Item 3.03 Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders.

On July 2, 2018, HealthEquity, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), filed its second amended and restated certificate of incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, which amendments were previously approved by the stockholders of the Company at its annual meeting held on June 21, 2018. In addition, the second amended and restated by-laws, which were also approved by the stockholders of the Company at such 2018 annual meeting, became effective upon the filing of the second amended and restated certificate of incorporation.

The second amended and restated certificate of incorporation and second amended and restated by-laws:

(i) eliminated the supermajority voting provisions in place under the Company’s previous certificate of incorporation and by-laws, which had required an affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66^{2/3}% of the voting power of all then-outstanding shares of the Company’s common stock to amend any provisions of the Company’s by-laws and certain provisions of its certificate of incorporation; and

(ii) provide that, subject to satisfying certain conditions, stockholders of the Company holding 25% or more of the Company’s common stock may call a special meeting of stockholders of the Company.

The second amended and restated by-laws also provide a majority voting standard for director nominees in an uncontested election, rather than the previous plurality standard. This majority voting standard does not apply to vacancies on the board of directors (including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors) filled by a vote of the board of directors. In addition, in a contested election, where the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected, a plurality voting standard continues to apply.

The foregoing summaries of the second amended and restated certificate of incorporation and second amended and restated by-laws are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of each, which are filed as Exhibits 3.1 and 3.2 respectively to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are incorporated into this filing by reference.

Exhibit No. Description

3.1 Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company.

3.2 Second Amended and Restated By-Laws of the Company.
