in China petrochemical corporation, which results in continuing connected transactions between them.

One purpose of the Acquisition is to reduce the continuing connected transactions, improve the effectiveness of integrated cooperation, decrease management levels, and enhance the management efficiency.

After completion of the Acquisition, the continuing connected transactions between Sinopec Corp. and China Petrochemical Corporation will be effectively reduced, and rights and interests of Sinopec Corp. and all of its shareholders will be maintained.

2. Effects of the Acquisition on Sinopec Corp.

Effects of the Acquisition on Sinopec Corp. can be shown from supports for existing core business of Sinopec Corp. and elimination of partial continuing connected transactions.

(1) Effects on financial indicators of Sinopec Corp.

In near future, due to late completion of the Acquisition, supports for existing core business and synergic effect can not be shown effectively, so there is little effect on the financial indicators of Sinopec Corp.

In accordance with the relevant data about the balance sheet for the year ended 31 March 2009 of Sinopec Corp. and payment of consideration of self-owned funds by Sinopec Corp. in the Acquisition, effects on main financial indicators of Sinopec Corp. after the completion of the Acquisition are described as follows:

(i) Effects on net assets per share

As a result of completion of the Acquisition with self-owned funds, no change of share capital in the acquisition period, and without financial adjustment factors, net assets per share keep unchanged at the time of completion of the Acquisition.

(ii) Effects on asset-liability ratio

The Acquisition is completed by Sinopec Corp. with the Company's internal resources, and debt ratio after the Acquisition will be adjusted from 53.09% to 53.12%.

As a whole, due to small scale of the assets to be acquired, effects on the solvency and earning potential of Sinopec Corp. after the Acquisition are relatively small.

With further enhancement of technology strength of Sinopec Corp., synergic effect of technology propelling power and integrated operation will be realized, and accretive effect of earning potential per share will be gradually developed.

(2) Effects on continuing connected transactions

According to financial statements of Jingdu Tinwha, connected transactions amounted RMB 500 million in 2007, RMB 490 million in 2008 and RMB 120 million between January and May of 2009, respectively. Through the Acquisition, the survival part will be injected into Sinopec Corp., effectively consolidating and minimizing such connected transactions thereafter.

(3) Effects on core business system

- (i) Enhancement of the whole level of scientific research ability of Sinopec Corp.

Six scientific research institutes in the subjects of the Acquisition, corresponding to six scientific research institutes of Sinopec Corp., undertake the function of business support, and meanwhile have powerful scientific research strength.

Function of business support is concentrated on scientific research pilot test, logistic support, and personnel trainings, etc.; scientific research ability of six institutes and their national accredited qualifications are indispensable to the scientific research system of Sinopec Corp.

- (ii) Improvement of material equipment supply ability of Sinopec Corp.

Material Equipment Company in the subjects of the Acquisition was originally integrated with the material equipment business of Sinopec Corp. After completion of the Acquisition, material equipment supply system of Sinopec Corp. will be perfected, and the existing material equipment supply system of Sinopec Corp. will be further improved, in materials storage and reserves, particularly.

Simultaneously, the existing business system of Material Equipment Company to be acquired also perfects and prolongs the supply chain of Sinopec Corp., and enhances the materials safeguarding ability of Sinopec Corp.
